Dear Delores:

Haven't heard from you in some time, but felt I should give you this update on the WAGONERs.

As you know, we have always felt that Regina was possibly a second wife of Phillip WAGGONER. The birth of his son John has been variously given as 1760, 1764. I have had from my father-in-law's record the date of 17 Apr 1760 as the birth date of John. It did not seem that important until Charles Martin uncovered 2 marriage dates and one birth date a couple of years ago. Marriage of Anna Regina WUSTER to John BREUNIG 30 Nov 1756, Marriage of Phillip WAGGONER to Regina BREUNIG, widow 19 Aug 1760. For several years I have been trying to track down the records of Harvey WAGNER He was of the David WAGONER-Elizabeth SHIVELY and Daniel WAGONER-Catharine SHIVELY lines. His parentswere double cousins. My father-in-law only says "from the records of Harvey WAGNER." My letters to his two children went unanswered so I finally contacted both of them by phone. The daughter said she did have her father's papers packed away. I wrote and explained what I wanted--months later she said she had looked at some of the papers and found nothing but 1760. However, she said she had a photograph of some German writing I might find interesting and sent it to me to copy. Well, I couldn't read it but I could see it was probably what I wanted. It was photos of 2 pages from the Bible of Samuel, youngest son of John & Esther. Well, then it was some time before I could find someone to read that old German script. (Some of the dates he gives for birth of his brothers and himself vary a bit from your record).

We have not found a record of PHillipWAGGONER's first marriage or the death of his first wife (between 17 Apr and 19 Aug 1760), but we do know Regina was the mother of Peter, but not of Phillip, Jr., Anna Mary (m Daniel BOWSER) and John. The order of the children as named in Phillip's will is clearly not the order of birth.

One thing I might add; I note you stated John WAGGONER was buried 1818 in Turner Shively Cem Pyrmont Ohio. Actually the Turner Shively Cem is at Hoover & Olive Rds in Dayton. Pyrmont is some miles west of that.

I'm enclosing copy of the Bible pages for your interest, and am also sending copy to Jerry Cripe.

We are busy being grandparents these days. Although we have grown-up grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren. our 2 youngest sons have had twins; Tom has 3½ year old identical twin girls and Jim has 2 year old boys (the tests were inconclusive, but they sure look alike) Anyway, they all live

BENJAMIN WAGONER MEMORIAL CEMETERY

The Benjamin Wagoner Memorial Cemetery, Lot 1, NE¼ Sec 28-1-10 is located on the original homestead 4 miles south and 3 miles east of Red Cloud in Webster County, Nebraska.

Benjamin Wagoner, wife Catharine Fouts, and their 10 children left Clinton Co IN 23 Sept. 1869. Benjamin, sons Daniel and Noah and son-in law, Edwin Mohler homesteaded in Webster Co NE; sons John, David and Joseph a few miles south just over the line in Kansas.

Benjamin died 27 Aug. 1880 and was buried in the northeast corner of his homestead. A few days later, a grandson, the infant son of Ed and Sarah Mohler was buried there.

On 31 July, 1882, the widow, Catharine Fouts Wagoner deeded 2½ acres in the northeast corner of the homestead for a cemetery for "the benefit of the community at large and the religious people known as Brethren or German Baptists for the purpose of a free burial ground."

The descendants of Benjamin and Catharine Wagoner have recently reorganized the Cemetery Association and are raising money for the perpetual care of this little cemetery.

The following is a list of known burials as of June 1984.

The following is an excerpt from a little book recently published by Gerald C. Wagoner, 5170 N. Croft Mill Road, Bradford, Ohio 45308, entitled Biography and Family History of Floyd R. Wagoner. (Paperback, 60 pp., unindexed, $3.75 prepaid.) For further comment on this book, see Carolyn's Column.

Floyd Raymond Wagoner was born September 30, 1898, near the middle fork of the Wildcat Creek, a few miles south of Pyrmont, Clinton County, Indiana.

He was the second son of Emanuel and Eave (Hufford) Wagoner and grandson of Elder Leonard J. and Hannah (Ulrey) Wagoner of Pyrmont on the north fork of the above mentioned Wildcat Creek.

Leonard's father, John, Jr., immigrated from near Dayton, Montgomery County, Ohio at about 40 years of age. Tradition says he travelled on horseback looking for a suitable "mill site" in about 1828. Upon reacing the Wildcat in Carroll County, he must have found what he was looking for, for there he constructed a log cabin, remained all that winter, and returned later with his family. He built the first grist mill and the first saw mill on the Wildcat Creek. . .

John Waggoner, Jr. was born 1788 in Huntingdon County, Pa., to John and Esther (Cripe) Waggoner. He moved with his parents in 1801 to Montgomery County, Ohio. John, Jr., first married Mary Weybright of Montgomery County in 1812. She passed away in 1822 leaving five small children. A year later he married Mary "Polly" Cripe and she bore him nine more children, one of whom, Leonard, was Floyd's grandfather. Daddy has a sheepskin land-grant in his possession, dated 1829, and signed by President Andrew Jackson, petitioning the Land Office at Crawfordsville, Indiana, for eighty acres of virgin government land in Carroll County, Indiana. (Author's Note: The first several pages of this story had been written before my Father passed away.)

John Waggoner, Sr. was the son of Phillip and ~~Regina~~ ANNA Waggoner and was born 1764 in Pennsylvania. He died in 1818 and is buried in the Turner or Shively Cemetery near the intersection of Olive Road and Hoover Avenue, just west of Dayton, Ohio. After he died, and after all his family including John, Jr. had moved to Indiana, his widow, Esther, sold her land and followed her children to Indiana. Otho Winger's "History of the Brethren in Indiana", states that in 1832, the Pyrmont or North Fork congregation was fully organized. There were sixteen charter members, seven of whom were Wsther Waggoner, John Waggoner, Jr. and wife, Samuel Waggoner (Esther's youngest son), and her son-in-law, Joel Fouts and John and Catherine Cripe, her nephew and niece.

The author finds it quite intriguing to reflect upon the common interests shared by these three families: the Ulreys, Cripes and Waggoners. Their "togetherness" was manifested in many ways such as immigration, religion, culture, occupation, ultimately settling near each other, and intermarriage. . . . . . .

John, Sr., and Esther Waggoner had eight children and all their children had large families. Therefore, Esther's stone marker located on the highest point in the Pyrmont Cemetery is a fitting Memorial to her. It reads thus: "She is the Mother and Grandmother of all the Waggoners buried in this yard."

John, Sr. and Esther Waggoner were the parents of Samuel Wagner, who married Catherine Metzger, daughter of Andrew and Marguerite Metzger

Wagoner, continued . . .

The father of John Sr., Phillip Waggoner, is the first known Waggoner ancestor. He was born about 1735 and died 1787 in Washington County, Maryland. According to the History of the Church of the Brethren in Eastern Pennsylvania, Phillip and his wife Regina were baptized into the Coventry German Baptist Brethren Church in 1770. It appears the Waggoners embraced the Brethren or German Baptist Faith early in the history of this Fraternity. . . .

It is interesting to note that nearly all the early Waggoners spelled their name with two g's. The spelling of John, Jr.'s name on the land grant is with two g's, but nowhere have I found his son Leonard's name with the two g's. He signed his name, Leonard J. Wagoner. So someone in his generation dropped a g. However, John, Sr.'s brother, Philip, Jr., spelled his name, Philip Wagner. . . .

Tradition says the Waggoners immigrated from Pyrmont, Germany and settled in Pyrmont, Pennsylvania. Later they came to Pyrmont, Ohio area and possibly named this town, but this has yet to be documented. Carroll County, Indiana attracted them a few years later and guess what they called their new community? You guessed it! Pyrmont!. . . .

(From the Carroll County History, published around the turn of the century:). . . "Mr. (Leonard) Wagoner was educated in the public schools of Carroll County and in 1862, was married to Hannah Ulrey, a daughter of Jacob and Susan Ulrey. The marriage took place on May 4, 1862. Mr. and Mrs. Wagoner have the following children: John H. . . . , Jacob S., Isom, Emanuel and Anna."

(Leonard Wagoner) was elected to the ministry in 1884 and ordained eleven years later. He was presiding elder over the North Fork Congregation for a number of years, the land for the church originally having come from Leonard's farm. The next few years held some tragic experiences for him as he lost his eyesight in 1914, and three years later his wife Hannah died. He passed away February 8, 1923 at the ripe old age of eighty-three.

This genealogical record has been prepared by John A. Most of the data on this page was taken from the records of Ira B. Wagoner (1883–1965). It has been rechecked by persons representing all branches of the Family and is believed accurate to August 1, 1971.

"Benjamin Wagoner and Catherine Fouts were united in Holy Matrimony at the residence of Lawrence Fouts near Lafayette, Clinton County of Indiana on the First Day of December, A.D. 1846, by Elder John Metzger of the Brethern Church. Benjamin and Catherine Wagoner remained in the State of Indiana until September 1869 when they with their family of Seven Boys and Three Girls started toward the Great West. They left Lafayette early in the morning with two teams loaded with household goods and grain. They came by the way of Peoria, Illinois where we met Daniel Fouts who accompanied them with two wagons and a large family. From Peoria, Illinois we crossed the Mississippi at Burlington, Iowa. From Burlington to Clarinda, Page County, Iowa where we were overtaken in a terrible snow storm. Rented a small house 16 by 18. Paid $21.00 rent per month for 5 months until the middle of March 1870. From Clarinda, Iowa to Washington County, Nebraska where we rented a farm, raised a crop and during this time we went southwest in Webster County, Nebraska and Homesteaded September 6, 1870. Moved from Washington County, Nebraska on our Homestead in the fall of 1870.

In the Spring of 1871 commenced breaking and broke out 40 acres, planted it in Sod Corn. Did not amount to much, cut it up for fodder. It was a good seasonable year. Second year we had a good year. Third year was a good year for rain and crops look very nice until a Hail Storm destroyed all the crops and then in 1874 we had the terrible Grasshoppers Year, had nothing left but 96 bushels of Wheat. Since the country improved, we had plenty to live and to spare. Thus we succeeded in procuring us a home."

CHIEF OF FARM BODY HITS FSA

Charges Waste Is National Disgrace; Payment for Poll Taxes Blasted

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6—(AP)—Edward A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, offered today to submit to congressional investigators evidence that the Farm Security Administration had burdened farmers with unnecessary loans and had "wasted federal funds to the extent of a national disgrace."

Testifying before the joint congressional committee on reduction of non-essential federal expenditures, O'Neal asked a thorough investigation of FSA to supplement preliminary studies by federation officials.

"While we did not have the time nor the facilities to make a complete investigation," O'Neal said, "the preliminary findings indicate some startling and shocking conditions of waste, extravagance and indefensible practices in the administration of this program."

Challenged by Senator LaFollette (Prog-Wis.) to present evidence on which these allegations were based, O'Neal said this would be done at a later hearing by Donald Kirkpatrick, general counsel of the federation.

O'Neal appeared after C. B. Bald-were related today by 12 men, only known survivors of the latest tanker torpedoing.

Twenty-six men were missing from the crew of the American-owned India Arrow, 8,327-ton tanker sunk off the Atlantic coast Wednesday evening. Himself among the dozen to reach shore, their skipper said:

"I am doubtful if any others survived."

Two cod fishermen who had braved a fog-bound inlet for their daily chore found the survivors' lifeboat 12 miles off Ocean City this morning and towed it here.

Once the oil-grimed figures had been fed, scrubbed and rested at the Atlantic City Coast Guard station, they almost to a man announced their readiness to sail again.

The India Arrow was northbound when the torpedo crashed into its hull just aft of the engine room at 7 p. m. Wednesday. The ship sank so fast that only two or three men escaped from the engine room and Fred H. Baker of John's Island, S. C. reported he was the only one to get out of the crew's sleeping quarters in the stern.

Radio Operator Edward J. Shear of Port Arthur, Texas, got out a fragmentary call for help and then was rolled out of the wireless shack.

Captain Carl S. Johnson of New Dorp, N. Y., and others were tossed into the sea by the force of the explosion and others leaped after them. Two lifeboats were launched, with several men in one, but only three in the number one boat. Shear was one of the three.

"We just got the ropes off in the nick of time," said Shear. "The ship keeled over on number two lifeboat. I think number two must have been crushed and sunk with all its occupants. Then the tanker keeled back and flooded our lifeboat with oil and water to the gunwales."

"We picked nine men out of the water. They all looked alike because they were covered with oil and we couldn't tell one from the other.

"We barely drifted clear of the surface oil as it caught fire. We were only about 300 feet on the other side of the tanker when the submarine

House Revolts Against Employment of Actors and Dancers in Defense --Refuses Donald Duck Film Money

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6—(AP)—In an unsurge of revolt against the appointment of Actor Melvyn Douglas and Mrs. Roosevelt's dancer-protege to high civilian defense posts, the House voted, 88 to 80, today to forbid use of civilian defense funds for "instructions in physical fitness by dancers, fan dancing, street shows, theatrical performances or other public entertainment."

Dear Delores:

Just a short note--Were you able to help Virginia about Leonard Fouts? I looked all through my Fouts Newsletters from several years back and found a number of Leonard Foutses but nothing conclusive.

Thanks for your letter . I appreciate your sympathy. Keep in touch.

E. VI. e. JACOB BLICKENSTAFF. He was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, December 5,1816, and lived there until 1834. After his father died, his mother moved her family into Tippecanoe County, Indiana, on April 10,1836. He married Susan Ulrich, who was born December 21,1812, and died September 15, 1876. (Another record spells her name "Ulrey" and gives her birth date as December 12,1817, and the date of her death as September 15,1876). This later record states that they were married April 10,1830. This later record also states that he married Esther Wagoner, December 2,1876, and that she died March 11,1883, aged 65 years. According to incidents related by his granddaughters, he was a very stern man and very particular. It was said that during the last illness of his daughter-inlaw, Mrs. Isaac Blickenstaff, he insisted that she could not eat on account of the way her daughters prepared her food, and that it was not fit to eat. So he killed, dressed and cooked a chicken, saying that now she would eat. She did eat a little of it in order to please him, but she soon died. By 1900 he was totally blind, and it is likely he was blind several years before, but he lived at that time with his son Isaac Blickenstaff, in Pyrmont, Indiana, and had the satisfaction of holding two of his great grandchildren on his lap. His last years were spent at the Brethern Old Folks Home at Mexico, Indiana, where he died September 22,1904, and was buried there. His children were:

E. VI. e. 1. Joseph, b.4-10-1837. Married Mary Heckman, and moved to Butler County, Kansas.

2. Susanna, b.7-30-1838. Married John Wolf, October 30,1864, moved to California, in 1885, and to Warrensburg, Kansas, in 1896, and to Kansas City, 1902, where she died January 11,1932, aged 93 years, at the home of her only child, Eva Long.

* Summer Park Poly Warrensburg

3. David, b. 2-2-1840. Married Susan Wise.

4. Jacob, b.11-20-1841. Moved to Sheridan County, Nebraska. Married Susan Wagoner (sister to Lizzie Pearson's mother) who died 1877. Remarried in 1878 and she died in 1908. Jacob died Dec. 7,1909.

He united with the Church of the Brethern at the age of seventeen. At 6:00 P.M., May 24, 1868, he was married to Mary Wagoner, daughter of Joal and Susan Wagoner, by Elder John Shively. She was born February 22, 1847, and died July 18, 1892. 66.7.2.1 His early married life was spent in Ross Township, on a farm about one and one-fourth miles south of Rossville. Later he moved to Tippecanoe County, Indiana, not very far from the Fairview Church of the Brethern. It was at this place that his wife died and shortly after that time he spent some time in North Dakota. He returned to Pyrmont, Carroll County, Indiana, where he purchased a small tract of land, about one and one-half acres, and lived there until his death, his daughter Ellen, keeping house for him. He was totally blind for the last eight or ten years of his life, and remarked when his great-grandsons were born that he never thought he would live to see the Fourth generation. He had the reputation of being a very patient man, never complaining about his suffering. His children were:

She married Elias Wagoner (no blood relation of Mary Wagoner, wife of No.E.VI.e.6), April , 1894. They first established their home on a farm west of Pyrmont, directly across from a deep ravine adjoining the ravine adjoining the place owned by her father, and where he resided at the time of his death. This farm was at that time owned by Milton Bosworth, husband of Elias Wagoner's oldest sister, Elizabeth. The farm was later owned by Herman Leibert, husband of another sister of Elias'. It was in the old frame house near the ravine that Floyd, their oldest child was born, March 30,1895. A year or so later they moved to a farm near Oakley, Illinois, and then later moved into the edge of the little village, in a place known as the "Nicky" house. It was at this place that Mary, their second child was born. About the first of March 1900 they returned to Indiana and purchased a twenty acre farm from Elias' next oldest brother, Henry. This farm was about 3-1/2 miles northwest of Pyrmont, Indiana, on the east side of the county line between Carroll and Tippecanoe counties. The house was built partially from logs, "weather-boarded" up and down with rough undressed lumber, and the cracks were "stripped". Sometime after the farm was sold, the house was demolished, and the land which they owned is now a part of a large farm. At this place their second child, Mary, died August 28,1900, as a result of ivy poisoning and was buried in the Pyrmont Cemetery. Verna and Esther were born at this place. This farm was sold, and they bought a forty acre farm about two and a quarter miles southeast of Rossville, Clinton County, Indiana. Here Florence, Frances and Anna were born. Anna died at this place as a result of scarlet fever and was buried in the Pleasant View Cemetery owned by the Church of the Brethern, about 5 miles southwest of Rossville.

Life did not deal kindly with Emma. It seems that Elias, her husband, did not have the courage and strength of character required to cope with life, and developed into a brutal drunkard. Matters became so serious that a separation was the only humane course to pursue. He dismissed his responsibilities as husband and father by leaving home in May 1914. Anna was then only four months old. Emma later brought suit for divorce which was granted to her in the fall of 1914. By the terms of the Bill of Divorce she was given the sole ownership of the farm, which was heavily mortgaged, and Elias received a small amount of cash. In the years which followed Elias spent a life of comparative ease with his unmarried sister, Kate, in the village of Pyrmont, in the property she inherited from her parents.

Since both were members of the Church of the Brethern, and the church was strongly opposed to divorce, both Emma and Elias were expelled from the church. After additional vows were taken, Emma was later restored to full membership, and she remained a staunch and devoted member until the time of her death.

The years were full of hardships until the children became self-supporting. Floyd purchased a cream buying station in Rossville which he and his mother operated. Later she sold the farm, and purchased a home in Rossville. Verna and Esther worked for other families for a number of years and Verna obtained work in Levi Straus church, just outside of Washington, D. C., where he had lived from 1929 to 1936.

& Company, manufacturers, and Esther became a stenographer, at Levi Stra later at Harker + [illegible] attys. both living in Frankfort. After sometime Floyd went to Chicago, and married Cleo Pickanus, of Piqua, Ohio, (b.Jan.25 1905), on October , 1929, where he established a home. Shortly after the birth of his first son, Robert Eugene, August 31, 1930, Emma lived with him for the winter, and in the spring returned to her home in Rossville. Florence and Frances had also gone to Chicago where they obtained employment. On February 13, 193 , Verna married Carl Adrian Smith, b. September 23,19 , and they established a home in Frankfort. On June , 193 , Florence married Willis Sinclair, b. August 29,1904, and they established their home in Chicago, later moving to Harvey, Illinois. Frances returned to live with Esther in Frankfort. Emma spent considerable time visiting in Frankfort with the three girls and made occasional trips to Chicago, although her health was slowly failing. Her father, Isaac Blickenstaff died 5 — in August?1936, and within a few weeks after that she underwent a major operation for hernia. She fully recovered from this operation, but other serious complications set in, and after receiving the news of the sudden death of a very close friend, Mrs. Ervie Cripe, which was a great shock to her, she lost strength, and died at the home of Esther and Frances in Frankfort, Indiana, December 29,1936. The funeral was held in the Church of the Brethern in Rossville, and the services were conducted by a life long friend, Elder John W. Root, who had also preached the funeral sermon of her father. She was buried by the side of her daughter, Anna, in Pleasant View Cemetery, about five miles southwest of Rossville. Her children were:

He was widely known for his evangelistic work in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, many of the middle western states and California. While pastor of the University Park church, he was granted a leave of absence to answer requests for meetings in California in 1933-34. He spent nine months in this work. In 1935-36, he again went into the churches of California, accompanied by his wife. On his way home he held meetings at Glendale, Ariz., Lincoln, Nebr., and South English, Iowa.

Bro. Cassady often preached on Christ's coming, and with deep emotion, would say: "I want to live to see that day."

Born in Greenland, W. Va., in 1871, he was graduated from the West Virginia State Normal School at Fairmont, and from Juniata College in 1906. He was principal of the Township High School at Yeagertown, Pa., for two years. Elected to the ministry at Huntingdon, Pennsylvania, while attending college in 1903, he began his pastoral work in 1908 in Johnstown. During his six years as pastor there, the church grew in membership from 250 to 1,100. He also played a large part in organizing four other churches in Johnstown and obtaining pastors for them. In 1914, he became pastor of the Huntingdon church, where he served acceptably until Juniata College sought his services for a campaign of raising an endowment fund for the Quinter Memorial Foundation. The fund was raised entirely among the church people. During this campaign he combined his evangelistic work with his solicitation.

This work had a most salutary effect on both the college and the constituency of the churches. It was considered the most satisfactory campaign for funds the college had ever had. Following this he became a member of the Board of Trustees of the college and served several years as its financial secretary.

In 1929, he moved with his family to Washington, D. C., and a year later began his service at University Park. He was married in 1896 to Meribah Idleman at the Idleman home near Maysville, W. Va.

Funeral service took place at the Church of the Brethren there on Friday, June 2, and burial was in the Idleman cemetery. Eld. Walter S. Long, pastor of the First Church of Altoona, Pa., a friend of many years, conducted the final services, assisted by Bro. H. D. Jones of King Ferry.

In addition to his widow, and the son and daughter in Rochester, Bro. Cassady is survived by three other sons, Robert I. Cassady of Akron, Ohio; Paul F. and John H. Cassady, Jr., of Washington, D. C., and one other daughter, Mrs. Clyde F. Berkebile, also of Washington. He also leaves a brother, Homer Cassady of Detroit, Mich., and two sisters, Mrs. T. M. Rotruck of Williamsport, W. Va., and Mrs. Nora Bane, Lakeland, Fla.

Arlington, Va. John H. Cassady, Jr.

Why I Like to Go to Sunday School

I like to go to Sunday school because a better class of people go, and I love to associate with that type of people, the kind who have high ideals.

I can worship God much better in church, for it seems that I am closer to God in his house. The people who go to church have something that those who do not go cannot possess; they have that peace in their hearts which passes understanding.

Christ planted his church here on earth so that we can carry on his work, and if we do not do so we will fall short of the purpose for which he has placed us here.

It would not seem right to me not to attend Sunday school. I have always been taught to go. In Sunday school one gets the different viewpoints of the members of the class, and can in turn exchange one's own viewpoints with the class members. Thus one can enjoy the association of the group.

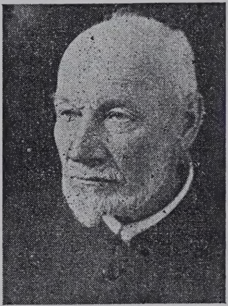
I love to go to Sunday school because I feel that in so doing I am helping some one else to find Christ, and in rendering service to others feel that guidance to go ahead that could not be felt if I did not go to Sunday school. I feel the inspiration to read and study the Bible to find out what my Master wants me to do.

Finally, in going to Sunday school I get the spiritual uplift and courage necessary to carry me through the rest of the week.

Nampa, Idaho. Edith Bradley.

In Memory of Elder John Deal

John Deal was born April 7, 1854, at Pyrmont, Ind., on the homestead of his pioneer parents, Daniel and Catherine Deal. At the passing of his father, when he was but twenty-one years of age, he accepted the responsibility of head of the home. On Nov. 30, 1879, he was united in marriage to Barbara Hufford. Seven children were born to gladden this home. One son passed away in infancy and one daughter in 1910. Death claimed his companion Dec. 2, 1892. Again he bravely faced difficulties and kept his family together.



He became a member of the Church of the Brethren in early manhood and in 1893 he was elected to the ministry. In this capacity he served his church faithfully through the remaining years of his life. In 1903 he left the homestead where he was born and moved with his family to Rock Lake, N. Dak. Here he again joined the ranks of the pioneers, building a home and serving the Christian needs of his community as minister to all, regardless of creed.

Due to the severe winter weather in North Dakota, he spent his winters at Wenatchee, Wash., for the past twelve years. On his way home from church on May 28, 1939, he was fatally injured when struck by a car while crossing the road. He passed away one hour later in a local hospital.

Funeral services, held at the Wenatchee Valley Brethren church, were conducted by Bro. Harper S. Will, assisted by Bro. Noble Deardorff. He was laid to rest in the Evergreen Memorial cemetery.

Surviving Bro. Deal are three daughters: Mrs. W. S. Downs and Mrs. Ernest Neher of Wenatchee, Wash.; Mrs. John Pehrson of Wheeler, Mont.; two sons, Irvin of Rock Lake, N. Dak., and Manford of Williamsburg, Mich.; two sisters and one brother in North Dakota, and one brother in Michigan; twenty-three grandchildren, and ten great-grandchildren.

LEONARD J. WAGONER.

The venerable Leonard J. Wagoner, one of the oldest living citizens in Clay township, Carroll county, who for many years was prominent as a farmer in this county and who now lives retired on his farm of one hundred and fifty-four acres, is a native of Clay township, born on February 21, 1839.

Mr. Wagoner is the son of John and Mary (Cripe) Wagoner, the former of whom was born in Pennsylvania and who emigrated with his parents to Montgomery county, Ohio, where he grew to manhood. The latter was born near Dayton, Ohio, and was there married to John Wagoner, who had been previously married to Miss Winebright, who bore him five children, all of whom are deceased. Of these children, Elizabeth married David Ulrey, and they lived and died in Carroll county; David died in Illinois; Benjamin died in Nebraska; Susannah died at the age of twenty-one; Ester married Washington Musselman, who went West during the gold rush in 1849, and who never returned. She was married the second time to Aaron Ulrey and lived with him in Carroll county until his death, when she removed to LaPlace, Illinois, where she died at the age of ninety-four years. The first Mrs. John Wagoner died in Ohio, and he was later married to Mary Cripe, who bore him nine children, all of whom are deceased except Leonard J., the subject of this sketch, and Mary, the widow of John Cripe, who died in 1905. They are the eighth and ninth in the family of John and Mary (Cripe) Wagoner. The other children, in the order of their birth, were as follow: Daniel died at the age of five years, and his remains were the first interred in the cemetery at Pyrmont; John died at the age of twenty-one and was buried at Pyrmont; Samuel died about 1910 at the age of eighty-one and was buried at Pyrmont; Abraham died in 1903 and is buried in the old German Baptist graveyard; his wife is still living in Genesee county, Michigan; Jacob died in middle life and was buried at Pyrmont; Christian died on the farm where his brother, Leonard J., now lives; Catherine, the wife of Daniel Deal, is deceased, and both are buried in the cemetery at Pyrmont.

The late John Wagoner removed to Carroll county about 1835. He built the first grist-mill and the first saw-mill on Wild Cat creek and, after operating the mill for a number of years, sold out to George Opp. At the time of his death he owned about two hundred acres of land and was a farmer and mill operator by occupation. Both he and his wife were members of the German Baptist church. He died on February 4, 1848, and his wife about the same time; both are buried in the cemetery at Pyrmont.

Leonard J. Wagoner was educated in the public schools of Carroll county and, in 1862, was married to Hannah Ulrey, a daughter of Jacob and Susan Ulrey. The marriage took place on May 4, 1862. Mr. and Mrs. Wagoner have had the following children: John H., born on February 23, 1863, was educated in the public schools of Clay township. On August 28, 1891, he was married to Sarah Hensel, who has borne him two children, Iva F., the wife of Arthur Ganger, and Harry E., who lives at home. Mrs. John H. Wagoner died in September, 1903, and after her death the husband married, on February 22, 1913, Jennie A. Prowant. He operates the home farm and is known as one of the most successful and skillful farmers in Clay township. He is prominent in the agricultural life of the township and takes a worthy interest in all commendable public enterprises. Jacob S., born on January 21, 1866, lives in Clay township; Isom, January 12, 1872, died in infancy; Emanuel, March 23, 1874, lives in Clinton county; Anna, June 6, 1877, died on January 12, 1903.

CLASS OF FIFTY CANDIDATES IN MOOSE LODGE

Initiation Tonight is First Since Charter Was Opened in Membership Campaign—Class of 200 Expected by First of April.

A class of in the neighborhood of fifty candidates will be initiated into the Moose lodge tonight at the Moose home on South Jackson street. A special business session of the lodge was held Sunday afternoon to make the final arrangements for the large class tonight. The lodge, which now has about 800 members in the city, has had its charter open since the first of the month while a strong membership campaign has been in force and according to W. A. Mackey of Indianapolis, district organizer, it is the hope of local members to have increased the membership roster three hundred when the charter is finally closed the first of April. The closing will be the last day of March and on the second of April it is hoped to have a class of 200 men ready to take the work. Plans are also now under way to have a banquet that night in honor of the new men which will rival anything of the kind ever held in the city. The plans have not been completed as yet, but all details are now being worked out [illegible].

Mr. Mackey, the organizer, is regarded as being the best Moose sergeant-at-arms in the world and for the past two years has been awarded the prize at the open competition of Moose lodges held at the national home, Mooseheart, Ill.

Last summer the Order of Moose in Frankfort completed the decoration of their home and now it is regarded as being one of the most beautiful lodge rooms among the small towns of the state. The order is one of the most rapidly growing ones in the country and is regarded as being among the strongest financially. Only recently a home for old folks which will eventually be a colony was founded near Jacksonville, Florida, where the old members and their wives may go and spend their declining years in comfort on a little piece of ground which will be allotted to them.

The work tonight will be in charge of the local officers and a crowd which will tax the capacity of the

LARGE AUDIENCES AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. A. A. Fletcher Preaches Farewell Sermons Both Afternoon and Evening—Basket Dinner at Noon Hour.

Splendid farewell services in honor of Rev. A. A. Fletcher, the retiring minister, were held yesterday at the First Baptist church when Rev. Fletcher delivered his farewell sermon last night. A large crowd that taxed the capacity of both the auditorium and gallery was present at both services. At the morning hour of worship, Rev. Fletcher spoke on "Old Paths" and at the evening hour his text was "Remember Jesus Christ."

The meeting was an all-day one and at the noon hour a bountiful basket dinner was served in the basement of the church at which more than 200 persons partook. The recently organized boys' choir of sixty-three voices sang at the evening service. Rev. Durham, of Indianapolis, was present at the night service and delivered the benediction. Rev. Fletcher left early this morning for Chicago to take up his new work. He will return to the city probably later in the week or the first of next to make arrangements for moving permanently from the city.

RECEPTIONS FOR THE RALSTONS THIS EVENING

Citizens of Lebanon and Boone County Will Entertain in Elks Home—Several From Frankfort are Planning to Attend.

Several local Democrats are planning to go to Lebanon this evening to attend a reception to be held there in honor of Senator-elect and Mrs. Samuel M. Ralston, a former resident of Boone county. The reception will be participated in by citizens and residents of the entire county. The reception will be held in the Elks club rooms and Lester Jones, a Republican and business man, will preside. Mr. Ralston was practicing law in Lebanon when he was elected governor in 1912. Early in January of 1913 the Ralstons moved to Indianapolis, where

MUSIC CONTEST WILL BE STAGED IN FRANKFORT

Miss Inez Nixon, Supervisor of Music Will Direct the Contest Known as the Music Memory Contest.

Preparations are being made to stage a music memory contest in the public schools in this city soon. The contest is a comparatively new enterprise, having had its initial appearance five years ago. The plan first started when a lover of music, named W. C. Tremain, living in a suburb of New York, taught his children the names of the best composers.

After hearing of this music appreciation drill a supervisor of music in Westfield, N. Y., improved upon the plan and instituted it in her classes. The plan proved to be so successful that it was taken up by several schools nearby. The plan now has become national and every year thousands of schools adopt the plan.

In the first try-out the schools in the city are the only ones to participate in the contests. After the plan has been tried in the city it is the intention of the school authorities to include the entire county.

The plan has been endorsed by the National Music Teachers' Federation, the result in meeting the approval of several of the school authorities all over the state of Indiana. It has been better developed in Indianapolis than any other city. The plan was tried last year in the Indianapolis schools under the direction of Ernest Hesser, supervisor of music in the city schools.

Aside from the endorsement of the National Music Teachers' Federation, other organizations such as the National Federation of Music Clubs and Music Supervisors' Federation, have approved of the plan. Edward B. Birge, former supervisor of music in the Indianapolis schools and now connected with Indiana University, is a loyal supporter of the plan.

The National Bureau for the Advancement of Music, of which Mr. Tremain who first introduced the idea, is the head. This bureau is active in seeing that the plan is carried out in each city who desire to give it a trial. Miss Inez Nixon, supervisor of the Frankfort schools, is carrying out the instructions that [illegible]

WILLARD MEMORIAL SERVICES SUNDAY

Sickness and Inclement Weather Interferred With Program as Previously Arranged.

Sickness and the inclemency of the weather interferred with the annual Frances E. Willard Memorial service of the W. C. T. U., held Sunday afternoon in the Christian church and it was impossible to carry out the program as officially arranged. The threatening weather also interfered with the number in attendance and although the audience was small those present were deeply interested in the exercises. A number of impromptu speeches were made by members who told of the wonderful work that is being accomplished by the organization over the country and even in foreign lands. One of the features of the exercises was the singing of "The Lost Sheep" by Captain and Mrs. Harvey of the local Salvation Army corps, and musical selections by the Clingenpeel sisters. Both numbers were greatly enjoyed.

Miss Ada VanSickle spoke on "Don't Care Citizens," and Mrs. Frank Ross discussed "The New World, Who Will Build It?" In a blackboard talk work of Americanization and W. C. T. U. work among the negro population was given in detail by Mrs. Rose Kissinger. The Frances E. Willard Memorial Fund was also discussed by Mrs. Ross. Capt. Harvey, in speaking of the great White Ribbon organization, praised it for the vast amount of good it has accomplished since coming into being and commented on how close the work of the two organizations—the Salvation Army and the W. C. T. U.—some time became. Short interesting talks were also made by George Bird, an honorary member of the organization, and Mrs. George Gaddis, a Crusader. Mrs. Hodgen had charge of the devotions at the beginning of the program and Mrs. W. B. Montgomery pronounced the benediction.

Jake Cripe, about 60 years of age, of 1056 North Main street, was killed at Beeks' crossing this afternoon by the east-bound Kokomo traction car. The body was taken to Rich's undertaking establishment at Kokomo.

Mr. Cripe was a traveling salesman for the Shanklin Wholesale Company and had been in the employ of the company for the last twenty-three years.

The interurban car was thrown into the ditch when it hit the Ford Sedan car driven by Cripe. The car left the Frankfort station at 12 o'clock and was on its way to Marion when the accident happened.

Mr. Cripe left Frankfort early this morning for Kokomo and it is believed that he was on his way home when the interurban car struck him. He was hit at the first crossing this side of West Middleton on the traction line.

Mr. Cripe was well known in the city as he had lived here for a number of years. There are four children living, Mrs. Ruth Ashley, Helen, Robert, Mary and Julia Grace Cripe.

Reports say that the interurban car tore three telephone posts down and the telegraphic communications were broken. At press time the officials at the traction station in this city stated that there was a car between here and the wreck.

An agent at Beeks' crossing notified the local office of the accident. The station agent here notified the Shanklin Wholesale Company of the report they received about the accident. After the reports of Mr. Cripe's death were verified the family was notified.

Reaching Out and Drawing Trade to Frankfort.

The Cohee store which closed a few days ago for invoicing and re-arranging of stock will be reopened tomorrow under the new firm name of Anspach & Company. The stock has been enlarged and replenished with new goods and the new firm will make its bow to the Frankfort people tomorrow morning. Mr. Anspach, the new proprietor, is distinctively a merchant. He knows the art of catering to the public and the methods of reaching the trade. He has definite ideas as to the Frankfort store.

The story is best told by Mr. Walter Cohee himself, when in an interview he said: "I never fully understood the purchasing power of a large organization and the art of reaching out for trade until I came into contact with Mr. Anspach and observed his methods and saw his success."

Mr. Anspach proceeds on the theory that people will go to the city

"DARK SECRET" STORY REVIVED BY SKELETONS

Marion, Ind., June 18.—With the finding of a fourth skeleton by workmen at a gravel pit near here, authorities today believed they had located a secret burial ground where thugs who stayed at the "Dark Secret", a resort of twenty-five years ago, had buried bodies of their victims after holding them up and murdering them.

Three bodies were discovered several weeks ago and the fourth was unearthed yesterday. All showed they had been buried at least a quarter of a century.

The "Dark Secret" was known in its day as one of the most notorious resorts in Indiana. Several veterans from the Old Soldiers' home here were among the persons who visited the resort and were never seen again.

The resort was closed up several years ago and all persons connected with it scattered to other sections of the country.

HEART ATTACK CAUSES DEATH OF MRS. MARY CRIPE

Well Known Woman of City Succumbs While Seated on Porch at Her Home—Son is Enroute to Des-Moines and Efforts Made to Locate Him.

At noon today Robert Cripe was located an Danville, Ill., and notified of his mother's death. He will return this evening. The funeral will be tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. W. P. Tedford will be in charge. Burial at Green Lawn cemetery.

Authorities of eastern and central Illinois are today searching for Robert Cripe of this city to notify him of the sudden death of his mother, Mrs. Mary M. Cripe which occurred yesterday afternoon shortly before 5 o'clock while seated on the porch of her home, 1056 North Main street, following a heart attack. Robert, the son, and Jesse Love, also of this city, are enroute by motor to Des Moines, Iowa, on a visit and efforts are being made to locate them at once. The boys had planned to arrive in Springfield, Ill., yesterday, but communication established with authorities in that city showed they had not arrived there early this morning.

Mrs. W. P. Tedford, a neighbor and friend, was sitting on the porch conversing with Mrs. Cripe when she was stricken. Hurrying into the house, Mrs. Tedford, summoned a physician. Mrs. Elmer Faust, another neighbor, arriving at that time at the Cripe home, also hurried and summoned a physician. When both women returned to the porch, they found that Mrs. Cripe had fallen

Los Angeles, Calif., June 18.—A weird tale told by a prisoner sentenced to San Quinten penitentiary has set the police of Los Angeles searching on hat may be the trail of a new movie murder, involving beautiful Barbara LaMar as one of the principals, or may be only the ravings of a publicity seeker.

Thus far the police have a fairly complete story of the reported crime, but no corpse or other evidence of its having been committed.

across a porch railing. They carried her into the house, but she expired before the physician arrived, living but a few minutes after being stricken.

Mrs. Cripe had been in failing health for the past year and a half and had but recently returned from Florida, where she had spent several months.

Mrs. Cripe was a splendid woman and mother and was regarded in the highest esteem by all who knew her. Her husband, the late Jacob Cripe, was killed a year ago last February when his machine was struck by an I. R. & L. traction car a short distance west of Kokomo, while he was enroute to his home in this city. Mrs. Cripe was a member of the First Christian church of this city and was always interested in affairs of her church.

In addition to her four daughters, Helen, Julia and Grace at home, and Mrs. Robert Ashley of this city, and one son, Robert, she is survived by a host of friends.

The remains were taken in charge by the Aughe undertaking firm and prepared for burial. No arrangements will be made until the son is located and returns home.

The South Section Prayer Service Band will hold a bakery Saturday at the Gaddis store, east side square. Hot chicken, noodles, etc. j20 edge that the count was murdered, and to know the spot along the cliffs at San Capistrano where the nobleman's body was hurled over into the sea. He declared the count had been murdered in a fight over Barbara LaMarr.

Police placed sufficient credence in the man's story to search the windswept beach beneath the cliffs, but found no body.

Nodler named two men, formerly connected with Miss LaMarr, as being implicated in the affair.

The story was that on a certain dark night the prisoner drove an automobile for two men. One man was a former convict. The other was a relative of the actress by marriage.

Nodler claimed he drove to the count's bungalow and that some little time later the men emerged carrying the limp body of Escobar, which was thrown from the heights along the Torry Pines on the road to San Diego. He embellished his tale with the howling of wind and the swish of the write-capped waves on the beach below.

The count, Nodler said, had paid with his life for his too fervent love of Miss LaMarr.

New York, June 18.—Miss Barbara LaMarr, screen star, told the United Press today she never heard of Count Mario Escobar, who is declared by a prisoner at Los Angeles to have been murdered for love of her.

In Loving Tribute

Treasured Seasons

For everything there is an appointed season,
And a time for everything under heaven -
A time for sowing,
a time for reaping;
A time for sharing,
a time for caring.
A time for loving,
a time for giving;
A time for remembering,
a time for parting.
You have made everything beautiful in its time
For everything You do remains forever.

Where the foot of paleface seldom trod.
Twas out there he went afishin and met that Indian maid and said*
You are my pretty little Indian Nappanee, won't you take a chance and marry me? Though daddy is a chief, tis my belief to a very merry wedding he'll agree. True you are a dark little Indian maid, but I'll sunburn to a darker shade. I'll wear feathers on my head, paint my face an Indian red if you will only be my Nappanee.
Sorry to say his kind talk caught her, soon he married the big chief's daughter, happiest couple that you ever saw.
Til their dream of love had faded Nappanee grew old and jaded, just about like any other squaw. April 21, 2000

Dear Delores,

I picked mom's brain and found out why Cora was born in Tennessee.

It seems that John J. went to Tennessee and had a saw mill there. While there Cora was born and that is why she is named Cora Belle. He thought of her as his southern Belle and mom seems to think that the flower was the coral bell so, that is why she is Cora Belle. He called her his "Cora Belle".

However, the saw mill failed and they then moved back to Indiana. It seems that a Cripe does not fail and he then had the saw mill in Pyrmont. His name is on the plaque in the center of town in Pyrmont. Finally, I believe that that saw mill burned down. I talked to someone in town when we were there and they told me how to get to the old site of the saw mill but no one was home where it is located and I did not get to see it. Did not want to pry around on the property.

Mom seems to be fairly sure that Cora died in Florida in the Nursing Home. I guess only a death certificate will prove that.

Wanted to get this off to you before I forgot about it.

Sincerely,

Roberta

P.S. It seems grampa Reppert used to throw it up to Minnie the fact that John's mill failed in Penn. Guess that was supposed to be an insult.

Dear Delores,

Thank you for the information you sent.

I have been to the cemetery at Pyrmont many times and saw her tombstone. Most of the people in that cemetery are my relatives. I love being there, it is so historical for me.

I wonder who purchased the new tombstone. Will have to find that person in our genealogy line. Helen Quinn, I think

On the Pedigree chart no. 2, #66 John Wagoner, Sr. and Esther Cripe is where we are related through Leonard Wolf. It seems Betsy Wagoner married Leonard Wolf which links us to him. Some of the dates are incorrect for John Wagoner. I will print out what I have and you can compare them.

Thanks again and I will keep in touch.

Sincerely,

Roberta

I believe this ends with what I sent you previously on Minnie (my Grandmother). If you need more - there is a total of 27 pages of which 17 are enclosed.

Thanks again. ☺

Notes for JOHN WAGONER, SR.:

Death of Mary Cripe:

Mary Cripe, who was familiarly known to her friends as "Aunt Polly" was born near Pyrmont, Ind., September 24, 1842, died May 25, 1922, which would have given her a four score span of life had she lived until her next birthday. The place of her birth is only a few hundred yards and in plain view from the spot in the cemetery where the remains are resting.

Her parents were John and Mary Wagoner who emigrated to Carroll county, Indiana, from Ohio about 1825. This pioneer family pitched their tents under the trees, purchased a large tract of land, built a home and nine children were born to the union of which "Aunt Polly" was the youngest. Her father died when Mary was four years old.

Mary Wagoner was married to John J. Cripe, September 21, 1862. To this union was born twelve children, four of whom died in infancy, viz. Noah, Catherine, Jesse and Mary Myrtle; the eight surviving members of the family are Mrs. Lovina Wagoner of Lafette, Jacob Cripe of Frankfort, I. W. Cripe of Williamsport, Perry Cripe of Ockley, Miss Esther Cripe of Peru, Mrs. Ida Pressell of Bessemer, PA, Mrs. Minnie Reppert of Cleveland, OH and Miss Cora Cripe of Anderson.

While only a girl of about sixteen years of age, Mary yielded to the promptings of the spirit and gave her heart to God and united with the church of the Brethren of Pyrmont where she retained her membership ever since. She loved her church, believed in its doctrines and caught a broad vision of the spirit of Christianity. She was a regular reader of the Gospel Message and a devout reader of the Bible. A week after she was stricken with paralysis in Anderson she called for the elders and was anointed with oil in the name of the Lord; James 5:15-17 by Revs. Bowman and Roof. During her days of suffering which lasted over a year, when her recovery finally was improbable her heart was continually turned to prayer and she was often heard to whisper, "Lord Jesus, take me home with you". "Aunt Polly" lived a true Christian life and her influence was of a quite effectual nature and a fitting tribute to this is the fact that every one of her surviving children united with the church.

The husband and father, John J. Cripe, died sixteen years ago and father and mother now lie side by side in the cemetery. Twenty grandchildren survive. Only one brother of the deceased survives, Leonard J. Wagoner of near Pyrmont, and although almost totally blind was present at the funeral services to pay his last respects to his departed sister. All of mothers surviving children were present at the funeral excepting Mrs. Minnie Reppert who was unable to make the trip from Cleveland. Mother had been a great sufferer since she was stricken with paralysis over a year ago. Until within about two months her mind was perfectly clear. Seldom if ever has a child been more able and more willing to care for her mother than was Cora, the youngest member of the family. Being a trained nurse, she could render the service most needed and this was bestowed in a manner which only devotion prompted by true love could inspire.

Brief funeral services were conducted at the home of the oldest daughter in Lafette where mother died and the remains were taken to Pyrmont for burial. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. G. Crosswhite of Peru. A large congregation of people were present. Beautiful floral offerings were contributed by friends of the family all of which was a fitting tribute to mother who had lived such a useful life.

Mrs. Cripe was born in the Pyrmont vicinity, in Carroll county, where she was a resident during her entire life until she went to live with the different members of her family. She was the mother of twelve children, four of which died in infancy. The surviving members of the family are: Mrs. John L. Wagoner, Lafayette, Jacob Cripe, Frankfort; I.W. 17 June Lavina dies suddenly Friday evening. We, of course, were as much surprised at this as you will be. Perry, Ruia and I saw Lavina last at the annual meeting at Anderson Sunday and when we left her about six o'clock, she was about as usual. We had heard nothing of her being ill until we received a telephone call from Audrey in Lafayette about 2:30 Friday afternoon informing us that Lavina had a stroke and her condition was critical. Ruia and I planned to go up Saturday morning but received a phone call about 8:00 in the evening that Lavina had passed away about an hour before that time.

I went up early this morning. Esther and Martha had just arrived from Peru. Audrey had been there all night. Petty was there when Lavina passed away and went back to Pyrmont with me this morning.

John asked me to take him to Delphi to select a casket and to make the necessary arrangements for the funeral. Perry and Martha and Esther went with us. John selected a casket that, together with funeral expenses, will cost $100. They have been carrying a couple of insurance policies which will amply take care of funeral expenses.

Just what John will do I do not know as I did not have the opportunity of talking matters over with him. I shall, however, advise him to continue to live at his home and to get some one to move in with him.

I am informed that Lavina did not suffer at all in her passing as in a very short time she became unconscious and it was hardly noticeable when she drew her last breath.

Lavina, of course, has grieved a great deal since Dorsey died. Her relations with Claudia (Dorsey's wife) have been quite strained which added to her worries as she did not get to see her grandson, Robert any more. I rather believe Claudia will be more considerate now toward John which may make life a little more happy for him. Ruia and I are going up early in the morning and take Perry and Clara along with us from Lafayette. Herbert and Elizabeth will come in time for the funeral which will be at 2:00. Gilbert Stinebaugh has been selected to preach the funeral.

I will try and write you again about this matter soon. I will have an opportunity to talk matters over with the folks there and will then write you further details.

Your brother, Ike

Buried at Greenlawn Cemetary
Funeral at home in Frankfort, IN

At age 55, salesman for Shanklin Wholesale Grocery of Frankfort, IN and brother of Isaac W. Cripe, editor of the Williamsport Republican, formerly with the Delphi Journal and brother of Perry Cripe, of Ockley, was instantly killed at 12:50 Monday afternoon and Motorman John Modlin of the I. R. & L. company was seriously injured when car No. 14 eastbound struck an Ford sedan driven by Cripe.

The body was mangled almost beyond recognition.

The accident occurred at Beek's crossing, one half mile west of West Middleton when Cripe drove his car upon the track directly in front of the rapidly approaching car. Motorman Modlin said that he saw the car and sound sharp signals upon his whistle. He said that Cripe never looked up and was unaware of the car's approach.

As a result of the collision the front truck of the traction car was thrown from the tracks, the cowcatcher torn loose and the vestibule caved in.

The car plowed across the ties tearing down poles for a distance of 100 yards and so blocking traffic on the line that it could not be used until evening. A wrecking crew was quickly on the scene making repairs.

The funeral was held from the family residence, 1056 North Main Street, Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 with Rev. E. E. Moorman of the First Christian Church officiating. Interment in Green Lawn cemetery.

Traveling salesman for R. P. Shanklin & Co. for 25 years.

Left a widow and four children, two brothers and five sisters.

Was a salesman in the towns along Lake Erie. Friends in Otterbein, Oxford, Boswell, Ambia. Carried $20,000. accident insurance.

Modlin was severely cut by flying glass on his right hand, his head was injured and he received bruises about the body.
There were five men and two women passengers on the traction car. They were uninjured.
The wreckage of the Ford was dragged a distance of fifty feet and completely demolished before the car hurled it aside. The traction line parallels the Clover Leaf railroad track at the crossing and there is a clear view both ways along the tracks. It is presumed that Cripe was preoccupied, did not notice his surroundings and remained deaf to the warning whistle of the approaching car.
Coroner Bruce Lung hastened to the scene and the body was removed to Kokomo in Rich's ambulance.
The train was No. 14 eastbound, in charge of Motorman John Modlin and Conductor George Heflin, both of Marion, due to arrive at Kokomo at 1:00 o'clock P.M.
The body was decapitated and mangled beyond recognition. The automobile, which was dragged a considerable distance beneath the interurban car, was completely demolished.
The machine and Cripe's body were finally thrown to one side. When the interurban car was stopped, the head was found in front of the cow-catcher.
Identification was established by the finding of a fragment of the automobile on which was fastened the ownership card. Papers found in the pockets of the victim also bore his name and the name of the R. P. Shanklin Wholesale Company, of Frankfort. Mr. Cripe had been a salesman for the wholesale firm for more than 20 years.
Jacob Cripe was the son of John J. and Mary Cripe and was born in Carroll county October 18, 1865. On May 6, 1897 he was united in marriage to Mary M. Young at Terre Haute. The couple started housekeeping at Owasco where Mr. Cripe owned a general store for a year. He then moved to Frankfort and since that time has been employed by the Shanklin Wholesale Grocery Company.
He is survived by the widow and four children. The latter are: Helen and Julia Cripe at home. Mrs. Ruth Ashley of Frankfort and Bob Cripe of East Chicago, Ind. Two brothers and five sisters also survive. They are: Isaac Cripe of Williamsport and Perry Cripe of Ockley; Mrs. J. L. Wagoner, Pyrmont; Mrs. Harry Pressell, Fresno, Calif; Miss Esther Cripe, Peru, Ind; Mrs. Arvine Reppert, Cleveland, Ohio; Miss Cora Cripe, New York City.
The deceased was one of the most influential members of the Frankfort post of the T. P. A. in the establishment of the T. P. A. park in Frankfort and this beautiful garden spot will always remain as a monument to the efforts of Jacob Cripe.
Religiously he was affiliated with the Christian church and members of that denomination stated that no member of their organization was more devoted to the work, more punctual in attendance and more liberal in the support of this church than Jacob Cripe.
His countless friends in this community were deeply pained when the news of the unfortunate accident was received in this city and the entire citizenship will mourn his passing together with the members of the immediate family.

Jacob Cripe, the brother of the Review-Republican editor was instantly killed in a grade crossing accident Monday at about 12:40 near West Middletown, Ind. Mr. Cripe who has been a traveling salesman for R.P. Shanklin & Co. wholesale grocers at Frankfort for the past twenty-five years was returning home in his Ford sedan when he was struck by an interurban car which was traveling at a high rate of speed and so great was the impact that the front trucks were knocked from under the car and the sedan was dragged for a distance of 350 feet. The body was mangled beyond recognition.
Funeral Services were held from the family residence at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. The deceased leaves a widow and four children, two brothers and five sisters.

Mr. Cripe has long been a familiar salesman in the towns along the Lake Erie and will be greatly missed by his many customers and friends in Otterbein, Oxford, Boswell, Ambia and other places. He carried about $20,000 accident insurance. - from Isaacs paper.

SONG SHE SANG TO HER YOUNGEST DAUGHTER VIVIAN:
Out on an Indian reservation far away from civilization

Where the foot of paleface seldom trod.
Twas out there he went afishin and met that Indian maid and said*.
You are my pretty little Indian Nappanee, won't you take a chance and marry me? Though daddy is a chief, tis my belief to a very merry wedding he'll agree. True you are a dark little Indian maid, but I'll sunburn to a darker shade. I'll wear feathers on my head, paint my face an Indian red if you will only be my Nappanee.
Sorry to say his kind talk caught her, soon he married the big chief's daughter, happiest couple that you ever saw.
Til their dream of love had faded Nappanee grew old and jaded, just about like any other squaw. Soon papooses came in number, redskin yells disturbed their slumber, then the feather drooped upon his head. Too late now, but still he's wishin that he'd never gone afishin and met that Indian maid and said *.You are......

Wagoner, Mrs. Isaac.
Starkweather-Times.
Mar. 9, 1923.

On Sunday evening, March 4th, after eleven weeks of sickness, death took from our midst one of our pioneers and highly respected citizens in the person of Mrs. Isaac Wagoner. The immediate cause of her departure was cancer.

Mary C. Strong was born in Juniata County, Pa., on September 14, 1855. She was married to Isaac Wagoner February 29, 1880. Of this union there were born three daughters and two sons, Mrs. David Rhoads, of Glenburn, N. Dak., Mrs. George Rollofson of Starkweather, Mrs. Hobert Quick of Devils Lake, and Alva and Harry Wagoner of Starkweather. All, including the husband, were with her during her last days. She is also survived by seven brothers and three sisters.

Mere words are inadequate to express the splendid Christian qualities possessed by Mrs. Wagoner as a wife and mother, and her friends were numbered only by her acquaintances.

The obsequies were conducted Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the Community church by Rev. John Deal of Rock Lake, and at the cemetery by Rev. J. W. Shively in the presence of the sorrowing family and many friends. The entire community extends its sympathy to the bereaved family.

HE HAS TRAVELED SOME

Alva Waggoner came in Friday morning from Montana where he had been for a few days looking after his farming interests after having been discharged from a camp in Colorado. Without a doubt Alva has traveled more and saw more of the world since he entered the military service last summer than any other boy from this community. He was first sent to Camp Lewis, Wash., where he spent a short time, when he was transferred to a camp in California. From there he went to a camp in Colorado and thence to New York where he sailed for France on Sept. 8. He was stationed at several camps in England and France and after six months in France returned to the United States where after a short stay in the east he was sent to a camp in Colorado for demobolization. While in France Alva, by a remarkable coincidence, was thrown into the same division with Lloyd Stong. He saw no action while in France but he states that the bombing of the big guns could be clearly heard while they were crossing the English channel.

NOW IN CAMP

JULY 12, 1918

The Times failed to mention last week that Alva Waggoner had left Saturday, June 30, for Camp Lewis, Washington to join the National Army. Word has been received here that he arrived safely at his destination and that he likes his new life fine. A few years ago Alva went to Valley county, Montana, where he settled on a homestead. Last fall he proved up on his land and returned to Starkweather where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Waggoner, live and where he has grown to manhood. That Alva will make a good soldier goes without saying.

THE S. J. CLARKE PUBLISHING COMPANY

Mr. Huff was a successful agriculturist and stock-raiser and was prominent in local affairs, serving as supervisor from Girard township. His father, John Huff, was a native of Germany. He emigrated to America and was married to Sarah Ball, of Ohio, whose family has been traced back as far as Revolutionary times in Colonial history. Two children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Trimble—Harry Wilson and Ina Mae.

Fraternally Mr. Trimble is a valued member of the Modern Woodmen of America and the Mutual Protective League. In church relations he is a Baptist. Ever since casting his first ballot he has favored the principles of the democratic party but has never slavishly followed political leaders as he has independent proclivities and often votes for the man irrespective of the emblem at the head of the ticket. He has served most acceptably as highway commissioner and school director but his chief interest has been centered upon his business and his family. In his relations to others he is uniformly kind and obliging and he possesses in an eminent degree the esteem of his fellow men wherever his influence extends.

DANIEL W. WAGNER.

Daniel W. Wagner, who is engaged in market gardening in Virden township, was born in Carroll county, Indiana, on the 3d of July, 1850. His parents, Daniel D. and Esther (Wagner) Wagner, were natives of Pennsylvania, whence they moved to Ohio, later locating in Indiana, where the father engaged in agricultural pursuits until his demise in 1868. The mother survives at the age of ninety-one years and now makes her home with her daughter near Oakley in Macon county. The family of Mr. and Mrs. Wagner numbered six: Daniel W., our subject; David, who is a resident of Fayette county, Illinois; Susan, who married David Buckingham, of Macon county, Illinois; Eli, who is a resident of Laplace, Illinois; Jacob, who is living at Oakley, Illinois; and Catharine, who is deceased.

The common schools of his native state enabled Daniel W. Wagner to acquire an education, but being the eldest of the family and the son of a widow much responsibility devolved upon him. He remained at home with his mother until he was twenty-four years old when he married and began to work for himself. He rented eighty acres of land which he cultivated until 1897, when he came to Virden and bought a five-acre tract, upon which he raises vegetables, berries and plants. This enterprise has proven to be very profitable and he now owns a handsome residence and has a very attractive place which is netting him a good income.

1877 - m. Rec

On the 11th of January, 1875, Mr. Wagner was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Riffey. Her parents, Minor and Mary (Wrightsman) Riffey, were both natives of Virginia, where the father engaged in farming until the removal of the family to Macoupin county, Illinois, in 1869. Here he purchased land and continued to follow agricultural pursuits. His death occurred in 1893 and his wife died in 1879. Both were earnest members of the United Brethren church and he was a republican in politics. In their family were five children who reached years of maturity and four are now living, namely: Mary, the wife of Henry Riffey; Samuel, who married Sarah Garst and lives in Kansas; Elizabeth, now Mrs. Wagner; and Susan, the wife of Dayton Ohnart, living near Girard, Illinois.

To Mr. and Mrs. Wagner were born seven children, five of whom are living: Lilly, the wife of Walter Duncan, a resident of Virden; Esther, the wife of Ernest Palmer, of Jerseyville, Illinois; Charles, also a resident of Virden; Harvey, a surveyor of Granite City, Illinois; Lora, who is engaged in teaching in the public schools and resides at home; and two who died in infancy. The family attend the United Brethren church, in which the parents hold membership, and Mr. Wagner is a republican in politics.

JOHN ROHR.

John Rohr, senior partner of Rohr & Geiger, proprietors of one of Carlinville's leading meat markets, was born in this city on the 5th of February, 1869. He is a son of Michael Rohr, a native of Germany, who emigrated to the United States when a child with his father, John Rohr, the mother having died in the old country. They were among the early settlers of Macoupin county, and here the son Michael was apprenticed to the cooper's trade, which he followed until age compelled him to withdraw from active work. He is now living retired but he and his wife continue to make their home in Carlinville, where the entire period of their domestic life has been spent. Mr. Rohr is a veteran of the Civil war, having served for three months in Campany K, Seventh Illinois Volunteer Infantry, under Colonel Cook. He married Miss Dina Miehe, who was born in Germany but reared in Macoupin county, a daughter of Henry and Sophia (Burgdorff) Miehe, who emigrated from the fatherland during the pioneer period of this country, where both passed away, the mother at the age of sixty-nine and the father at eighty. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rohr were the parents of nine children: Hattie, the wife of Henry Loges, of Carlinville; Matilda, who married Carl Schupmann, also of Carlinville; John, our subject; Frank, who is living in Carlinville; Lydia, the wife of David Cunningham, of Edwardsville; Frieda, who married Otto Kahlbreier, of Chicago; Flora, the wife of Edward Featherstone, of Barker, New York; and Edward and Samuel, both of whom are living in Carlinville.

Reared in his native county, in the pursuit of an education John Rohr was sent to the German parochial and public schools of Carlinville. During his vacations he applied himself to farming and learning the cooper's trade, which latter he followed until about fourteen years ago, when he decided to become a butcher. For eleven years he applied himself to this occupation in the service of others, but at the expiration of that period considering that he was fully qualified to begin for himself he established a market. He operated this alone until the 1st of January, 1911, when he took Mr. P. J. Geiger into partnership and the business has ever since been conducted under the firm name of Rohr & Geiger.

DAVID T. WAGNER AND WIFE, Virginia Peffley

David T. Wagner, son of Daniel D. and Esther Wagner, was born near Pyrmont, Indiana, August 23, 1852. With his parents he came to Macon County, Illinois, in 1856. He was baptized by Daniel Neher in 1874. On November 1, 1881, Virginia Peffley became his wife. They moved near Beecher City, Illinois, in 1892, the year the Kaskaskia church house was built. There he was elected to the ministry in 1894 and served as their pastor for nearly a half century, during which time he and Sister Wagner filled an important place in the hearts of the people of the church and the entire community. Ordained to the eldership in 1900, he presided over this congregation until 1937. He was in charge of the Romine church for thirteen years. He served once on Standing Committee. In 1943 they moved to the Home at Girard, Illinois. He died November 14, 1947.

Elder and Mrs. D. T. Wagner Surprised and Mrs. D. T. Wagner, one of the most beloved and respected couples in Loudon Township, were pleasantly Sunday at the Dunkard church, where he has been pastor for nearly a half century. After the morning services a sumptuous basket dinner was spread in honor of both of their birth anniversaries.

Elder Wagner is often referred to as the "marrying parson." He has married 191 couples during his pastorate.

Elder David Timothy Wagner was born Aug. 23, 1852, at Pyrmont, Ind. Sister Wagner was born Aug. 18, 1859, at Roanoke, Va. Her maiden name was Virginia Ann Beiffity. They were married Nov. 1, 1881.

They moved to their present home near Beecher City in 1892, which was the same year the Kaskaskia church was built. When they arrived the building was nearly completed and they attended a series of meetings and love feast held in the church with temporary seats made of blocks of wood and boards. Enough of the combination table-benches were made in time to be used as tables for the love feast. He has attended every love feast held in the Kaskaskia church since it was built. One has been held every year, and some years two were held. Sister Wagner missed only one in this time because of sickness. During this time they often walked the six miles from their home to the church.

Bro. Wagner is an uncle to Elmer Wagner, missionary to India, and Ida Buckingham, missionary to Sweden for fifteen years.

Sister Wagner is an aunt of Paul Bechtold whose articles on "[illegible] of Brotherliness" appear frequently in The Gospel Messenger, a church paper published weekly at Elgin, Ill.

Bro. Wagner was elected to the ministry in 1893, advanced to the second degree of the ministry in 1895 and ordained into the eldership or full ministry in 1899.

He represented his church at district meeting many times, and one time represented his district on Standing Committee at Har[illegible]onburg, Va., in 1909.

Brother and Sister Wagner have won a place in the hearts of the people that will cause them to live on in the influence of the people even many years after they go to their reward. Their minds and their spirits as well as their interests in the church and community are clear and keen even at their advanced age.—Beecher City Journal, Beecher City, Ill.

Final reports show seventy-eight $1.25 subscriptions and four $1.00 subscriptions which enabled us to send in [illegible] subscriptions including eighteen complimentary subscriptions we are entering for families who have never received the Messenger. Our subscription list last year numbered forty-nine.

Now that this has been accomplished, another year the Messenger should not cost anyone in the church more than $1.00. This Messenger campaign was conducted by our men's work organization and I believe Frederick is either the first or one of the first churches in the district having accomplished this.

It would be impossible to give our men the full credit they deserve for the diligence and enthusiasm manifested.

Frederick, Md. Jesse C. Shaver.

The Passing of Bro. John L. Mishler

John L. Mishler, aged seventy-four, died at his home in Middlebury, Ind., on the evening of Dec. 16 after an illness of some twenty years. The direct cause of his death was asthma and heart trouble. Many times he had been at death's door but after an anointing service would recover. He had a great desire to live, and although afflicted for so long a time was never heard to utter a word of complaint. Bro. Mishler had been up and about the house all day and was anticipating a visit from his brother-in-law and wife, Brother and Sister J. Edson Ulery of Onekama, Mich. They arrived a few minutes before his death.

He was born in Somerset County, Pennsylvania, on Aug. 13, 1867. He was the son of Joseph and Rachel Livingston Mishler, and one of a family of nine children. He came to Indiana with his father when he was eleven years old.

He was married to Orpha Ulery on Dec. 9, 1897. In [illegible] he was ordained to the ministry in the Church of the Brethren, serving the Pleasant Valley church for a period of over twenty years. During 1912 and 1913 he and Mrs. Mishler had charge of the City Rescue Mission in Grand Rapids, Mich. Brother and Sister Mishler reared in their home a foster son, Willard Savory; and for a time a foster daughter, Dora Earhart, made her home with them.

Because of failing health, Brother and Sister Mishler moved to Middlebury in 1920. They then spent several winters in warmer climates in search of better health. Last July he submitted to a major operation which greatly benefited him.

Surviving are his wife; the foster son, Willard Savory of Washington, D. C.; two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Essig of Middlebury and Mrs. Susan Hershberger of Goshen; two brothers, J. W. Mishler and M. J. Mishler, both of La Verne, Calif.

Funeral services were held Dec. 19 at the Middlebury Church of the Brethren, but were preceded by a prayer service at the home. The writer officiated, assisted by Brethren Galen Bowman and Cyrus Steele. Burial was made in the Pleasant Valley cemetery. Our friend and brother will be greatly missed as was partly evidenced by the fact that over 200 people called at the home to offer sympathy before the day of the funeral. "Whosoever liveth and believeth on me shall never die" (John 11:26).

Middlebury, Ind. Harold W. Miller.

By recent action of the Council of Boards the Yearbook for [illegible] will be sent free to ministers and others whose names appear on the official lists in the Yearbook. Otherwise the price is 25c

Just Wondering

How many of the people who read the Gospel Messenger have a Bible on the table by them as they read the church paper and look up the references given by the writers?

I did not do this until, due to an accident, I had to be in bed a few days. I had my Bible beside me the day the Gospel Messenger came, and I read the references suggested. Now I would not think of reading the Gospel Messenger without my Bible.

I hope everyone who reads this will try the plan just once. I am sure they will keep it up, as it makes reading much more interesting and instructive.

The Brethren Home, Darlow, Kansas

The Christmas season at the Old Folks' Home near Darlow, Kansas, was a very pleasant one this year. On December 18 the Lincoln school gave us a nice program. On the Sunday before Christmas a class from the Hutchinson church gave us an interesting program and presented the guests with presents. To the ladies' aid of the Morrill church we are grateful for a large box of cookies.

Bro. Michael from the Eden Valley church drove in loaded with canned fruit, other presents and a money offering. The ladies' aid of the Sabetha church sent us a box of gifts for the guests. From the ladies' aid of Fredonia came two nice comforters.

Our Christmas tree was loaded with presents and decorations. The home guests gave an interesting program Christmas Eve.

The biggest surprise came Christmas morning just as we were ready to eat breakfast. Who should happen in but our son, Urban Harris, and his wife. With them were Loren Harris and wife from Kingman, Kans.

Mrs. H. T. Harris, Matron.

Sixty Years Together

On Aug. 23, 1852, Bro. D. T. Wagner was born in Indiana. He came to Macon County, Ill., with his parents when he was four years old.

Mrs. D. T. Wagner, formerly Jennie Pefley, was born in Roanoke County, Va., on Aug. 18, 1859. She came to Girard, Ill., in 1869, where she grew to womanhood. Here she became acquainted with D. T. and on Nov. 1, 1881, they were united in marriage by Eld. Daniel Nead of sacred memory.

In December 1892 they moved to the Kaskaskia church community, Fayette County, Ill. Here they have worked and helped build up the church.

On Nov. 2, 1941, several friends and relatives gathered at our new church to help partly evidenced by the fact that over 200 people called at the home to offer sympathy before the day of the funeral. "Whosoever liveth and believeth on me shall never die" (John 11:26).

Crago Wedding Anniversary

Brother and Sister Thomas W. Crago were married on Nov. 26, 1891. They have lived their entire lives in Lake Township, Wood County, Ohio. They have two sons: Alvin of E. Toledo; Leo of Millbury, Ohio. One daughter passed away in infancy. Six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren also have come to bring happiness to them.

On Sunday, Nov. 30, they celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary with a special morning service in the Black Swamp Church of the Brethren, and open house in the afternoon and evening for friends and relatives. During the evening a short program was rendered in their behalf by members of the church. A total of 257 persons registered in their home on that day, which is a very definite evidence of the fact they have many friends.

They have been members of the Church of the Brethren practically all of their married life. Sister Crago joined in 1897 and her husband two years later. They have not only been faithful members, but strong pillars in the church since that time. Bro. Crago has served as deacon for thirty-eight years. Sister Crago has one of the finest records of Sunday-school attendance of any member of the Black Swamp church. She has been present every Sunday in her own Sunday school for fifteen years, and served as teacher most of this time. She also has held the office of president of the ladies' aid for many years.

Both are enjoying good health at present and we wish them many more happy, healthful years together.

Millbury, Ohio. Mrs. Harold Johnson.

DECREE OF HEIRSHIP

And now on this 3rd day of September, A. D. 1949, the same being one of the regular judicial days of the Piatt County County Court in Probate, this cause coming on to be heard relative to the heirship of Eli S. Wagoner, deceased, the Court doth find:

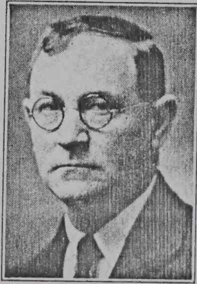
FIRST: That it has jurisdiction of the subject matter and of all persons interested therein.

SECOND: That according to the testimony of Samuel C. Shively, a credible witness duly sworn and examined in open court, whose testimony has been transcribed and a transcript thereof hereunto attached, and from the records and files submitted therewith, the following facts appear:

The witness, Samuel C. Shively had been acquainted with the decedent, Eli S. Wagoner, his family and heirs, for many years. The said Eli S. Wagoner was married three times during his lifetime, but left no widow surviving him. The only children born to the said decedent, Eli S. Wagoner, were Emma Cripe, Henry Wagoner, Elizabeth Eikenberry, David Wagoner, Elmer Wagoner, and Virgil Wagoner whose present address or whereabouts is unknown.

The above named son, Elmer Wagoner, predeceased Eli S. Wagoner and left surviving as his sole and only surviving descendant heir, his daughter, Elizabeth Forror, who also survived Eli S. Wagoner.

Therefore, the decedent, Eli S. Wagoner, left surviving as his only heirs-at-law, his daughters, Emma Cripe and Elizabeth Eikenberry; his sons, Henry Wagoner, David Wagoner, and Virgil Wagoner; and his granddaughter, Elizabeth Forror; all of whom are of legal age and competent.



J. ELMER
WAGONER

J. Elmer Wagoner, son of Eli and Lydia Frantz Wagoner, was born near Hammond, Illinois, November 26, 1881, and grew up near La Place, Illinois. He united with the Church of the Brethren in 1900. For several years he taught in the public schools. On March 5, 1911, at Cerro Gordo, Illinois, he was married to Ellen Heckman; they had two daughters. In 1909 he was elected to the ministry at La Place, and was ordained an elder in 1919. In 1913 they moved to Mount Morris, Illinois, where he finished his college course, then entered Bethany Biblical Seminary. In 1919 he received both an A.B. and a B.D. degree. The summer of 1919 was spent in deputation work in southern Illinois. Early in 1920 the Wagoners went to the India mission field. After a year in language study at Bulsar, they were at Vyara a year and then returned to Bulsar, where he worked with the two hundred boys in the boarding and day school. While detained at home on furlough, he served as pastor, 1927-1929, at the Peebles and Marble Furnace churches in Ohio. Returning to India in 1929, with a group of helpers they toured the villages in evangelistic work. It made no difference where he was located, or to what work he was assigned—whether industrial, carpentry, schoolwork or district evangelism—he entered gladly into the task and worked to the limit of his strength. He loved the people with whom he worked and they knew it. While on a preaching tour among the villages, he suddenly became sick and died on November 21, 1930.

Charles H. Walter was the son of Edward and Mary Baltz Walter; he was born in Botetourt County, Virginia, on December 23, 1862. The family moved to Augusta County, Virginia, where his boyhood days were spent. On September 10, 1882, he married Mary Lydia Phillips; seven children came into their home. Moving to Astoria, Illinois, in 1882, he was a farmer and a carpenter. On January 20, 1884, he united with the Church of the Brethren at Woodland. He was elected deacon on October 4, 1902, and a minister on October 7, 1903. During his twenty-four years in the ministry he held fifty-six series of meetings resulting in nearly three hundred conversions. He died January 11, 1928.

David F. Warner, son of Lorenzo and Celestia Warner, was born at Greenville, Ohio, August 8, 1875. His education was received at Ferris Institute, Mount Morris College, and Bethany Biblical Seminary. He married Grace Gnagey. He was baptized at Mexico, Indiana, on June 4, 1899; elected to the ministry in the Sugar Ridge church, Michigan, February 20, 1909; and ordained at Virden, Illinois, November 16, 1915, when he was serving the first pastorate of that church. He began teaching in the public schools of Michigan when he was sixteen, spent ten years there and taught one year in the academy at Mount Morris. He has served as pastor in Indiana, in Brethren and community churches, and has been editing a religious column for three rural magazines for ten years.

Ervin Weaver was born near Bremen, Indiana, on March 26, 1888, the son of Benjamin and Sarah Weaver. He attended Manchester College and Bethany Bible Training School. He married Hattie Carbiener on October 3, 1911. In June 1899 he united with the Church of the Brethren at Bremen and was called to the ministry there in October 1908. As a pastor he served churches in Michigan, Wisconsin, Indiana, and Ohio, and the Oak Grove church in Southern Illinois, where he was ordained to the eldership.

Clinton Ira Weber, son of Thomas Martin and Lizzie Viola Johnson Weber, was born in Fulton County, Illinois, January 18, 1898. He married Margaret Alice Nelson of Warrensburg, Missouri, June 11, 1919; two sons were born to them. His training was received in Muskingum College, Bethany Biblical Seminary, and Butler University. He was baptized by J. J. Johnson on November 25, 1917, elected a minister on August 22, 1920, and ordained an elder in 1937. C. I. Weber has been pastor of these churches: Chippewa Valley, Wisconsin, 1922-1924; Kansas City, Missouri, 1924-1925; Allison Prairie, Illinois, 1925-1927; La Motte Prairie, Illinois, 1925-1929; White Cottage, Ohio, 1929-1934; Indianapolis, Indiana, 1936-1938; Hutchinson, Kansas, 1938-1945;

We are related to Hamm's through Lois's branch.
Lois's aunt Vera (Woodall) was married to Alpha Hamm (Hap) He passed on 7/2/1996.
They had one son Robert Alpha Hamm.
I believe that they have lived in Decatur for years or nearby. If you have any questions, just ask. If I can answer I will.
Thanks again. Love, Kathy

2 Mary Ellen Shultheis Wagoner-was confusing me.

The 2nd one is actually Shultheis and Wagoner by marriage to first-Jacob Wagoner, son of Samuel Wagoner and Elizabeth Shively in Carroll Co. Ind., on 13 Feb. 1879, who died 1882. Second she married Allan Waggoner on 66.7.7.3 30 Jan 1884 in Carroll Co. and he was son of Joseph & Susan Waggoner (Esther Cripe Wagoner-7 7 3) who died-1932. Mary died 1947. All are buried at Pyrmont Cemetery.

66.2.62 Jacob(Esther Cripe Wagoner- 2 6 2)

I believe Gerald Wagoner has her married to a John Wagoner, whom he believed was a son of David D. Waggoner (E.Cripe Wagoner 3 9). - C939

To The Saratoga Sun

Died in Whttier, California, April 22, 1896, after fourteen weeks of extreme suffering. Willard C. Connor, aged 14 years and 9 days.

Deceased was the son of Mrs. Tena Connor, formerly of Saratoga, Wyo., who with five young children, on the 22 of May last, started by wagon from Ranken enroute for California. This wearisome and perilous journey was accomplished in a little more than six and a half months, and they arrived here on the 9th day of the following December.

In a few weeks after their arrival Willard was stricken down with typhoid fever, and for several days his life seemed to hang in the balance; but just as he was beginning to rally he was again brought low with measles, and the two combined were more than his shattered forces could turn aside. His weakness and sufferings were so intense that when at last those beautiful eyes were closed, we could only say. "Thank God, he is at rest." And on the other hand we said: "What hath God wrought?" for during those days of agony and pain, the spirit was blessedly quickened and ripened for the Heavely garner. During his last hours he said: I want Jimmie"--his elder brother--" and everybody to meet me in Heaven ." So shall he awaken "in His likeness" -"Where the walls are salvation and the gates are Praise."

THURSDAY, MAY 7, 1896.

Two more counties to hear from—Carbon and Johnson—and we doubt not but they will both endorse McKinley and Van Devanter.

THE republican party throughout the state is in most excellent trim for the coming campaign, and there is no doubt about the result next fall.

WE hope the Sheridan convention will instruct its delegates for McKinley, Van Dervanter and free silver. We know what we want and need not be backward about saying so.

LARAMIE is booming. This is official, and is the result of recent valuable discoveries in the mountains near there. Trade among the merchants there is said to be brisk, and the face of every business is widening out until you can't see his ears. This last is not official, but is true just the same.

OHIO A. P. A's are for McKinley. If the Ohio contingent of that organization has no kick coming against McKinley, we can't see why the rest should buck him in fact, up to this date, we have not seen any just cause why the A. P. A. should fight either his nomination or election.

THERE is a wumpus and a wow in the democratic party of Wyoming, just now, because Chairman Corthell attempted to hand the party, bound hand and foot, over to the gold bug element. OBITUARY.

To THE SARATOGA SUN:

Died In Whittier, California, April 22, 1896, after fourteen weeks of extreme suffering, Willard C. Connor, aged 14 years and 9 days.

Deceased was the son of Mrs. Tena Connor, formerly of Saratoga, Wyo., who with five young children, on the 22 of May last, started by wagon from Rankin en route for California. This wearisome and perilous journey was accomplished in a little more than six and a-half months, and they arrived here on the 9th day of the following December.

In a few weeks after their arrival Willard was stricken down with typhoid fever, and for several days his life seemed to hang in the balance; but just as he was beginning to rally he was again brought low with measels, and the two combined were more than his shattered forces could turn aside. His weakness and sufferings were so intense that when at last those beautiful eyes were closed, we could only say: "Thank God, he is at rest." And on the other hand we said: "What hath God wrought?" for during those days of agony and pain, the spirit was blessedly quickened and ripened for the Heavenly garner. During his last hours he said: "I want Jimmie"—his elder brother—"and everybody to meet me in Heaven." So shall he awaken "in His likeness" "Where the walls are salvation and the gates are praise."

A. E. Hill Dead.

M. C. Ward, who came down from North Park, last Saturday, brought word of the death at that place on the morning of April 25, of A. E. Hill, of pneumonia. He was ill about six days, and Dr. Harris of Laramie was in attendance. Mr. Hill realized from the first that he would die and arranged all of his business while there was yet time. He even gave directions that his body should be placed in a pine box, which was to be enclosed in another box large enough to admit of packing the inner box in ice until the body could be taken to Laramie and prepared for shipment to his home at Elyria, Ohio.

Mr. Hill was well and favorably known here. Some four or five years ago he had an attack of the grip which [illegible] life, and but for the most untiring Cure for Potato Scab.

For the benefit of potato growers, we reproduce the following from the issue of THE SUN for March 14, 1895:

The state agricultural college offers this as a sure preventative of what is known as potato "scab:"

"In about fifteen gallons of water dissolve two ounces of corrossive sublimate (bichloride of mercury). In this solution immerse the seed potatoes for one and a-half hours, after which spread them out to dry, then cut and plant as usual."

If taken internally corrossive sublimate is a violent poison, hence all animals must be kept away from the solution and the treated seed. On account of its action upon metals the solution must be prepared in wooden vessels, a barrel, for instance. See that the potatoes are clean. Put them in a coarse gunnysack and place them in the solution. The vessels and other objects in contact with this poisonous solution must be destroyed or thoroughly cleaned.

Larsh Captured.

Thos. Larsh, the lunatic who escaped from the asylum on Thursday last by sawing his way through the floor of his apartment, was captured at Woodruff on Sunday by Sheriff Al. Dixon and Ab. Lee. Larsh was foot-sore when captured and showed signs of illness from Hunger and exposure. He was caught napping in the willows at that place, and was pounced upon by his captors, who will receive the $50 reward for their prize. The prompt capture of Larsh is due to the efforts of Superintendent Sodier, who lost no time in giving to the public a description of the escaped lunatic.—News-Register.

Solomon came to Whittier and on June 30, 1923, he was married to Mary Magdalene "Mollie" (Cripe) Metzger.

Mollie was born June 13, 1860 at North Manchester, Indiana, daughter of Isaac and Catherine (Fouts) Cripe. Mollie was married to Jacob B. Metzger on November 9, 1876. He was son of Solomon and Barbara (Brumbaugh) Metzger. Jacob and Mollie had 14 children, two sons and three daughters died young, and Noble C., Solomon I., J. Emma and her mother, Mollie, and her sister and brother, Ruth Trinnier and Harold Metzger, are all buried in the Olive Grove Cemetery.

JOHN J. WAGONER

JOHN J. WAGONER was born October 3, 1852 at Pyrmont, Indiana, son of Samuel Wagoner 1808-1869 and Catharine (Metzger) Wagoner 1807-1891. John had two brothers, Andrew and Samuel A., and two sisters, Susanna Yost and Mary Hearn, also two infants, Marvin and Barbara, and one half sister, Hannah.

BARBARA E. WAGONER was born December 10, 1850 at Pyrmont, Indiana, daughter of Leonard L. and Catherine (Replogle) Wagoner. Barbara had one sister, Christena (who married James Connor), and one brother, Phillip (who married Catherine Yost).

John Wagoner and Barbara Wagoner were married May 4, 1871 at St. Clair, Missouri. They had 10 children, the oldest was born at Osceola, Missouri, the next seven at Spring Creek, Wyoming, and the two youngest were born near Norwalk, California. John and Barbara were members of the Old German Baptist Church, and he was a deacon. In Wyoming, they lived in a log house, seven miles from Saratoga. While they were living at Spring Creek, the town of Encampment was laid out on the neighboring farm. In the spring 1892, they left Wyoming by train, bringing their household goods and cattle with them, to Los Angeles County.

They settled at Norwalk, then later at Artesia, onto Clabbertown (a settlement also called Egypt), which was seven miles north of Long Beach. They raised beets and corn. The son Andrew worked the summers on a hill where hay was grown, and he would haul the hay from the hill. This hill later became Signal Hill, a densely covered oil field! They moved to a farm near Whittier (across the road where Rose Hills Cemetery is now), then to Rincone Valley, a beautiful fertile valley northwest of Whittier. In 1909, John and Barbara and their children at home moved to Denair, Stanislaus County. In 1911, they bought property north of Modesto. Barbara died at this home on May 7, 1917. John sold the property to Charles B. Rumble. His son, Hubert and family, lived at this home since 1918. John moved to Rio Oso in December 1917, and returned to Modesto in 1926. He died February 1, 1927. John and Barbara are buried in the Wood Colony Cemetery.

(When John and Barbara Wagoner came to California from Wyoming in 1892, they brought a coal oil lamp with them among their household possessions. After John died, this lamp was sold at the estate sale, and bought by David and Elsie Wolf. After Elsie passed away in 1979, her daughters, Viola and Ruth, gave me this old lamp in appreciation for helping them during the funeral time).

reat grandma and they married in Miss.

The earliest settlers used their homes & barns, and all weddings were in the brides home.

I never knew of church weddings

The Wagoners put out a book on their heritage, but I dont know if Ruth Harmard or Mary Wagoner have one. Some of the oldest ones were buried in a field S.W. of Pyrmont, in a fenced off corner in a corn field (John Root: farm) then.

There were Indians & wolves then around that time.

The original German Baptist church, has split into several churchs

All in Flora

2 Church of the Brethren
3 1st Brethren (progressive church) no bonnets
4 Grace Brethren

There isnt enough difference in any now to argue about, only old order.

Dear Delores,

Delores,

Thank you for the notes on your search. I have been sourceing my information with the same procedures. I down loaded a GEDCOM for the Carroll Co. Wagoners but no sources, so now I am trying to back track and locate the sources for my direct line. You have enabled me to move on as well as knocking down some major roadblocks.

The California Marriage records are not online. They are on microfiche. I hope to find the record today when I go to the FHC in San Luis Obispo.
Will let you know the results.

Oda and James Otis had 7 children that lived to adulthood.
Bertha married Raisbeck as far as I know no children
Leroy married late in life, 3 children
Maude died in 1925. One Child Elva Jane, my sister.
James died in 1940 , have not found a marriage
Mary married Trammel, one child lived, I have not traced this family
Donald did 1971 no evidence of a marriage
Glenn killed in the Philippines at the end of the War

Therefor we have only three family lines to follow Kaysen, Trammel and LeRoy Otis. If you want to include these families in your documentation I can provide the Kaysen line and Alan Otis the son of LeRoy Otis may also contribute. the Trammels will have to wait until I get my act together. Just a brief summary of my sister, 4 girls one son who died at 2yrs. The girls Emma Jane 8 children, Lorraine 2 (1 living), Anne 5 children, Jennifer 2 children. The Grand children are to numerous to count + great grandchildren. LeRoy data is not complete but Alan has four young children (LeRoy married at 44yrs so there is a lost generation). I suspect that there are a few Trammels waiting to be found.

If you would like information on James H Otis let me know. I used the book published in 1924 to begin my search. I have checked only a few sources. I am sending copies of the photo's you sent me to Alan and Jane.

Warm regards, Hal Kaysen

Delores,

I notice that you have attempted to document each of your facts by acquiring copies of records. That is good but it can be expensive. How do you feel about information from the State records that are available through the internet? I am referring to the California Birth and death records. I have been tracking down the James Harrison and Oda Otis family via this means. I have some of the data that you have in your book.

I have not tried to contact the Trammel families in Fresno Co. Janie, my sister, told me that only one son lived. We have no info on the other son. I noticed that the obit for Oda mentions that Glenn Thomas was missing in the South Pacific. If that is the case then there may be record in the military files?
To our knowledge the only surviving Otis descendants are Jane Kaysen, Alan Otis and Mary Otis. As I said earlier I have no info on Trammel.

By the way I talked with Janie, who lives in Sutter Creek, CA, this weekend and told her about the Wagoner family in Modesto. Sutter Creek is north east of Modesto, in the gold country.

I will look up the marriage record, for John and Eliza Jane Wagoner this

With regards, Hal Kaysen

Delores,

Your book of the "Ancestors & Descendants of Esther Cripe & John Wagoner" arrived this afternoon. I have been studying your findings. I know that I would never have found the information that you were able to track. Especially the death record of Jane Wagoner and her marriage to John J. Wagoner. What a great effort on your part to link this family together. It must give you immense satisfaction to know that your work is being appreciated.

My sister Elva Jane Kaysen will be pleased to know that her Great Grandmother was there when she was born in Imperial Co. June 17, 1924. I will search the California marriage records to see if I can locate the marriage of Eliza Jane and John J.

I note two small errors. James Harrison Otis was born 1864/5 and died in San Diego, near his daughter Bertha Raisbeck. I also have another photo that may be Eliza Jane and David D. which I will send as an attachment. Its not very clear but the resemblance is there. These are photo's my sister has. They are old and not very good.
Next time we get together I will ask if there are more of the same.

As far as the group picture goes, I think Oda is the central figure sitting between the two gentlemen. One of the men is James, my guess is the older one, as James is at least 17 years older than Oda. This photo may have been taken in Kansas or Nebraska. As you can tell I am of very little help.

What a great tribute to the Cripe/Wagoner family, from the half brother
Hal Kaysen of your cousin Elva Jane Kaysen Oneto

In 1912, they moved to Modesto for one year, then moved to Saratoga, Wyoming. Bessie went to Ohio to visit her relatives and died on the train. She was buried in the Wampler plot of the Shiloh Cemetery, Dayton, Ohio, in 1919. She still held her membership at New River district.

WAMPLER

DAVID WAMPLER (1821-) lived in the Lower Stillwater district, near Dayton, Ohio. His first wife was Lydia Roop and his second wife was Sarah Shoup. He was the father of eleven children, Mary Coffman, John William, David, Jehu, Moses, Anna, Emma Garber, Ida Lakin, Susan Evans, and Phillip. Of these children, Moses, Anna, Emma, and Susan all had a connection with the New River district at Whittier.

Moses Wampler (November 10, 1855-February 22, 1939) married Mary Elizabeth Stoner 1861-1910. They had seven children. Their oldest daughter was Bessie M., born in 1883 in Montgomery County, Ohio. Bessie came to Whittier in 1901 and was baptized at the New River district in December 1903. She married Joseph Wagoner (1872-1957) on June 29, 1904. They had three children, Robert, Mary, and Eddie. They lived behind Whittier in the Puente Hills until 1912 when they moved to Modesto and lived in a farmhouse on Standiford Avenue. (It was later the home of Dave and Minnie Boyd). In 1913, they moved to Wyoming. Bessie went by train to Dayton, Ohio to visit her relatives. She died suddenly on the train on July 17, 1919, and was buried in the Shiloh Cemetery, Dayton.

Mose had earlier visited Joe and Bessie and his sisters at Whittier. In 1920, the Santa Fe Springs Oil Company requested Mose to come to California to "witch" for oil, which he did. This plain old farmer from Ohio had a knowledge on oil depth, gallons, and pressure that amazed and intrigued the oil tycoons.

ANNA WAMPLER was born April 2, 1857 and Emma Jane Wampler was born October 26, 1860. Both of them were baptized at the Lower Stillwater district. They came to Whittier in 1905 and Emma bought a house in Whittier. Anna died on July 17, 1906, aged 49 years, and was sent to Ohio for burial. Emma remained living in Whittier until July 8, 1913, when she married Elder George W. Garber 1860-1939, a widower. They moved to his home at Union Bridge, Maryland, but retained their Whittier home, where they spent several winters. Emma died on April 6, 1924, aged 63 years, within the Beaver Dam district, Frederick County, Maryland. She was buried in Ohio.

SUSAN A. WAMPLER was born December 25, 1873. She was baptized at Lower Stillwater. She married Howard Evans and they had four children, the two oldest were Anna Elizabeth and Clarence. In October 1906, for health reasons, Susie and her children came to Whittier to live with her sister Emma. Susie died on April 22, 1907 in Whittier and her remains were sent to Ohio for burial.

WAMPLER

ISAIAH WAMPLER was born July 15, 1845 at Dayton, Ohio, son of Edward Wampler 1817-1887 and Elizabeth (Stoner)

STATE GEOLOGIST.

That Important Office to be Revived by the Present Legislature.

The Cheyenne correspondent of the Denver Republican, under date of Jan. 21st, says:

"An active movement is on foot among the mining men of Wyoming to secure from the present state legislature legislation favorable to aiding in the work of developing the mineral resources of the state. What is particularly desired in this connection is legislation to carry into effect a provision of the state constitution, which is as follows; "There shall be a state geologist, who shall be appointed by the governor of the state, with the advice and consent of the senate. He shall hold his office for a term of six years, or until his successor shall have been appointed and shall have qualified. His duties and compensation shall be prescribed by law. No person shall be appointed to the position unless he has such theoretical knowledge and such practical experence and skill as shall fit him for the position." To carry this provision into effect an act is necessary appropriating funds for the salary and expenses of the geologist and prescribing his duties. It is urged by the mining men of the state that the time is now at hand when Wyoming's mineral resources can be advertised to the outside world to advantage. The past two or three years have been occupied by extensive prospecting operations in many parts of the state, and the fact has been established beyond doubt that extensive fields of mineral exist in the state which can be mined with profit if the attention of capital is directed to them in the proper manner. At the present time there is no authoritative source in Wyoming from which information can be received of the mineral in the state. There is no record kept of the mineral output of the state and no data available for any definite information to be given in regard to Wyoming's mineral resources. These disadvantages, the mining men claim, would be remedied if the state had a geologist whose

It's mate was heard howling about the spot for several nights afterward and it still visits the place occasionally. Many wolf tracks are seen along Brush creek. John Huston killed a wolf recently near the Ridding ranch that weighed 103 pounds and measured seven feet in length.

Occasionally express matter for parties in Saratoga and vicinity is received at Fort Steele, and Mr. Scribner not always knowing the parties to whom said express is directed, or whether best to bring it to the express office here or not, he therefore respectfully requests that all express matter for Saratoga and vicinity be directed "Saratoga, via Fort Steele," to insure its prompt delivery.

A party was given Friday night at Squire Smith's in honor of his 77th birthday. Mr. Smith has not been in good health this winter, having been confined to the house the greater part of the time. His friends were pleased to see him looking well, and they spent the evening in a very merry way. Refreshments were served and the guests departed wishing Squire Smith many happy returns of such pleasant birthdays.

M. B. Hassett returned from the Grand Encampment mining district Wednesday, where he completed the running of a 30-foot tunnel on the west extension of the "Shipper." Heretofore it was not generally known that Mike had any interests in mining claims

Love Making in Mexico.

"As a rule no one is received in an exclusive Mexican home unless his social caste is equal to that of the family he desires to visit, and then he must needs be presented and vouched for by a friend in whom the household has implicit confidence," writes Edward Page Gaston of "A Pair of Lovers in Mexico" in the February Ladies' Home Journal. "A suitor, therefore, is not admitted to the residence of his inamorita on her invitation alone, for the portero, in charge day and night of the great doubly-bolted zahuan giving entrance from the street to the inner courts of the house, is under instructions to admit no one except by order of the parents of the senorita whose audience is being so eagerly sought. The young gentleman may earnestly pound upon the massive brass knocker for hours, seeking admittance, but his knocking will not avail. So he and the lady of his choice must do their distant love-making in the public view and hearing until such time as the stony parental heart shall have melted sufficiently to grant him admission to the family circle. Inside of the domestic citadel the lady meantime warmly pleads the cause of the unhappy one without, extolling his constancy and the many other good qualities which she has proved her faithful admirer to possess. The day is at last victoriously carried, by one means or another, and the lovers are allowed the use of the parlor; but they are never left alone, for the old system of chaperonage is still rigidly in vogue.

"If the attentive lover desires the company of his chosen one to the opera, or upon a coach drive, he must include an invitation begging the presence of the father or

Wasps Defend Cows.

A correspondent of the Irish Naturalist describes a curious scene which he witnessed while watching his cows in the field. He noticed many wasps buzzing around the cows, and stopping to observe what they were about, he found that they were catching and killing flies. A white cow in particular attracted the wasps, apparently because they could so easily see the flies that alighted upon it. They invariably bit off the wings, sometimes the legs and occasionally the heads of the flies, and carried the bodies away, probably to feed their larva. Three or four hundred flies were thus caught in about twenty minutes from the backs of two cows.

STATE GEOLOGIST.

That Important Office to be Revived by the Present Legislature.

The Cheyenne correspondent of the Denver Republican, under date of Jan. 21st, says:

"An active movement is on foot among the mining men of Wyoming to secure from the present state legislature legislation favorable to aiding in the work of developing the mineral resources of the state. What is particularly desired in this connection is legislation to carry into effect a provision of the state constitution, which is as follows: "There shall be a state geologist, who shall be appointed by the governor of the state, with the advice and consent of the senate. He shall hold his office for a term of six years, or until his successor shall have been appointed and shall have qualified. His duties and compensation shall be prescribed by law. No person shall be appointed to the position unless he has such theoretical knowledge and such practical experience and skill as shall fit him for the position." To carry this provision into effect an act is necessary appropriating funds for the salary and expenses of the geologist and prescribing his duties. It is urged by the mining men of the state that the time is now at hand when Wyoming's mineral resources can be advertised to the outside world to advantage. The past two or three years have been occupied by extensive prospecting operations in many parts of the state, and the fact has been established beyond doubt that extensive fields of mineral exist in the state which can be mined with profit if the attention of capital is directed to them in the proper manner. At the present time there is no authoritative source in Wyoming from which information can be received of the mineral in the state. There is no record kept of the mineral output of the state and no data available for any definite information to be given in regard to Wyoming's mineral resources. These disadvantages, the mining men claim, would be remedied if the state had a geologist whose duties would be to determine and make known reliable information concerning the mineral resources of the state. Under the universal desire for close economy in state matters those urging the matter will ask for a very small appropriation for the compensation of the geologist, if one shall be appointed."

Dragged by a Horse.

Thomas Anderson had a narrow escape from death recently. He was coming into town Monday morning when his horse slipped and fell, where the road crosses the town ditch southeast of Wm. Landes' residence. The horse fell on its right side and when it gained its feet Mr. Anderson's foot hung in the stirrup. The horse started to run and dragged him to the culvert north of the house, when his shoe came off, freeing his foot. Mr. Anderson wore a congress shoe and an overshoe. The overshoe tore out and the shoe pulled off, to which fact and the heavy snow on the ground, Mr. Anderson probably owes his life.

Sad News.

Mrs. Ira Barcus received a letter from Mr. and Mrs. Pardee Tuesday, containing the sad intelligence that they had lost their eldest daughter, Cora, of membranous croup. The little girl died Dec. 15, aged 9 years and 6 months. A little son, Archie, aged 5 years, is ill with the same disease and a still younger child, Charley, aged 3 years, is down with pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Pardee were formerly residents of this valley, and the necessity of their removal to a lower altitude on account of Mrs. Pardee's health, was regretted by all who knew them. We also learn that Mrs. Pardee is quite a sufferer of late from throat trouble. Their many friends will learn with regret of their sad loss.

The Cold Wave.

The cold wave that struck this valley last Sunday was wide spread, extending from the Great lakes to the Gulf and causing much suffering, as a brisk wind accompanied the intense cold in many places. Thursday was the coldest day in 25 years in Chicago, the thermometer registering 17° below zero at midnight. The mercury fell fifty degrees in a few hours in Chey-tinuing until Monday evening. The snow was fine; a keen wind from the north made it exceedingly disagreeable. Snow fell to the depth of about eight inches. The thermometer registered 32° below Tuesday night. died 27 Jan x

Died at Fort Steele.

Perry Wagoner received the sad intelligence by courier last evening from Fort Steele that his sister, Mrs. Charles Thompson, nee Viola Wagoner, died suddenly at 10 minutes to 12 o'clock m. yesterday. No further particulars have been received further than that Mrs. Thompson, according to the courier's statement, seemed to be apparently in good health a few minutes previous to her death.

Mr. Wagoner immediately sent word by Mr. Foster to his parents, who reside on Cedar creek, and they arrived here this morning and went on to Fort Steele on their sad mission.

The deceased leaves a husband and one child, father and mother, two brothers and a sister to mourn her sudden death.

THE SUN extends its condolence to the bereaved family in this their hour of affliction.

Against Carriages at Elections.

The women of Laramie are making a strong effort to institute a reform in the manner of conducting elections. They have drawn a petition to be signed by the women of Laramie to be presented to the legislature. A copy of the petition is to be sent to the county seat of each county, requesting that it be signed by the women who approve of the measure, and forwarded to the legislature. The measure is a good one and should receive the assistance of everyone. We give the petition in full, as published in the Laramie Republican:

"Petition to the legislature to pass a law making it unlawful to hire or use any vehicle for the purpose of taking electors to register or vote.

"Whereas, Many good men are unable to run for office on account of the great expense connected therewith, and

"Whereas, Such expenses are incurred principally for the hire of carriages for the purpose of taking electors to register or vote, and

"Whereas, It is charged that this was not the custom before women voted, and that women are therefore responsible for this condition of affairs, and

"Whereas, We believe the hire of carriages for the purpose aforesaid is an unnecessary expense, as well as a source of much corruption and fraud, and that the great majority of women prefer to walk to the polls:

"Now, therefore, We, the undersigned women of Laramie, in order to show our disapprobation of such a custom, and in order to correct the abuses resulting therefrom, and believing it to be for the best interests of society and good government, do hereby respectfully petition the honorable legislature of the state of Wyoming, now in session, to enact a law making it unlawful for any person or persons to hire or use any carriage or other vehicle for the purpose of taking electors to register or vote in any city or precinct in which the electors are by law required to register before election day, and also making it unlawful for any person, company, committee or political party, either directly or

Ordered to Vacate.

Secretary Francis issued orders on the 22nd inst. directing that all claimants to citizenship in the five civilized tribes of the Indian territory whose applications were rejected by the Dawes commission and who failed to appeal to the United States courts within sixty days of rejection, and all noncitizens who did not apply for citizenship, and who are now occupying lands belonging to the five tribes, shall vacate these lands of the tribes by February next. This action affects a host of people throughout the territory, many of whom are preparing to plant and grow crops.

THE SARATOGA SUN

VOL. XXXIX. SARATOGA, CARBON COUNTY, WYOMING, THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 1926. NO.

LOCAL MAN IS SUICIDE

Isaac Wagoner, Long a Resident This Vicinity, Died This Morning From Self Inflicted Pistol Wound.

Many local people were badly shocked on learning of the tragic death early this morning of Isaac Wagoner, long a resident of Saratoga and the Platte Valley. Mr. Wagoner took his own life, shooting himself in the forehead with a 38-caliber revolver. The tragedy occurred at his home in Saratoga. His residence is on Bridge Street in the west side of town.

The body was discovered this morning by Dr. Harry Irwin and E. L. Gould. Mr. Wagoner has been ill for several weeks past, suffering from a bad cold and a touch of the "flu." Mrs. B. F. Peck has been taking his breakfast to him each morning, and on arriving at the house this morning, she found the doors locked, and immediately called Dr. Irwin. Accompanied by E. L. Gould, Dr. Irwin went to the house, and after several attempts to arouse Mr. Wagoner by calling to him, the men raised a window and entered the house, where they discovered the body lying on the floor and the gun nearby. It is said the tragedy undoubtedly occurred sometime during the early hours of this morning. The only motive known is the poor health of the deceased the past few weeks, friends saying he had been blue and despondent since first becomig ill.

The body was taken charge of by Undertaker E. L. Gould, and steps will be taken immediately to locate and communicate with relatives. Mr. Wagoner had long been a resident of this vicinity, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Wagoner having owned property east of here, where he resided the most of the time, until his parents sold out and re-moved to Indiana some 20 years ago.

The only relative they have been able to learn of at the time of going to press is a nephew, Bert Thompson, who resides in Kokomo, Ind. He is also said to have a niece and nephew residing in the vicinity of Riverton. The where-abouts of a sister and his mother have not been discovered as yet. It is reported that the father passed away several years ago.

VOL. XXXIX. SARATOGA, CARBON COUNTY, WYOMING, THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 1926. NO.

Son of David D Wagoner

LOCAL MAN IS SUICIDE

Isaac Wagoner, Long a Resident This Vicinity, Died This Morning From Self Inflicted Pistol Wound.

Many local people were badly shocked on learning of the tragic death early this morning of Isaac Wagoner, long a resident of Saratoga and the Platte Valley. Mr. Wagoner took his own life, shooting himself in the forehead with a 38-caliber revolver. The tragedy occurred at his home in Saratoga. His residence is on Bridge Street in the west side of town.

The body was discovered this morning by Dr. Harry Irwin and E. L. Gould. Mr. Wagoner has been ill for several weeks past, suffering from a bad cold and a touch of the "flu." Mrs. B. F. Peck has been taking his breakfast to him each morning, and on arriving at the house this morning, she found the doors locked, and immediately called Dr. Irwin. Accompanied by E. L. Gould, Dr. Irwin went to the house, and after several attempts to arouse Mr. Wagoner by calling to him, the men raised a window and entered the house, where they discovered the body lying on the floor and the gun nearby. It is said the tragedy undoubtedly occurred sometime during the early hours of this morning. The only motive known is the poor health of the deceased the past few weeks, friends saying he had been blue and despondent since first becomig ill.

The body was taken charge of by Undertaker E. L. Gould, and steps will be taken immediately to locate and communicate with relatives. Mr. Wagoner had long been a resident of this vicinity, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Wagoner having owned property east of here, where he resided the most of the time, until his parents sold out and removed to Indiana some 20 years ago.

The only relative they have been able to learn of at the time of going to press is a nephew, Bert Thompson, who resides in Kokomo, Ind. He is also said to have a niece and nephew residing in the vicinity of Riverton. The where-abouts of a sister and his mother have not been discovered as yet. It is reported that the father passed away several years ago.

to be found combined within the compass of the valley bounded on one side by the Medicine Bow range of Mountains and on the other by the Great Continental Divide. Within a few years the plains on either side of the North Platte river will be covered with cultivated farms, and small towns will spring up along the foot hills and in the mountains, and here and there over the plains. It does does not take a very great stretch of the imagination to realize that this valley is soon to become a perfect bee-hive of industry and progress and that the North Platte river will be drawn upon largely to supply the motive power for the many manufacturing establishments that will follow in the wake of the settlement of the valley.

Electricity is acknowledged by all to be the coming power. The utilizing of mountain streams for the purpose of generating this power has become a very easy problem for the brains of mechanical engineers and, all over the land, from ocean to ocean, electric power houses have been erected and are furnishing the electric current for every purpose imaginable, from the lighting of a city to the running of a sewing machine or a machine shop.

The long, narrow canon through which the North Platte river makes its way and which ends where the waters of Brush creek empty into that river, a spot over which Bennett's Peak mounts guard, furnishes an ideal site for the erection of a power house that would be able to generate a sufficient quantity of electricity to supply every possible want in that line, not only in the valley, but in the mountain ranges on either side. As it may be supposed this "coign of vantage" has not been overlooked by the men who have foreseen the possibilities of this valley. The Wyoming Development and Transportation Com-

Scarlet Fever Victims.

Scarlet fever has had an inning in Saratoga, but, owing to the strict quarantine regulations, its day has about run.

The fever originated in the family of Perry Wagoner and his boy Harry, about 12 years of age, who was sick with it, died Friday evening and was buried Saturday. 21 Dec 1901

There can be no question but what the disease spread from the Wagoner house, as Mrs. Wagoner, during the illness of her son, went to the Wiant residence and did a washing and from there to the residence of Mrs. B. E. Jones and did another washing. Robert, the youngest son of Mrs. Jones, was taken ill with the fever, but had it in a mild form and soon recovered. At the Wiant residence every one of the children, seven in number, were taken with the fever, and two of them have since died and another of the boys, Ira, is in a very critical condition. Alfred, who was 7 years of age last July, died Sunday evening and Nora, who was 5 last May, died Monday morning and both were buried in one grave Monday evening.

So far the disease has been confined to the three families named and it is believed that its course has been checked.

The family of Mr. Wiant have been reduced by their sickness to very straightened circumstances. They have not been able to get out for two weeks to provide anything and are in very straightened circumstances. They need good, nourishing food and delicacies for the convalescent children and we hope the good people of this town sees to it that they have an abundance of everything until they can get into a shape where they can help themselves again. The situation is one that calls for prompt action and there should be no delay.

present, the installation was deferred.

After the assembly had enjoyed themselves at games and in social converse for an hour the tables were spread with a splendid supper. The company dispersed to their homes about midnight after having spent a very pleasent time.

Knights of Pythias Officers.

Last Thursday night the Knights of Pythias elected the following Officers and they will install them in office tonight.

R. W. Dyer, C. C.; E. L. Gould, V. C.; S. D. Green, Prelate; A. M. Sears, K. of Records and Seals and M. of F.; James Blackhall, M. of E.; F. G. Wolf, M. of W.; George W. Sisson, M. at A.; John H. Davis, I. G.; C. R. Topping, O. G. and Henry Britt, Trustee.

School to Open January 13th.

When the school closed on account of the scarlet fever it was the intention of the trustees to open it again on Monday, the 6th inst. Upon consultation with the medical fraternity tne trustees have concluded to postpone the opening now until Monday, the 13th inst., at which time it is thought, should no new cases of fever develop, that it will be perfectly safe to again open the school.

Mrs. J. T. Beagle Better.

Mrs. Beagle, who had the misfortune to fall one day last week and severely bruised her right side, is slowly improving. Dr. Burke was called in and, after a careful examination, said no bones were broken. There was a gash above the right eye, where her head struck a lump of frozen earth, which was quite ugly. Mrs. Beagle is partially paralyzed on her right side and the fall has given her a great deal of pain in the right limb. She is considerably better at this time.

right through the heavy green timber and for a good share of the way the mail has to be carried on snow shoes. During the recent cold storm the driver on the route got lost between here and the timber line and did not get into Saratoga until 1 o'clock the next morning, nearly dead with the cold.

The contractor on that line now has to leave 18 hours ahead of time, each way, in order to get through. Hence the mail, which is supposed to leave here Monday morning, is taken out at 1 o'clock Sunday, and so all the way through the week. The mail which should arrive here Tuesday evening gets in at one o'clock Wednesday. Patrons of that line will do well to bear this in mind when sending mail over that route.

James Deegan Sent to Denver Hospital.

James Deegan was taken to the railroad last Friday by his wife and James McPhail, and sent on to a Denver hospital for treatment. Mr. Deegan has been troubled all the past summer with some kind of bowel disease which has been very hard to manage. In a recent examination at this place by Dr. Green he was advised by that gentleman to go at once to Denver where he could be treated scientifically and took the advice. Mrs. Deegan is anxiously awaiting the result of the diagnosis of the case by the Denver surgeons.

Death of Grandma McLelland.

Grandma McLelland, mother of Ed. McLelland, died at the residence of her son on the 13th of December, of old age and was buried at the Dunkard grave yard on the 15th. Rev. Sundby held services at the residence. Deceased was 68 years of age the 27th of last September. For the past eight years she has resided with her son, on Beaver creek.

Newton Doggett Much Improved.

stage management and the company as well.—Rawlins Republiban.

The above is indeed very "misleading information," and is a decided slam at the U. P. road, which keeps its patrons well supplied with information. In the first place there has been no change in the stage schedule for a year and the U. P. Passenger department is selling coupon tickets from all offices direct to Saratoga and Encampment and they are thoroughly well informed about the Saratoga-Encampment stage time table and where it leaves their line of road. There is not a train man or a station agent for hundreds of miles either way that could not have told the passenger referred to where to stop off. The agent at Rawlins, Mr. Parker, is a new man, or he, also, would have known.

We have looked in vain for some word of commendation for the Saratoga-Encampment stage line from the Republican but, up to the present time, that paper has never contained anything but complaints and misrepresentation even when it did deign to notice its existance. The Saratoga-Encampment stage line is one of the best in the state and the Republican should be a little more liberal about such matters and give encouragment and commendation where it is due.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of Cosgriff Bros. Company will be held at the office of the company at Fort Steele, Wyoming, at the hour of ten a. m., January 13th, 1902.

As it may be supposed this "coign of vantage" has not been overlooked by the men who have foreseen the possibilities of this valley. The Wyoming Development and Transportation Company at one time planned the laying out of a town on the land around the mouth of Brush creek and the erection there of an electric power plant and the location of their machine shops and yards in that vicinity. The change of plans on the part of that company and the transfer of their active operation to Laramie was brought about entirely by the fact that they were unable to effect a traffic arrangement with the Union Pacific road at Fort Steele, from which point they intended to build a railroad up this valley.

But the company referred to may yet utilize that ground when they build over the Medicine Bow range and on into this valley. Still they are not the only people to note the advantage of that spot for the location of electric light works. Another company has already had representatives on the filed and the report of an expert is now being considered by them preparatory to the beginning of the erection of a gigantic electric plant at that spot. The matter has been kept extremely quiet, but is of such vast importance to every interest in this valley that it has at last leaked out and, while we ccannot say that our information is authoritative, we can say that before many months ground will be broken at that spot for the erection of a plant that will cost at least $500,000 and probably twice that amount.

Simple Remedy for Scarlet Fever.

The following remedy for scarlet fever, a medical work, entitled "Encyclopedia of Health and Home" has been handed to us with the request that we publish the same for the benefit of the suffering in this community. The remedy, by the way, is taken originally from the Academy of Medicine of Paris:

Sulphate of zinc——1 grain.
Fox-glove, (digitalis,)——1 grain.
Sugar——½ tea spoonful.

Mix with two tablespoonsful of water. When mixed, add four ounces, (eight tablespoonsful) of water and take a table-spoonful every hour. For a child, smaller doses, according to age.

Mrs. C. M. Scribner vouches for the curative properties of this medicine and refers to W. W. Haskell, editor of the "Quiz," S. A. Stacey, postmaster, and A. M. Robins, attorney-at-law, all of them of them of Ord, Nebraska.

Notice.

For Rent—Good stable and corral, situated near business centre of town. Apply at this office.

Estray Notice.

Gone Estray—One line back two year old, branded thus n̄ on left side and two red yearling heifers branded thus,  on left side. Suitable reward will be paid for information leading to the recovery of any of the above animals.

Mrs. J. T. Beagle Better.

Mrs. Beagle, who had the misfortune to fall one day last week and severely bruised her right side, is slowly improving. Dr. Burke was called in and, after a careful examination, said no bones were broken. There was a gash above the right eye, where her head struck a lump of frozen earth, which was quite ugly. Mrs. Beagle is partially paralyzed on her right side and the fall has given her a great deal of pain in the right limb. She is considerably better at this time.

Things We Want.

Saratoga wants several things during 1902, among which are:

A Railroad.
A City Park.
A City Hall,
Water Works,
A Scouring Mill.
A Flouring Mill.
A Beet Sugar Factory.
More Houses for Rent.
An Electric Light Plant.
More Harmony Among Business Men.
Her Resourses Thoroughly Advertised.

And just as many more things as the Good Lord will let us have.

The Masquerade Ball.

The masquerade ball given by the White Elephant Club, at Jensen hall Tuesday night, was one of the best of the season. The crowd was large, the floor was in perfect condition and the music the best that ever played in the hall. It was the event of the season and the boys deserve a great deal of credit for the excellent manner in which everything was conducted. The small boy, unless accompanied by his parents, was rigorously excluded, no matter if he did have "the price."

The dance was not a financial success, however, as they spent so much money in making everything pleasant and agreeable. They will not be more than two or three dollars behind and are very well satisfied with the result.

right through the heavy green timber and for a good share of the way the mail has to be carried on snow shoes. During the recent cold storm the driver on the route got lost between here and the timber line and did not get into Saratoga until 1 o'clock the next morning, nearly dead with the cold.

The contractor on that line now has to leave 18 hours ahead of time, each way, in order to get through. Hence the mail, which is supposed to leave here Monday morning, is taken out at 1 o'clock Sunday, and so all the way through the week. The mail which should arrive here Tuesday evening gets in at one o'clock Wednesday. Patrons of that line will do well to bear this in mind when sending mail over that route.

James Deegan Sent to Denver Hospital.

James Deegan was taken to the railroad last Friday by his wife and James McPhail, and sent on to a Denver hospital for treatment. Mr. Deegan has been troubled all the past summer with some kind of bowel disease which has been very hard to manage. In a recent examination at this place by Dr. Green he was advised by that gentleman to go at once to Denver where he could be treated scientifically and took the advice. Mrs. Deegan is anxiously awaiting the result of the diagnosis of the case by the Denver surgeons.

Death of Grandma McLelland.

Grandma McLelland, mother of Ed. McLelland, died at the residence of her son on the 13th of December, of old age and was buried at the Dunkard grave yard on the 15th. Rev. Sundby held services at the residence. Deceased was 68 years of age the 27th of last September. For the past eight years she has resided with her son, on Beaver creek.

Newton Doggett Much Improved.

Newton Doggett, whose illness was chronicled in The Sun two weeks ago, is very much improved at this time. The papers which have announced that Mr. Doggett had been examined by a jury as to his sanity have been a trifle previous. No such examination has taken place as yet and may never become necessary, as it is possible that Mr. Doggett's derangement may be only temporary.

When Kipling was Raising a Baby Lion.

"He kept himself to himself more and more as he grew older, and one day—I shall never forget it—he began to see out of his eyes. Up till then they had been dull and stupid—just like a young baby's eyes. But that day—I saw them first under my couch—they were grown-up lion's eyes—soft and blazing at the same time, without a wink in them, eyes that seemed to look right through you, and out over all Africa. Though he had been born in captivity, like Alice, his mummy, and Induna, his father, and though the only home he had ever known was on the slopes of the big mountain where Africa ended, we never once saw him look up the hill when he lay down to do his solemn serious thinking. He always faced squarely to the north, to the great open plains and the ragged, jagged montains beyond them—looking up and into the big, sunny, dry Africa that had once belonged to his people."—Rudyard Kipling's description of his baby lion, in the January Ladies' Home Journal.

stage management and the company as well.—Rawlins Republiban.

The above is indeed very "misleading information," and is a decided slam at the U. P. road, which keeps its patrons well supplied with information. In the first place there has been no change in the stage schedule for a year and the U. P. Passenger department is selling coupon tickets from all offices direct to Saratoga and Encampment and they are thoroughly well informed about the Saratoga-Encampment stage time table and where it leaves their line of road. There is not a train man or a station agent for hundreds of miles either way that could not have told the passenger referred to where to stop off. The agent at Rawlins, Mr. Parker, is a new man, or he, also, would have known.

We have looked in vain for some word of commendation for the Saratoga-Encampment stage line from the Republican but, up to the present time, that paper has never contained anything but complaints and misrepresentation even when it did deign to notice its existance. The Saratoga-Encampment stage line is one of the best in the state and the Republican should be a little more liberal about such matters and give encouragment and commendation where it is due.

pany at one time planned the laying out of a town on the land around the mouth of Brush creek and the erection there of an electric power plant and the location of their machine shops and yards in that vicinity. The change of plans on the part of that company and the transfer of their active operation to Laramie was brought about entirely by the fact that they were unable to effect a traffic arrangement with the Union Pacific road at Fort Steele, from which point they intended to build a railroad up this valley.

But the company referred to may yet utilize that ground when they build over the Medicine Bow range and on into this valley. Still they are not the only people to note the advantage of that spot for the location of electric light works. Another company has already had representatives on the filed and the report of an expert is now being considered by them preparatory to the beginning of the erection of a gigantic electric plant at that spot. The matter has been kept extremely quiet, but is of such vast importance to every interest in this valley that it has at last leaked out and, while we ccannot say that our information is authoritative, we can say that before many months ground will be broken at that spot for the erection of a plant that will cost at least $500,000 and probably twice that amount.

Simple Remedy for Scarlet Fever.

The following remedy for scarlet fever, a medical work, entitled "Encyclopedia of Health and Home" has been handed to us with the request that we publish the same for the benefit of the suffering in this community. The remedy, by the way, is taken originally from the Academy of Medicine of Paris:

Sulphate of zinc———1 grain.
Fox-glove, (digitalis,)——1 grain.
Sugar————½ tea spoonful.

Mix with two tablespoonsful of water. When mixed, add four ounces, (eight tablespoonsful) of water and take a table-spoonful every hour. For a child, smaller doses, according to age.

Mrs. C, M. Scribner vouches for the curative properties of this medicine and refers to W. W, Haskell, editor of the "Quiz," S. A. Stacey, postmaster, and A. M. Robins, attorney-at-law, all of them of them of Ord, Nebraska.

Birth: unknown
Death: Jan. 27, 1897
Fort Steele
Carbon County
Wyoming, USA

Saratoga Sun

Died at Ft. Steele

Perry Wagoner received the sad intelligence by courier last evening from Fort Steele that his sister, Mrs. Charles Thompson, nee Viola Wagoner, died suddenly at 10 minutes to12 o'clock yesterday. No further particulars have been received further than that Mrs. Thompson, according to the courier's statement, seemed to be apparently in good health a few minutes previous to her death.

Mr. Wagoner immediately sent word by Mr. Foster to his parents, who reside on Cedar creek, and they arrived here this morning and went on to Fort Steele on their sad mission.

The deceased leaves a husband and one child, father and mother, two brothers and a sister to mourn her sudden death.

The Sun extends its condolence to the bereaved family in this their hour of affliction.

Saratoga Sun

Funeral of Mrs. Thompson

Mrs. Charles Thompson, whose sudden death we chronicled last week, was buried Friday at 11 o'clock at Fort Steele. Her sudden demise, while apparently in good health, was like a bolt out of a clear sky to her family as she was a young woman full of life and vigor who might well expect to enjoy fifty years yet among her friends and family. The bereaved relatives have the sincere sympathy of a large circle of friends.

503 NORTH 29TH STREET
BILLINGS, MONTANA

June 28, 1938

Mr. Bert Thompson,
Box 403 Rt 6,
Kokomo, Indiana

Dear Mr. Thompson:

Your father Charles A. Thompson was laid to rest in Mountview cemetery in a beautiful spot on June 18th. The delay to this date was made in order to allow Mr. Greeno with his whole crew of sheep shearers to attend the funeral services which were conducted at two o'clock in the afternoon from our funeral home with the Rev. W. D. Shelor, pastor of the Wesleyn Methodist church officiating. We were informed by Mr. Evans, President of the Union, over the phone that there was an allowance of $175.00 for funeral, but when he sent the check he had deducted $16.83 which he claimed was coming tothe union, so this left a balance of $158.17. Your father had $7.02 on his person and he also had coming to him from Mr. Greeno for shearing 205 head of sheep, $25.62

The men at the shearing camp offered to pay $15.00 for the sheep shears. This offer we did not accept as your orders were to send you all the personal belongings which we have done. We are enclosing a list of the personal belongings sent to you by freight collect, wrapped in his bed tarp. We are also enclosing the Bill of lading for this shipment. We are also enclosing an itimized bill of the funeral which balances within one cent.

As in this case when relatives are unable to be present at the funeral we are anxious to see that funeral services are conducted just as careful and impressive as if the family were here in attendance.

The pallbearers who officiated were C. Beaumont, George W. Meeks Frank Roddy, Tom Greeno, Howard Cashmore and Jack Cashmore.

We are enclosing City of Billings reciepts for the cemetery lot showing an amount set aside for perpetual care of this grave, in other words the grave will be taken care of for all time. The location of the grave is the best in a very fine cemetery overlooking the Yellowstone Valley.

Yours very truly,

Settergren Funeral Home

Funeral of Mrs. Thompson.

Mrs. Charles Thompson, whose sudden death we chronicled last week, was buried Friday at 11 o'clock at Fort Steele. Her sudden demise, while apparently in good health, was like a bolt out of a clear sky to her family as she was a young woman full of life and vigor who might well expect to enjoy fifty years yet among her friends and family. The bereaved relatives have the sincere sympathy of a large circle of friends.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will hold their next missionary tea at the home of Mrs. J. D. Parker on Thursday, Feb. 11. Supper will be served from 6 till 8 in the evening. Everyone is invited to come and partake of this pleasant, informal tea.

Frank Barker, about 7 months of age, died of erysipelas last Friday at 4 a. m. and was buried at 4 p. m. the same day. Mr. and Mrs. Barker have the sympathy of all who know them in their bereavement.

C. S. Miner was down from his ranch on Spring creek Monday. He has been a victim of the recent epidemic of colds. It settled in his eyes, obliging him to remain in a dark room for more than a week. He is preparing to put up ice.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church will give a Ribbon and Basket social tomorrow evening at the home of Miss Margaret Andrews. The girls who attend will please bring a basket or box containing lunch enough for two.

forest, and a youth was walking dreamily in the shade of its majestic trees. Suddenly he heard a wailing note, and, searching in the direction from whence the sound came, he found a wood-dove caught in a snare. "Well, well," he said, "I should not wonder at all if that dove were a fairy who would grant me a wish if released."

With these thoughts, he cut the cord and let the dove go. His eyes followed her flight and he asked: "Supposing you are a fairy, shall I be allowed to make a wish?"

And really the dove was a fairy, whose delicate form hovered between the branches of the big oak tree; and she said: "Certainly I am a fairy, and I shall allow you three wishes."

knew what to wish for next.

One day, when he had in vain troubled himself with the invention of new wishes without being able to find one, he grew very wroth and shouted in his anger: "What pleasure can there be in obtaining anything if these confounded fairies always grant it for the mere asking! I wish I had never wished anything."

As he uttered these words he found himself standing at the very same spot, in the very same forest, under the very same conditions as before. The fulfillment of all his wishes was at once wiped out as though it had been a dream, and in the boughs of the gnarly oak the liberated wood-dove cooed merrily.

Tell Them the Truth.

One of the relics of barbarism that is very hard to get rid of is the custom of lying to children. It can be called nothing else. Children are inclined to ask a great many questions. They ask for information and have a right to be answered properly. They should be told the truth in such a way that they can comprehend. It requires patience and care to do this, but the result is worth the trouble. Every parent—or nearly every one—desires above all things to have his or her children grow into intelligent and useful men and women, and no trouble that will help to make them so is too much; yet many of them thoughtlessly tell their children things they know to be untrue, and it is a very stupid child who will not discern the fact. Those same parents wonder later why their children will not tell them the truth and conclude that it is natural for their children to lie. It is natural for them to follow the example set before them. If you expect your children to be honest and upright tell them the truth at all times and see that every one with whom they associate does the same.

The Minstrel Show.

Last Friday night the energetic boys of our town gave a minstrel show, which reflected great credit upon the town as well as upon the boys. One of their number originated the performance and then to prove his talent, in this direction, acted it out.

The show consisted of four acts, and more would have been very much enjoyed, proving how interestingly the parts were taken.

Mr. Chas. Hickok was the star of the company, and no one except a negro could have made a better "coon."

The songs were all good and well received. We make mention of those sung by the "star" and "Jack and Joe," by Edgar Bailey

After the performance the boys gave a dance and they "tripped the light fantastic" until 1 o'clock. A very excellent supper was served b Mr. Robert Torbett.

The proceeds of the dance are to go toward paying the interest upon the money loaned the library and the balance of the glass recently put in.

Look out for the girls' "show," which will be given for the same purpose.

A Monster Lion.

Wm. Johnston went to Fort Steele last Sunday and returning to his home near Rankin Monday found that a mountain lion had killed nine of his sheep out of a flock in a sheep corral near his residence. Taking a gun, he tracked the animal from the corral out about two or three hundred yards to where it had buried the carcasses of the sheep in the sage brush and snow. The body of a coyote, still warm, was laying near by, presumably killed by the lion when it attempted to help itself to the mutton collected there. Looking up at a ledge of rocks near by, Mr. Johnston saw the lion climbing up along the ledge. He fired and the lion sprang down the side of the rocks almost upon him, made another bound and started off but fell dead within a few steps. The lion measured eight feet in length.

Our correspondents will oblige us by sending in their letters at as early a date in the week as possible. Otis Farrar, the driver of one of Charles Scribner's teams on the Saratoga-Fort Steele short line, on his return trip to here Sunday discovered the dead carcass of an antelope close by the stage road which, from appearance, had been killed but a short time previous to its discovery, the flesh being still warm. It had evidently been run down and killed by wolves, their tracks being quite visible in the snow. A considerable portion of the flesh was torn off and devoured by these ravenous beasts of prey.

THE DOVE.

Retold After the German of Albert Roderich.

From the Open Court.

There was once upon a time a forest, and a youth was walking dreamily in the shade of its majestic trees. Suddenly he heard a wailing note, and, searching in the direction from whence the sound came, he found a wood-dove caught in a snare. "Well, well," he said, "I should not wonder at all if that dove were a fairy who would grant me a wish if released."

With these thoughts, he cut the cord and let the dove go. His eyes followed her flight and he asked: "Supposing you are a fairy, shall I be allowed to make a wish?"

And really the dove was a fairy, whose delicate form hovered between the branches of the big oak tree; and she said: "Certainly I am a fairy, and I shall allow you three wishes."

"All right!" said the youth, "three wishes—such is the custom in fairy tales. But will they be fulfilled?"

"Yes," said the fairy, "they will be fulfilled."

What a delightful prospect for a young man! He thought: "First, I wish wealth; secondly, a palace to live in, and, thirdly, that I shall be granted three more wishes whenever I so desire."

"Your wishes are granted," said the fairy, and disappeared.

The youth went home, and there he saw a palace which he knew was his own. He entered and went right to the treasure vault, for he was familiar with all the rooms of the mansion as if he had been living in it for ages. The treasure-vault contained as much money as he wanted. He spent his riches in pleasure and in charities just as he thought best. At any rate he enjoyed himself immensely until he became sick in body and mind. While lying on his bed he thought of his chance of having new wishes granted. And he wished, first, for renewed health; secondly, wisdom, with all the learning which long years of studying would afford; and, thirdly, and another chance of three more wishes.

His wishes were again fulfilled. When he became sick of his books he longed for a quiet home, and he wished first, for a beautiful wife, and, secondly, for well-behaved, amenable children, and, thirdly, that he could have another chance of three wishes.

Thus he continued, always asking for the fulfillment of two wishes and requesting another chance of wishes whenever he should desire it.

This kind of life was very pleasant, but he grew sick of it because he had wished for everything that he could think of, and he no longer knew what to wish for next.

One day, when he had in vain troubled himself with the invention of new wishes without being able to find one, he grew very wroth and shouted in his anger: "What pleasure can there be in obtaining anything if these confounded fairies always grant it for the mere asking! I wish I had never wished anything."

As he uttered these words he found himself standing at the very same spot, in the very same forest, under the very same conditions as before. The fulfillment of all his wishes was at once wiped out as though it had been a dream, and in the boughs of the gnarly oak the liberated wood-dove cooed merrily.

Rev. Robert Coltman and wife, of Laramie, are expected here tomorrow for a short visit. Dr. Coltman is a universal favorite throughout his field of work, which includes both Wyoming and Colorado, and we are always pleased to have him visit this locality.

J. D. Parker has resigned the office of justice of the peace, and a petition has been circulated praying the commissioners to appoint W. H. Greene to fill the vacancy. Mr. Greene will make a good justice, as would Mr. Parker, had he had time to attend to the duties of the office.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hugus went to Rawlins Tuesday, with their baby, for medical treatment. As the same trouble for which it was treated a month ago—some affection of the ear—has reappeared, they may prolong their journey to Denver for expert medical advice. Mrs. Beall, a sister of Mr. Hugus, who has been visiting her brother's family for a time, also left for Rawlins with them. Mr. Hugus returned yesterday and will go to Rawlins Friday.

Archie Campbell, an old time resident of Pass creek, died at his home last Wednesday night of Bright's disease. The body was taken to Rawlins Thursday, and the funeral services were held in the Catholic church at that place Friday, Rev. Ternes officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Beall, old Saratoga residents, arrived from Rawlins last week on a visit to the families of W. B Hugus and W. G. Forney. Mr. Beall is the inventor of the ingenious contrivance for filling bottles and cans without running them over. He has a patent on the invention and has had a working model made to send to New York, where arrangements will speedily be made for manufacturing the implement.

J. B. Adams, an old time citizen of Carbon county, was a Saratoga visitor last week to make final proof on a desert claim in this vicinity. Mr. Adams has become a very prominent figure in the development of the mining interests of this state. It was his untiring energy and ability that opened the rich and famous gold fields of Four Mile to the world, and he is at present engaged in still greater enterprises in Wyoming mines that, if they succeed, will soon place this state in a prominent position before the world.

Willie Thompson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson, died of brain fever at the ranch of D. D. Wagoner last Sunday, aged 2 years, 9 months and 4 days.

The funeral sermon was preached at the house by Rev. P. C. McDonald on Monday, and the body was laid to rest in a grave on the ranch.

Hon. F. O. Williams made a trip to Ft. Steele Monday, and took Miss Maude Jones, the fourteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Jones, to that point on her way to Salt Lake, where she goes to attend the Lowell public school. She will reside with her uncle, R. M. Jones, who is a prominent electrician and propery owner in that place.

E. M. Bush, brother-in-law of J. B. Maghee, leaves for Rawlins to-morrow, from which place he leaves the following Tuesday for his home in Evansville, Ind. Mr. Bush was almost a physical wreck when he came here, but leaves a sound man. Mrs. Bush will prolong her visit with relatives here for a month before joining her husband in Evansville.

Gus Jensen went down to Ft. Steele Saturday night, from which place he had received word that his sister, Miss Annie, was ill and unable to continue her journey. Mr. Jensen went to Rawlins Monday to hear Bryan, of Nebraska, make his silver speech and returned home Tuesday. Miss Jensen had recovered sufficiently to go on to Denver before he left.

C. F. Jones, manager of the Pass Creek company, came in from Pass creek Sunday and took Milton McAnally, the wounded foreman out to the ranch. McAnally is still so weak that he he had to be taken on a couch, and it is very doubtful whether his removal at this time was a wise step. His improvement is very slow indeed, and he is not yet out of danger.

Miss Grace, Mark and Dana Crawford and Master Cedric Poole all made a visit to the ranch of W. G. Forney last Sunday on bicycles. Master Cedric has a saddle constructed for his especial use, which can be attached to any wheel, and he enjoys bicycling as much as any one. The party had a fine visit with the good people of that ranch and enjoyed the trip very much.

C. B. Stark and wife came in from the Savery mining camp last Friday. Mr. Stark returned Monday but left Mrs. Stark at this place with Mrs. Johnson Doggett to recuperate her health. It will be remembered that this is the family so severely afflicted about a month ago, suffering the loss of their two eldest children, on the Savery, by means of malarial fever.

"It is the best patent medicine in the world" is what E. M. Hartman of Marquam, Oregon, says of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. "What leads me to make this assertion is from the fact that dysentery in its worst form was prevalent around here last summer and it never took over two or three doses of that remedy to effect a complete cure." For sale by McCullough & Russell, druggists.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Beall, old Saratoga residents, arrived from Rawlins last week on a visit to the families of W. B. Hugus and W. G. Forney. Mr. Beall is the inventor of the ingenious contrivance for filling bottles and cans without running them over. The dog fiend came near adding another victim to his long list last Monday morning. William Turnbull has some fancy fox hounds, one of which had a fine litter of pups and was kept at the slaughter house, a quarter of a mile below town. Monday morning she was found to be suffering from arsenical poisoning, but the services of Dr. Browder were enlisted and her life saved. It would be a great relief to know who is doing this work. We should like to do our share toward hating him to death.

One night when Mr. Isaac Reees was stopping with me, says M. F. Hatch, a prominent merchant of Quartermaster, Washington, I heard him groaning. On opening his room I found him suffering from cramp colic. He was in such agony I feared he would die. I hastily gave him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He was soon relieved and the first words he uttered were, "what was that stuff you gave me?" I informed him. A few days ago we were talking about his attack and he said he was never without that remedy now. I have used it in my family for years. I know its worth and do not hesitate to recommend it to my friends and customers. For sale by McCullough & Russell, druggists.

Cattle Purchase.

Chas. McKay, the Brush creek cattleman, who went to Rawlins Saturday, returned Tuesday. He went from Rawlins north to Myersville and purchased 200 head of yearling steers of J. H. Arnold at $13 per head. The steers will be delivered in Rawlins on the 15 of September, when McKay will receive them and take them on up to his Brush creek ranch. Mr. McKay has made a good purchase and will realize money from the trade. It is understood that Dr. H. M. Bennett is interested in the deal.

Justice Court.

John D. Paulson had George W. Griffin, of Pass Creek basin, arrested last Wednesday for trespass. The trial was commenced before Justice of the Peace A. Heath but subsequently transferred to J. D. Parker's court. An adjournment was had until Saturday, when a jury, consisting of A. M. Stone, John W. Cluff, John Albro, C. W. Scott, and Otto Anderson, was empanneled to try the case. They brought in a verdict of "not guilty" and Griffin was discharged.

Sad News.

Captain John Henry received the sad intelligence, Monday, of the instant death, by falling from a moving train, of his youngest brother, Charles Henry. The deceased was a young man only 36 years of age, and was a conductor on the Pennsylvania Central. He was a graduate of Girard college and had an unusually promising career before him. He leaves a wife and five children. Mr. Henry has the sympathy of the community in his loss.

SUB-IRRIGATION.

An Old Method Revived and Its Efficacy Proven.

While the system of cultivation by irrigation is as old as history itself, it is a new thing to this age. The method used in former years, here in the West, and still in use in many places, is that of flowing the water over the top of the land. The ancient method was that of passing the water in small channels, through the ground, without allowing it to come in contact with the growing crop, thus irrigating the ground by seepage.

Hon. F. O. Williams, who was in the city recently, says they are trying the old method of irrigation on a field of alfalfa containing thirty-five acres and if it proves a success, which he does not doubt, this method will be applied to the entire cultivated area of the large ranch of Jones & Williams. Mr. Williams said their manner of applying water under the old system was as follows:

A wooden frame was constructed to hold two shovel plows at a distance of three feet apart; with this structure small ditches four to six inches in depth were made all over the ground. Following behind each plow and traveling in the furrow was a wooden wheel that pressed the soil down compactly in the bottom of the ditch. A small stream of water, just sufficient to run well, is turned into these laterals and allowed to run through, but not to come in contact with the growing crop.

Mr. Williams says this method is much easier, when once the ground is prepared, than that of flooding a field and that it takes less water. His experience is that by the time the water has traveled through one of these laterals a quarter of a mile, in length that the ground will have had sufficient moisture, and the water can be turned off.

While this method makes the ground rougher, it increases the crop nearly 100 per cent, and it is much easier to apply the water than by flooding. It is the method fast coming into general use in Colorado, Utah and New Mexico, and it simplifies and robs irrigation of many of its unpleasant features. When once the ground is prepared a man can go around dry shod and turn the water in or out, as suits his pleasure.

Steele, when a man's life was considered of less importance than a dollar, if he possessed that much money. At the time Mr. Campbell lived in Benton, he carried $2,900 in a belt strapped around his waist.

In 1873 he was employed chopping ties in Coe & Carter's tie camp on Brush creek, and in 1878 he purchased the John Foote ranch on Pass creek. He has been a resident of that community ever since, and had accumulated con-considerable property. He was a kind neighbor and a faithful and conscientious friend. He leaves a wife and five children, who have the sympathy of the people in their bereavement.

Timber Mountain Copper.

John L. Mead was in yesterday. He brought in some rock from a lead he found very recently, near the summit of Timber Mountain, which indicates copper. The lead is two feet in width, has well defined walls, one of black and the other of gray granite. Mr. Mead will sink on the property at once confident that it will improve with depth.

Otis—Wagoner.

Oda

James H. Otis and Miss Doda Belle Wagoner were united in marriage, last Monday, by Rev. Huntington, at the residence of the brides parents on Cedar creek. The wedding was private, no one but the immediate relatives of the bride being present. The couple were married at 12 o'clock noon, and sat down to a wedding dinner immediately after the ceremony. Mrs. Robert Jones, Charles Thompson, Mrs. Perry Wagoner Isaac Wagoner, and Miss Roberta Huntington were among those present.

Mr. Otis, the Groom is an exemplary young man with many friends. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Wagoner, and was born and raised here in the valley, receiving her education in Saratoga. The newly wedded couple will settle down to married life on a ranch on Spring creek.

Thomas Rhodes, Centerfield, O., writes: "I suffered from piles seven or eight years. No remedy gave me relief until Dewitt's Witch Hazel Salve, less than a box of which permanently cured me." Soothing, healing, perfectly harmless. Beware of imitations. Saratoga Drug Store.

Every one is fishing during all their spare moments now days. Several fine trout have been caught.

While A. J. Kennaday was breaking bronchos last week, one got the best of him. He is slightly disfigured but still in the ring.

FRENCH ITEMS

Sam Wilsey was up from Brush creek the fore part of the week.

H. P. Moore left for Big creek Tuesday to look after his interests there.

W. W. Meader passed through on his way to Mr. Cook's ranch on the Platte.

Elijah Moore and daughter Miss Ida visited Saratoga last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Chas. Sanger went to Brush creek last Sunday to help Gus Barkhurst put up alfalfa.

Ed Hunter is stopping at Mr. E. Moore's now. We are glad to see Ed back in this part of the country once more.

Clarence Sanger who has been stopping at Moore's received the sad news of his mothers death and left for his home in Nebraska last week.

H. P. Moore and wife returned from their trip to Laramie last week where they went to spend the Fourth. They report a splendid time.

ready for filing with the county clerk in a short time. In the laying out of the streets the road to Fort Steele which passes along the east side of the land happened to come just right for a street.

Hard Time to Get Mail.

Battle Lake is having hard work to get mail. There is not enough money in it to pay anyone for making special trips for it and it is now being taken up about once a week when a freight team goes over the route. The road near Battle is in horrible shape and sometimes the mail sacks have to be carried a mile or two by hand. The department is now advertising for bids to carry the mail from Encampment to Battle six times a week, beginning August 23rd. —Encampment Herald.

J. A. Bennett Hurt.

J. A. Bennett, the Rawlins hardware merchant who was hurt Sunday a week ago, by being thrown from his buggy out beyond the station while enroute to this place, is recovering slowly. His right knee and ankle were pretty badly sprained and it will be some time before he can get around again, though it is not likely that he will sustain any permanent injury. He has been moved from the Hot springs Hotel to the Saratoga Hotel.

Heavy Passenger Traffic.

Both the Fort Steele and Rawlins stage lines are having their hands full handling the passenger traffic which is flowing into this country now. Every stage comes in loaded to the guards with miners, experts, and investors seeking for locations and paying properties.

Monday's Fort Steele stages brought in 13 passengers and Tuesday's Rawlins stage had 11 on board and all the express and baggage that could be piled on.

Invoicing Estate of Robert Pilson.

Mulford Haines and A. J. Doggett were recently appointed by the court to take an invoice of the property belonging to the estate of the late Robert Pilson. They began work last Monday in the store and completed their labors Tuesday. The estate invoiced a little over $10,000

Gardens should be located away from black walnut trees to avoid damage to sensitive plants, Lerner advises. Keep in mind that the tree's roots reach far beyond the dripline of the tree's canopy and can remain active for several years after the tree is removed. Raised beds can help protect sensitive plants if black walnut trees are unavoidable. But, care must be taken to keep leaves, nuts and twigs out of the raised beds. Black walnut leaves, bark and wood

"Chonito Cliff, one of the toughest points of resistance was littered with enemy dead," he said. "One of the bloodiest part of this action was fought in a pass where the Japanese had dug into positions overlooking the road. Tanks and infantry knocked them out."

USE EVERYTHING.

The assault troops used flamethrowers, bazookas, grenades and rifles to blast their way forward on Guam while carrier aircraft and naval surface units bombed and shelled selected targets behind the enemy lines.

The northern and southern forces surrounding the coastline of Apra harbor made gains up to a mile and one-half to establish patrol contacts, Admiral Chester W. Nimitz said in a communique. The total area of the two beachheads was about eight square miles. Compared with the island's area of 225 square miles.

Those figures, coupled with reports of the rugged terrain which was becoming increasingly difficult as the Americans push inland, indicated the difficult job faced by the invaders.

Crashed Plane's Crew Identified

HAMILTON FIELD, Cal., July 26. (UP)—The army Wednesday identified nine men missing and believed dead and a tenth whose body was recovered after the crash of a four-motored army bomber in San Francisco bay Tuesday.

The body of Lieutenant Gene M. Youngblood, 23, navigator, Fort Worth, Texas, was recovered.

The nine still missing and believed dead were:

George Bearhs, pilot, 23, Pomeroy, Ohio.

F O James R. Cheney, co-pilot, 21, Bakersfield, California.

Second Lieutenant James Murphy, bombardier, 25, New York.

Sergeant Earl W. Christie, 20, engineer, Fowler, California.

Corporal Malcolm O. McIntyre, 33, gunner, Toronto, Canada.

Corporal John J. Cronin, 19, gunner, Chicago.

Corporal Robert L. Bridegroom, 19, gunner, Turlock, California.

four defendants, a fractured hip for Stuart Smith, owner of the cafe, a battered head for Chief Quick.

Just before the court recessed for the noon hour, George Hickox, farmer, testified that he saw Swearingen grab Smith from his post behind the bar, "pull him onto the bar and cuff him around."

"I heard Bud Kissee call out, 'Cecil, Cecil, don't hit him, Cecil,'" Hickox said. He said later that he saw that Chief Quick was disarmed and could see Bud and Lee Kissee and Quick fighting.

In Hickox's opinion the trouble started when Bud Kissee tried to take his brother, Lee, home and Lee objected. The witness said Quick tried to arrest the Kissee brothers.

"Quick told them he was going to arrest them and to come along with him or someone was liable to get hurt," Hickox testified. He said Quick drew his sap or billy club next and after that was taken from him, the officer produced a gun which also was taken from him. He said Swearingen tried to get Quick down on the floor and then others mixed in the fight.

Other witnesses were to be examined at the afternoon session.

irrigation district has authorized publication of a letter written recently by President Evan T. Hewes of the district, to Engineer Eligio Esquivel, M., general manager of the Colorado River Irrigation District, Mexicali, Baja California.

The letter outlines briefly charges to be made for the service, and points out that the investment of Imperial Irrigation district in All-American canal facilities to Pilot Knob, the diversion point where the water is sent into Mexico, mounts to approximately $16,000,000. Mr. Hewes also places emphasis on the fact that operation and maintenance costs of these facilities, and also liability for damage of all kinds and character that may result from the construction, operation and maintenance of these works, plus the necessity of placing in operation the canal desilting works at Imperial Dam, must be borne by Imperial Irrigation district.

TEXT OF LETTER

The letter follows:

"My Dear Mr. Esquivel:

"In further reference to the matter of relieving the present water shortage in the Mexicali Valley, as discussed in my letter to you of July 8 in reply to your letter No. 1328 of July 7, I am glad to announce that our application to the Secretary of the Interior of the United States for permission to temporarily supply the needs of the Mexicali Valley by use of part of this district's capacity in the All-American canal has been approved. We had a meeting yesterday afternoon with officials of the bureau of Reclamation at which a schedule of releases from the All-American canal to the Alamo canal at Andrade was arranged, and it is anticipated that the full demand for water in the Mexicali Valley will be satisfied within the next two or three days. The consummation of arrangements for the use of these facilities will assure the Mexicali Valley of an ample water supply for the remainder of this year. Should it be desired to extend these arrangements to guard against a possible similar water shortage next year, it will be necessary for the district to secure an extension of the present permit.

amounts to approximately $16,000,000. In addition, the district mu pay the operation and maintenan costs of these facilities and also liable for damage of all kinpds ar and character that may result fro the construction, operation ar maintenance of these works.

CITES SILT

"In this connection, it should noted that to date it has not bee necessary to operate the canal de silting works at Imperial Dam, the river silt has been accumulatin in the reservoir formed by th dam. However, conditions are suc that we are informed by the Burea of Reclamation that the diversio of the additional water to the Al American canal for Mexico wi make it necessary to commenc operation of the desilting work immediately. It will require sever days to privide the necessary per sonnel and get the desilting work to operating; however, there wi be no delay in delivery to Mexico o this account.

"In view of the serious conditio of the crops in the Mexicali Valle of which you and others have in formed us, and the tremendou losses that would be incurred b the agriculturists if relief was no secured quickly, we are glad th we have the facilities and mear by which the relief will be accon plished.

Perry D.Wagoner married Emma in Carroll Co., IN (see above)
Viola Wagoner married Charles Thompson on 19 September 1893 at Fort Steele, Wyoming, Viola died 27 Jan 1897, she was survived by her husband
Charles and son Burton.

Note that the 1900 Wyoming census gives Eliza Jane as the mother of 5 with one living.
The marriage license for Viola has the consent of the mother in 1893, this gives an approximate year of birth of 1875 (this could be Lucy).
The 1910 Kansas census gives the number of children born to Eliza Jane as 4. Therefore I conclude that there may have been only 7 or 8 children born to David D. and the possibility of more that have not been located and are presumed to have died at an early age.

Oda Belle (Isabelle) Wagoner married James Harrison Otis 10 July 1899.
They had the following children

WASHINGTON (AP) — Blazing rough cosmic ray blizzards, ant electric currents and magtic fields, America's Pioneer V ace probe has tapped a batch major new space findings.

Scientists who reported this Friay indicated the discoveries ould help to solve problems out the sun's influences on the arth's weather and communicaons; aid toward coping with pace radiation that endangers anned space flight; and peraps shed new light on the physial nature of the solar system.

The disclosures were made at news conference held by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration at about the time he 94.8-pound space messenger assed the 6,700,000-mile mark of ts long orbit around the sun.

These were the major findings reported:

1. History's first direct observaion of pure cosmic rays — that s, cosmic rays detected at altitudes completely free of the earth's atmosphere.

Pioneer made the observations at three million miles altitude while riding through a storm of such rays kicked up by a great sunspot. That sunspot bedeviled radio communications on earth and caused spectacular displays of northern and southern lights.

2. Evidence that the earth's magnetic field at times acts like a superpower dynamo to help feed dangerous radiation particles from the sun into one of the Van Allen radiation belts which offer

Since the testing site off Long Island is in international waters, the Soviet craft had every legal right to be there.

The George Washington, the first of the fleet ballistic missile submarines, was test-firing dummy slugs. These slugs are ejected from the launching tube and come out to the surface but do not go into the air.

Presumably a sonar listening device could give some indication of the timing of shots. It also would pick up the characteristic sound of a certain type of submarine, in this case the new George Washington.

Syracuse buys city's orphan fire truck

The city's orphaned fire truck has finally found a new home, Fire Chief Austin Paxton said yesterday. The truck was purchased for its appraised price of $600 by the city of Syracuse, and will be used by that city's fire department, Paxton said.

Final negotiations are to be completed at noon today, and Syracuse officials will pick up the truck this afternoon. The 1936 vehicle was retired by the Frankfort department two years ago, and has been in storage since. Its sale was authorized by the city council earlier this year.

The Syracuse fire department heard about the avialability of the truck through a local fireman, Lyle French, visiting in Syracuse, Paxton said. Officials visited the Frankfort station last Saturday to inspect the truck, and called the fire chief here Wednesday night to close the deal.

At all levels above $18,000 down payments now are $500 less than in the past.

The reductions mean, of course, a corresponding increase in the monthly mortgage payments to be made by home buyers.

On Thanksgiving day the patrons and pupils presented a large crowd of visitors with a sumptuous feast. At 9 o'clock the school assembled in the upper room. Opening exercise was conducted by Miss Ida Clark, assisted by the primary school. This was followed with reading by the fifth grade. Our progress in this direction delayed by the continual passing in of unisesome but welcome visitors. Reading by the third grade was next; this was succeeded by fourth grade reading. A few resitations were then produced by Miss Laura Roth, Miss Franke Corwin, Sherman McCarty, Clinton Wida, Miss Amy Roth, Miss Della Kerr and Sherman Coulter. These were well received.

Near 11 o'clock the Lone Star school appeared, lead by their teacher, Mr A. Michael. Until this time the upper room failed to furnish room for all, so part collected on the school ground to indulge themselves in ball, while others congregated in the lower room and hall.

At 11:30 the school was dismissed in order to arrange dinner. Then we turned over the well-filled baskets, and rolled the "Jumbo" turkeys out on the table. Two tables the full length of the room were heavy loaded with turkey, chicken, cake, etc. There was hardly standing room for all; but we had plenty of eatables left. Aunt Polly brought to our realization once more the solemnity of the occasion, by returning thanks, and then we began each for himself. The enjoyment we realized in so meeting is better known than expressed.

At or near 12 o'clock we adjourned from the table to the meadow of Mr James Gray's, and then about fifty of us enjoyed one of the most pleasant games of ball of the season. The school house bell tolled regularly, not particularly to bring to our ears the memory of those departed turkeys; but to remind us that the girls did not intend to give us any rest until we came and fixed the stove pipe if they had to hollow fire! fire! fire!

About two o'clock the school was called to order and recitations were delivered by the school and others. We then resorted to spelling. Near 3:30 they yielded the laurels to Miss Yundt, and that ended the days program. Many thanks to the patrons, pupils and visitors.

The little childrens 10 cent concert Saturday night in the M. E. Church, for the benefit of the Sunday school was interesting, the little boys and girls although so small performed well; the Lords prayer was good. But the most interesting piece that was performed on the stage was by little Gerty Short, representing the little poor girl on the street, in its barefeet and rags, lamenting its condition. The piece was performed well, and it was as striking as the drama, Over the hills to the poor house.

Edward Pugelist's weight is about five hundred when he hears the boys sing Hail Columbia Happy Land, a new song he purchased to sing [illegible] customer.

The hog trade is booming now, buyers are flying around over the country buying every fat hog they can get at $4.50 per hundred, but should it turn warm and rain in a few days, together with a rush of hogs to the market, we fear prices will drop and some of the boys will loose money.

Ross township teacher's institute called to order by the chairman, E. A. Stafford, singing led by N. E. Hazlett. Mr. Stafford made a few appropriate remarks, after which the roll was called. Present: E. A. Stafford, Mary Fisher, Mrs. Gaddis, N. F. Hazlett, Lizzie Rose, C. W. Sheridan, H. H. Hackard, Benj. Roth, R. G. Moore, W. N. Clark. Absent; M. N. Stewart. Tardy; Lizzie Rose, C. W. Sheridan.

The proceedings of the last meeting were read and approved. The discussion of the first subject on program, "Hygiene," was opened by E. A. Stafford. Omitting hereditary disease, the teacher is to a great extent responsible for the health of his pupils. All violations of health are punished. Nature's account is strictly kept. The laws of health should be understood by the teacher. He spoke as to the agents,—light, heat, and air. Food,—the kind to school life. A change of life requires a change of food. Bathing and exercise were next noticed, closing the subject with an experiment in chemistry.

Mr Hackard read an essay on reading, which was well received.

"Elementary Grammar" was taken up by Mr Hazlett. There is no royal road to grammar. The meaning of terms must be learned, sentences must be constructed and analyzed, words must be parsed, before the pupil can comprehend the philosophy that underlies the correct use of language. He advanced the idea that the teacher begins where the child's knowledge in language lessons ends. The period of transition should be gradual, step by step, word by word. Synthesis then parsing. Require the class to bring up sentences of their own construction. To develop the term noun, permit the class to bring up names of objects in school-room. The teacher separates them into two classes. Teach them the names of these objects are nouns. Give definition of noun. Teach modifications the case later. Drill in parsing. Teach other parts of speech in a similar manner.

Mr Roth read a paper on "Management," followed by members of the institute in discussion. An essay on "Declamation and Reading" was read by Mrs Gaddis.

After a recess of fifteen minutes, Mr Moore took up the subject of history. History is useful as moral instruction; as, the lives of Franklin, Clay, Webster, Washington. A man is not capable of holding office unless well informed in history. It cultivates and strengthens the memory. Teach the more important date and facts. Discussion. "A Lesson on the use of the Globe," by Miss Fisher, came next. She handled the subject well, explaining the change of seasons by means of the globe. The subject created intense interest and was followed by Messrs. Hazlett, Hackard, Moore and Stafford, in general discussion.

Arithmetic was opened by Mr Clark. He suggested that a teacher should be well informed on the subject. A teacher should not be judged incompetent if he fails to get an answer correct to within one-half cent. Neither if he fails to unlock a problem immediately. The public should not recognize a teacher as some "Walking Cyclopedia,". The teacher should not indulge in "tricky" problems which are taken from some newspaper. Pupils in class should be kept together, Review frequently.

Mr Sheridan gave a talk on the "Use of the Dictionary." The dictionary is the great reference book. The pupil acquires his vocabulary through a use of the definition of a word. Designate words to be defined. A work on synonyms is useful in composition. It is useful for [illegible] tain correct pronunciation of words; also in tracing the origin of words. Illustrated matter important.

The committee on program reported the following subjects for next meeting: Physiology—E. A. Stafford. Advanced Grammar—N. F. Hazlett, Essay—W. N. Clark. Primary Reading—Mrs Gaddis, Misses Fisher and Rose. Literary Exercise—C. W. Sheridan. Reviews—Benj. Roth. Examinations—H. H. Hackard. Civil Government—Messrs. Moore and Stewart. Institute adjourned to meet the second Saturday of January, 1884.

A visit to the newly refitted mill of J. D. Fritch & Co. will convince any one that they have one of the completest mills in all the country. This is distinctively a mill in which all the grinding is done by the roller presses. No stones are used except for grinding corn. The Union Roller Mills use the gradual reduction process by means of which the grain passes through a series of rollers each set of rollers reducing the flour and making it finer than the preceding. In the mean time while passing from one set of rollers to another the flour also passes through purifiers in which all dust and other impurities are blown out. The process is a long one; the grain and flour passes up and down some [illegible] times before it is finally delivered ready for use. J. D. Fritch & Co. have put in this mill more than $10,000 worth of machinery. The mill is completely remodled; it is a new mill in fact.

[illegible] time the upper room failed to furnish room for all, so part collected on the school ground to indulge themselves in ball, while others congregated in the lower room and hall.

At 11:30 the school was dismissed in order to arrange dinner. Then we turned over the well-filled baskets, and rolled the "Jumbo" turkeys out on the table. Two tables the full length of the room were heavy loaded with turkey, chicken, cake, etc. There was hardly standing room for all; but we had plenty of eatables left. Aunt Polly brought to our realization once more the solemnity of the occasion, by returning thanks, and then we began each for himself. The enjoyment we realized in so meeting is better known than expressed.

At or near 12 o'clock we adjourned from the table to the meadow of Mr James Gray's, and then about fifty of us enjoyed one of the most pleasant games of ball of the season. The school house bell tolled regularly, not particularly to bring to our ears the memory of those departed turkeys; but to remind us that the girls did not intend to give us any rest until we came and fixed the stove pipe if they had to hollow fire! fire! fire!

About two o'clock the school was called to order and recitations were delivered by the school and others. We then resorted to spelling. Near 3:30 they yielded the laurels to Miss Yundt, and that ended the days program. Many thanks to the patrons, pupils and visitors.

Rossville Ind.

The little childrens 10 cent concert Saturday night in the M. E. Church, for the benefit of the Sunday school was interesting, the little boys and girls although so small performed well; the Lords prayer was good. But the most interesting piece that was performed on the stage was by little Gerty Short, representing the little poor girl on the street, in its barefeet and rags, lamenting its condition. The piece was performed well, and it was as striking as the drama, Over the hills to the poor house.

Edward Pugeliet's weight is about five hundred when he hears the boys sing Hail Columbia Happy Land, a new song he purchased to sing [illegible] customer.

The hog trade is booming now, buyers are flying around over the country buying every fat hog they can get at $4.50 per hundred, but should it turn warm and rain in a few days, together with a rush of hogs to the market, we fear prices will drop and some of the boys will loose money.

teacher. He spoke as to the agents,—light, heat, and air. Food,—the kind to school life. A change of life requires a change of food. Bathing and exercise were next noticed, closing the subject with an experiment in chemistry.

Mr Hackard read an essay on reading, which was well received.

"Elementary Grammar" was taken up by Mr Hazlett. There is no royal road to grammar. The meaning of terms must be learned, sentences must be constructed and analyzed, words must be parsed, before the pupil can comprehend the philosophy that underlies the correct use of language. He advanced the idea that the teacher begins where the child's knowledge in language lessons ends. The period of transition should be gradual, step by step, word by word. Synthesis then parsing. Require the class to bring up sentences of their own construction. To develop the term noun, permit the class to bring up names of objects in school-room. The teacher separates them into two classes. Teach them the names of these objects are nouns, Give definition of noun. Teach modifications the case later. Drill in parsing. Teach other parts of speech in a similar manner.

Mr Roth read a paper on "Management," followed by members of the institute in discussion. An essay on "Declamation and Reading" was read by Mrs Gaddis.

After a recess of fifteen minutes, Mr Moore took up the subject of history. History is useful as moral instruction; as, the lives of Franklin, Clay, Webster, Washington. A man is not capable of holding office unless well informed in history. It cultivates and strengthens the memory. Teach the more important date and facts. Discussion. "A Lesson on the use of the Globe." by Miss Fisher, came next. She handled the subject well, explaining the change of seasons by means of the globe. The subject created intense interest and was followed by Messrs. Hazlett, Hackard, Moore and Stafford, in general discussion.

Arithmetic was opened by Mr Clark. He suggested that a teacher should be well informed on the subject. A teacher should not be judged incompetent if he fails to get an answer correct to within one-half cent. Neither if he fails to unlock a problem immediately. The public should not recognize a teacher as some "Walking Cyclopedia,". The teacher should not indulge in "tricky" problems which are taken from some newspaper. Pupils in class should be kept together, Review frequently.

Mr Sheriann gave a talk on the "Use of the Dictionary." The dictionary is the great reference book. The pupil acquires his vocabulary through a use of the definition of a word. Designate words to be defined. A work on synonyms is useful in composition. It is useful for to obtain correct pronunciation of words; also in tran-used except for grinding corn. The Union Roller Mills use the gradual reduction process by means of which the grain passes through a series of rollers each set of rollers reducing the flour and making it finer than the preceding. In the mean time while passing from one set of rollers to another the flour also passes through purifiers in which all dust and other impurities are blown out. The process is a long one; the grain and flour passes up and down some 25 times before it is finally delivered ready for use. J. D. Fritch & Co. have put in this mill more than $10,000 worth of machinery. The mill is completely remodled; it is a new mill in fact.

MRS. BYRKETT DIES

Word was passed around Saturday morning that Mrs. Elizabeth (Nape) Byrkett had died at 11 o'clock Friday night after an illness of many months, at her home with her son Frank on the family homestead about two miles southeast of town.

Born August 22, 1863 in Carroll county, she was united in marriage to Larkin Byrkett on Feb. 1, 1885, who passed away in 1915. All of her long life was spent upon the farm where she died. She was a member of local Methodist church and took an active part in all of its activities as long as her health permitted.

Surviving are three sons and two daughters, Frank, Homer and Elmer and Mrs. Bessie Buchanan of Burnettsville, and Mrs. Myrtle Moore of Grand Rapids, Mich.; five grandchildren and two great grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Katherine Caughell of North Judson. Three brothers preceeded her in death.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the local Methodist church in charge of Rev. William Nicholson, pastor. Interment was made at the Davis cemetery with the Miller Funeral Home in charge.

PRETTY WEDDING

The beautiful auditorium of the local Church of the Brethren was the scene of a lovely wedding Sunday afternoon, June 30th, when Miss Caroline Harless, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harless, residing on South Main street of Burnettsville, became the bride of Gale Criswell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Criswell residing north of town. Rev. Virden Graham officiated assisted by Rev. B. D. Hirt pastor of the church.

The informal double ring ceremony was performed before the altar which was banked with garden flowers, roses and regal lilies artistically arranged by Rev. E. S. Petry.

The attendants were Miss Joyce Criswell, sister of the bridegroom, and Ernest Mason, Jr., of Indianapolis.

The bride was attractive in a street length white embroidered linen dress. Her shoulder length veil of white was held in place by orange blossoms and forget-me-nots and she carried red roses.

Miss Criswell wore a becoming pink suit, with blue shoulder length veil, and her corsage was of white carnations and blue delphiniums.

Mrs. Harless, mother of the bride, had chosen a pink linen dress with white accessories and a corsage of white gladioli. Mrs. Criswell, the bridegroom's mother, wore a sheer brown and white print dress with white accessories and white gladioli corsage.

A program of bridal airs before the ceremony was played by Miss Ruby Harner of Wheaton, Ill., at the piano and Mrs. Wm. Warnick at the organ. Miss Marthalove Tobias sang, "O Promise Me" and "Through the Years."

A reception for about 100 guests was held in the basement dining room of the church following the ceremony where the bride and groom together cut the three tierred wedding cake.

For their short honeymoon trip to Chicago and Wheaton, the bride wore a sport dress with black accessories. Both Mr. and Mrs. Criswell are graduates of the local

L. A. Byrkett Commits Suicide.

Burnettsville Letter.

L. A. Byrkett, a well known farmer, southeast of town, committed suicide by hanging himself Wednesday of last week in his barn. Mr. Byrkett had been in poor health for some time and for the past few days his queer actions had aroused the suspicion of his family. On Wednesday evening he did all the work about the barn and ate supper with the family and helped Mrs. Byrkett remove the dishes and left the room. Later in the evening Mrs. Byrkett missed him, and sent their son, Frank, in search of him. He was found in the hay mow hanging by a rope to the hay rack. Frank attempted to loosen the rope, but was not able to lift his father and at the same time untie the rope. The neighbors were called and aided in removing the body to the house. The coroner was called and pronounced the case suicide. The funeral was held from the house Friday, conducted by Rev. C. O. Smock. Interment in Davis cemetery. He is survived by his wife and five children—Frank, Homer, Elmer and Myrtle at home, and Mrs. Cecil Buchanan of near Curveton.

Frank Byrkett Funeral Rites To Be Held Tuesday Afternoon

Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Fisher Funeral Home at Logansport for Frank Byrkett, 67, of Burnettsville, whose lifeless body was found early Saturday morning. Friends may call at the Fisher chapel. The Rev. Raymond Skelton will officiate and burial will be made in the Davis cemetery near Burnettsville.

Byrkett was found dead of a bullet wound through the heart believed inflicted Friday night. Dr. Howard M. Gish of Brookston, acting White County coroner, said the gun shot was apparently self inflicted. Byrkett had been in ill health for six years.

In searching, Homer and Elmer Byrkett, his brothers, discovered his body lying near a shed on the T. E. Eldridge farm, two miles south of Burnettsville.

Born January 6, 1893, he was the son of Lark and Elizabeth Knapp Byrkett. His marriage at Burnettsville on January 3, 1927, was to Florence Zech. He was a member of the Burnettsville Methodist church and a veteran of World War I.

Survivors are the widow, two brothers and two sisters: Homer and Elmer, Burnettsville; Mrs. Bessie Buchanan, Logansport; and Mrs. Myrtle Moore, Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Ray Ralston is the tenant on the farm where the death occurred.

White County Sheriff Charles Miller assisted in the investigation.

An advertisement placed in this newspaper covers White County like a blanket.

along the wall in each room and 2 or more separate plug receptacle circuits for the utility, kitchen and dining rooms. There is to be 2 or more weatherproof receptacles on the outside of the home. All this wiring is to be installed in accordance with the National Electrical Code minimums and the American Standard Requirements for Residential wiring.

Opening day for public showing of the first Gold Medallion Home in this area that is being constructed 3 miles west of Monticello, Ind, north of U. S. 24 by the Manion Construction Co., Francesville, Ind. has been set for 1 P. M. to 9 p. m. Saturday April 4th, and also to be shown Sunday April 5th, and Saturday April 11th, and Sunday April 12th again.

Mr. Howard Manion, the contractor has revealed that the house does exemplify "Total Electric Living" and is the symbol of the Gold Medallion that is "trowelled" into the concrete of the front step. This is a permanent certification awarded by the White County REMC that all the requirements set forth by the Live Better Gold Medallion program have been complied with to provide a high standard of electrical living in this home.

Features of special interest in the Gold Medallion home include an outstanding "Light for Living" layout, such as "Sunshine" kitchen ceiling lighting, that eliminates all shadows. Valances to beautify the living room and the multi-purpose room. Playground area lighting. The kitchen with electric oven and built in 4 burner cooking top, the electric water heater and automatic washer, electric clothes dryer in the utility room are so arranged to save the housewife steps and will "almost run themselves". The wiring in the home is a "hidden asset"—has low -voltage remote control switching which assures the persons living in the home—with light before them and no backtracking or extra steps to turn lights on or off. The plug receptacles and size of wire have been designed to produce ample housepower at all times. The most dramatic feature of the home, however, is the Electric home heating system. Separate thermostat control in each room, no moving air to move dust or dirt, no chimney or furnace space taken out of the home, no noise from running fans or combustion burners and above all free from danger of fire, fumes or smoke.

See how the "Gold Medallion" certification is an assurance that the home contains "Living Better Electrically" now and for the future.

The new Medallion House is where you can "live better electrically", planned to provide the comfort and convenience of electrical living.

A gentleman from Logansport gave the city council a fire demonstration last Thursday night. He had a building constructed ten feet square and ten feet high and filled it with boxes and barrels and poured seven gallons of coal oil on the boxes and building and set fire to them and allowed the burning structure to get a good start before turning the chemicals from the engine on the blaze, which was extinguished in a short time. About thirty minutes after the engines had been put away the fire broke out again and a real run was made, which resulted in good work.

gates," Sir Stafford announced, his proposals had run afoul of a "spate of criticism" and a "critical and unconstructive attitude." He said he was withdrawing the offers and returning to London tomorrow.

Neither the Congress party in which the country's 240,000,000 Hindus are dominant, nor the Moslem league, which widely represents the 77,000,000 Moslems, the two powerful parties which stand at the poles, found the proposals acceptable.

It was on the issue of formation of an interim government pending settlement of India's constitutional problems after the war that negotiations were wrecked. Involved were defense powers which such a government would wield.

Congress party leaders insisted upon a national government functioning with full powers as a cabinet, and said the British plan bore too much resemblance to the present executive council of the viceroy.

Cripps said a nominated cabinet, as proposed by the Congress party, would be responsible to "no one but myself, could not be removed and would in fact constitute an absolute dictatorship" by the Hindu majority.

Cripps announced that "the discussions are over" just three weeks after his arrival. He said there was no likelihood of another attempt to settle the Indian problem in the near future.

Only slight hope was seen in his added remark, "I may come back to India. In what capacity that will be the Lord only knows."

Turning to the threat to India, Cripps said Britain would do her utmost to defend the country, that "America is doing all she can," and "now India must devote herself wholeheartedly with special effort in every field of activity in defending her soil and protecting her women and children from those ghastly horrors that have befallen her Chinese friends and neighbors."

"We may differ as to methods by which freedom can best be reached, but upon one thing surely we must all be agreed, that it cannot be reached by conquest of India by a power such as Japan," he added in a later farewell broadcast.

The British proposals were for post-war dominion status with right of withdrawal from the British empire, the right of Moslem states to abstain from the Indian union and even form a union of their own, and the right of representation for the Indian princes in the constitution-making body. Defense at present was to be directed by the British.

The Congress party rejected the proposal on the grounds that recognition of the Indian states would form "encalves where foreign authority still prevails" and where foreign armed forces could be maintained. Such a situation, it said, would be a "perpetual menace" to Indian freedom.

Further, it charged, that retention by the British of the responsi-

Bathrooms Should Be 'Tailored' To Fit Family Needs

A common mistake on the part of home buyers is that many are inclined to accept as adequate whatever bathroom facilities exist in the house they are buying.

Bathroom facilities should be tailored in advance to suit a particular family's needs, the Plumbing and Heating Industries Bureau advises. Bathroom plans that are adequate for one family's needs may

FOUTS FAMILY

Catherine Flippenger, 3127, a daughter of Peter and Esther (Cripe) Flippenger was born April 13, 1832. She was married by John Snively, Minister of the Gospel in Delphi, Carroll County, Indiana April 8, 1851 to Daniel J. Fouts.[1]

Mr. Fouts was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, September 23, 1832 and was a son of Daniel and Magdalene (Wagoner) Fouts from Pennsylvania.[2] This family moved to Illinois in 1855 and was listed on the 1880[3] and 1900 (Stevenson Twp.) Census for Marion County, Illinois. Daniel died August 11, 1910 in Marion County, Illinois and was buried in row 6 of German Brethren (Dunkard) cemetery just east of Salem (Stevenson Twp.), Illinois.[4] Catherine died in Salem, Marion County, Illinois on May 30, 1913 and was also buried in row 6 of the Dunkard Cemetery.

The obituary of "Katie" Fouts read as follows:[5]

> "Mrs. Katie Fouts, well known to all of the older citizens of Salem and Stevenson townships, passed away at the home of her son Elza S. Fouts, Friday morning, aged 81 years. She was born Catherine Flippenger in Montgomery Co., Ohio, in 1832 removing with her parents to Carroll Co., Indiana in childhood. Here she lived until 1851 when she married to Daniel J. Fouts who preceded her to the great beyond nearly three years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Fouts moved to Richland Co., Ill. in 1865 and from thence to Marion Co. in 1868, where they have resided since. To this union were born and grew to maturity three children: Samuel S. who lives near the old place and David D., who since last September has resided here with his aged mother and Mrs. Esther Mayes, who resides in Chicago. The brothers Samuel and Daivd married sisters who returned from burying their mother but Thursday, just in time to help and comfort during the sad hours which mark the separture of a soul. Mrs. Fouts in very early youth united with the Church of the Brethren, better known here as the German Baptist or Dunkard. She was a consistent member, firm in the faith, a kind and helpful neighbor and always a friend in need. Her life of nearly 50 years in Marion County was an open book and she and her aged husband had the esteem of all. She goes to the home prepared for her, where united these two good old people are today rejoicing again in each others company. Funeral was held Sunday at the Romine Brethren Church east of Salem, Illinois."

Known children of Daniel J. and Catherine (Pippenger) Fouts:

The obituary of Elizabeth (Ulrey) Fouts read as follows:

"Lizzie Fouts, beloved wife of Elder S.S. Fouts passed away from this life to the great beyond early yesterday morning. She had been in critical health for almost the entire summer and suffered greatly. Everything that loving hands and skilled medical attention could do, relieved her as much as possible.

"She was born Lizzie Ulrey in Carroll Co., Ind. June 4, 1857, coming to Illinois in 1874. She was united in marriage June 21, 1885 to Samuel S. Fouts who, with one son Roy, survives. Two children died in infancy.

"One sister, the wife of David D. Fouts, survives. She was here for the last month of illness. Funeral is being held this afternoon at Romine Church of the Brethren (Dunkard) of which she was a consistent member. Mr. and Mrs. Fouts were among the very best of our citizens. One obituary read as follows:

"Esther Fouts, youngest child and only daughter of Daniel and Catherine Fouts, was born at Delphi, Ind. October 14, 1859. When but 9 years of age her parents moved to Illinois . . (copy missing) . . On June 16, 1881 she was united in marriage to Thomas E. Mayes, her early married life being spent in the vicinity of her girlhood home, at Alma and Xenia. In 1886 Mr. and Mrs. Mayes and children moved to Chicago where they lived until about seven or eight years ago when they moved to Evanston where they were living at the passing on of Mrs. Mayes. Mrs. Mayes had not been well for several years, the illness which caused her death made its appearance about last Easter time. For several months she did not seem to be seriously ill, not until the past month when an operation performed, offered the only possible hope of prolonging her life, but after a few days of a cheerful, heroic struggle, it became evident that she was rapidly growing weaker and she quietly took her leave of the earthly body, aged 67 years, 11 months and 4 days.

"Mrs. Mayes was a Christian woman and will be no stranged in that better land. She was the mother of 9 children, 4 preceding her in death. The members of the immediate family left to mourn their loss include 4 daughters: Mrs. W.B. Kitzmiller, Evanston, Ill.; Mrs. R.A. Walther, Lakewood, Ohio; Mrs. N.B. MacTaggart, ElReno, Okla.; Mrs. George Ford, Los Angeles, Calif.; one son Earl Mayes, Lakewood, Ohio; two brothers, Samuel Fouts, Salem, Ill.; and David Fouts, Laton, Calif.

"The body arrived in Salem, Wednesday morning. Funeral services were held from the C.L. McMackin funeral parlors with Rev. J.D. Shaddrick, paster of the First M.E. Church officiating. Interment was made in East Lawn cemetery, Salem, Ill."

You can do nothing by gophering around near the surface, but you must go down to get a solid formation and to find the ore in place. There is no danger but what the ore will be rich enough, for it has proved so in every case wherever any depth has been obtained.

"I believe this deal means a great deal for the camp. These men who have purchased the Mohawk have plenty of means and they have bought it with the intention of opening it up this summer. They will begin work there just as soon as they can determine what kind and how much machinery they will need. I look to see them make a paying mine of it before the summer is over.

Running Line South From Walcott—Sixteen Men, with Teams and Camp Outfit, Now at Work Toward This Place—May Mean a Railroad—and it May Not.

Platt Hinman, who returned from the railroad Monday, brought word that an outfit of sixteen surveyors were at work, running a line of survey from Walcott south towards Mead's ranch on Pass creek. Mr. Hinman also said that the outfit had hired two of his teams to haul supplies and move camp for them and that they had engaged a third team, which he took down to the camp yesterday.

As usual nothing could be learned from the men of their intentions, through they freely admitted that they were working for the U. P. road. Mr. Hinman has contracted with them for his three teams for a period of from three to five months, which looks very much as though the U. P. might have at last made up its mind to build into this valley.

Olympia Mining Company.

Carl B. Bergquist, son of Carl O. Bergquist, of Chicago, Treasurer of the Olympia Mining Company, arrived here Monday last and he, in company with John Lundgren, were taken up to the Olympia property, in the Continental Divide, by Earle Crawford, who also owns some mining interests of value in that vicinity. Mr. Bergquist will look over the company's property and decide what will be for the best interests of the company. He may remain here for several months and take active charge of the company's workings. Mr. Bergquist met with a cordial welcome from the friends of his father, as well as

THE 41ST ANNUAL CONVENTION N. E. A.

To Superintendents, Teachers and All Others Interested in Education.

The 41st Annual Convention of the National Educational Association will be held at Minneapolis, Minn., July 7 to 11, 1902. The people of Minneapolis are making extensive and elaborate preparations for the event, and the local committees are bending every energy to provide for the entertainment of the expected visitors. All railroads have made a rate of one fare for the occasion, plus $2.00 membership fee, and tickets will be good for return until September 1, if deposited with the Joint Railway Agent at Minneapolis on or before July 12.

The program prepared for the Convention and the various departments is one of unusual excellence and includes addresses and discussions by the most prominent educators in America. The present indications point to an unprecedented attendance, and it is expected that this convention will be the greatest in the history of the Association. Teachers ambitious for improvement will find attendance upon these sessions of great advantage. The several states are vieing with each other in the effort to make a creditable showing in the matter of attendance, and it is hoped that our State may uphold her record as a

EDITOR SUN:

The article on "Extinct Volcanic Craters," which appeared in your last number, no doubt brought a feeling of relief and security to many in the Upper Platte and other mining districts. A fear of sudden eruptions from extinct craters has apparently caused many good mining properties to remain undeveloped. Now that eminent scientists pronounce this fear groundless the writer hopes to see mining in the future pushed energetically, confidently, systematically and fearlessly.

For years it must have been terribly trying to the nerves of many to feel themselves compelled through geologic conditions to sink inch by inch, while every moment expecting to tap a volcano. The writer has known ten years to be consumed in sinking fifty feet, while this leaden cloud of fear hung heavy, paralyzing otherwise energetic workers. Until the writer became convinced that herein lay the cause, he often wondered why the mines of the Upper Platte district were not more rapidly developed. In many cases locating and annual work has been done in the "wash" for fear, it would appear, of weakening the earth's crust by a shaft or a tunnel. In fact many prospectors through fear of risking their lives by disturbing the crust or by remaining too long in the vicinity of these extinct craters, have hurriedly done their annual work with a lead pencil and hastily escaped from the dangerous territory.

Through all this the law has been evaded and the development of the district seriously retarded. At the present time large tracts of mineral land are held by men who neither batting, pitching or catching. Promptly at 3 o'clock Governor DeForest Richards took his place at the home plate, W. R. Schnitger assumed his position in the pitcher's box, Del Holliday donned the wind pad, mask and big mitt, Pitt Covert preparred to run bases for the Governor and Chief Justice Potter prepared to make use of his judicial training in the capacity of umpire. For 5 minutes the dignified players kept the fans convulsed with delight, then gave away to the regular teams, and the league season had been auspiciously opened.—Wyoming Tribune.

The "Centennial Post."

During the month of June the regular publication of the "Centennial Post" will be inaugurated. This paper will contain full and complete news, once each week, of all the affairs affecting the territory along the line of the Laramie, Hahns Peak & Paciffc Railway, and general news which will be of interest to every person interested in our work in Wyoming.

The subscription price will be $2.00 per year payable in advance, and if you desire it address M. E. Taylor, Manager, Laramie, Wyoming.—Wyoming Bulletin.

Encampment Will Celebrate.

Grand Encampment will celebrate the 126th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence by a rousing celebration on July 4th. The preliminaries show that the citizens are very much interested, and that exceptional preparation will be made to make the day one long to be remembered in the glorious history of our young and thriving city.

Nellie Fouts Dead.

Nellie, the fifteen year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Fouts, died at 5 o'clock Friday morning, at the ranch, and was burried here at 12 o'clock noon Saturday.

She was taken sick the Monday before and Dr. Perdue of Encampment, was called in. She was taken very bad from the first and was unconscious for three days before she died. Rev. Brundage held a short funeral service at the grave.

Nellie was a very bright, healthy girl and her death was not only a sad blow to her parents, but deeply regretted by every one who knew her.

Another Scarlet Fever Victim.

Mabel M. Anderson, the little three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nels E Anderson, died at 6 o'clock Friday afternoon, of scarlet fever, and was buried at 11 o'clock Saturday morning. The child had only gotten up shortly before from an attack of scarlet fever and was thought to be entirely out or danger until Wednesday, when she was taken with throat trouble and grew rapidly worse until she died.

The rest of the Anderson family are recovered from their late seige of scarlet fever.

Killed a Bear.

N. B. Craig killed a 700 pound brown bear in the mountains, near what is known as the "Old Smith" cabin. Mr. Craig has seen bear sign around there for some time and had set a trap catching one bear by the toes, but it had gotten away, leaving his toes as a souvenir of his visit. Yesterday morning, when he visited the trap

We all know that as soon as the road reaches the camp that the development of the company's mines, some twelve or fifteen in number, will begin in earnest.

"The development of Gold Hill means a great deal to Saratoga. From the location of Gold Hill proper, all the way down this side of the range to within a few miles of Saratoga, there are rich croppings, and there has been many locations made. Just as soon as some of the larger companies begin development work the small owners will be encouraged to go to work. Prospecting in that country will also be stimulated and new finds will come to light and, mark my word, that country will eventually prove to be the richest gold camp in the west."

Word has been sent to the Special Agent of the General Land Office and he is expected to not only extinguish the fire, but bring the guilty parties to justice.

Saratoga Needs an Audubon Society.

Saratoga needs few things more than an Audubon Society for the protection of birds. With the planting of shade trees and shrubbery numerous song birds will come to build in the boughs and they should be protected. The way to do this is to enlist the sympathies of the boys and girls, as well as older persons, and thus make each one of them a friend to the little feathered songsters, so that their hands will be stretched out, not to slay, but to protect.

Birds very soon learn where they are welcome, and when their confidence is once gained they become happy and full of song, making the air vocal with their music.

What could be more delightful than to have our shade trees full of happy, bright colored, tuneful birds, keeping house and raising their young in perfect security! By all means, let us have an Audubon society.

Mr. Bergquist met with a cordial welcome from the friends of his father, as well as those of President Neilsson, and they will do all in their power to make the young man's stay pleasant as as well as pr fitable.

The Gold Coin.

Gustave Jensen, the President of the Badger State Mining and Milling Co., returned Saturday from a visit to the Gold Coin' situated on the western slope of the mountain, near the Bridger mines. He reports the shaft of the company's mine as full of surface water, but thinks that it can be handled without difficulty. They will begin the work of taking out the water at once, preparatory to again beginning development work on the shaft. Mr. Jensen speaks in very high terms of the character of the work that has been done on the shaft of the Gold Coin.

Denies Being Married.

Attorney R. H. Young passed through Monday, on his way to Battle. When asked about his wife he said: "The newspaper boys have been trying to marry me off for the past year—but have not succeeded yet. If I have a wife I am not aware of it, yet every time I go east the boys say I am going out to get married. Well," he added reflectively, "I'd gladly pay her fare if I could find one." When we offered our kindly services he shied off and said, "no, thanks." That ended the conversation.

Special Meeting of the Council.

A special meeting of the city board was held in the town hall Monday evening for the purpose of examining the books of John H. Albro, former city treasurer, prior to his turning the same over to O. F. Hoel, who was appointed treasurer for the coming year. The books were examined and Mr. Hoel took the oath of office. The meeting was then adjourned.

Doctors Disagreed.

Dr. W. O. Burke, who is health officer for Saratoga, was called to Encampment last Saturday to decide a little disagreement between two of the medical fraternity at that place.

A case of scarlet fever, in a very mild form, made its appearance and was promptly quarantined by the local health officer. The medico in charge objected and tore down the quarantine, and Dr. Burke's presence was required to settle the dispute. He pronounced it scarlet fever and the quarantine immediately went up.

THE 41ST ANNUAL CONVENTION N. E. A.

To Superintendents, Teachers and All Others Interested in Education.

The 41st Annual Convention of the National Educational Association will be held at Minneapolis, Minn., July 7 to 11, 1902. The people of Minneapolis are making extensive and elaborate preparations for the event, and the local committees are bending every energy to provide for the entertainment of the expected visitors. Teachers ambitious for improvement will find attendance upon these sessions of great advantage. The several states are vieing with each other in the effort to make a creditable showing in the matter of attendance, and it is hoped that our State may uphold her record as a leader in educational work by having a large delegation present.

All railroad and steamship lines have offered greatly reduced rates for a large variety of side trips to the many attractive resorts nad the beautiful lake regions of Minnesota, Michigan and Lower Canada, which will afford a delightful outing at very reasonable expense to those taking advantage of them.

The Official Program Bulletin and other printed matter may be had upon application to Mr. Irwin Shepard, Secretary, Winona, Minn. Those desiring to secure accomodations in advance should apply by mail to Mr Wallace G. Nye, Chairman Local Executive Committee, N. E. A., Minneapolis, Minn., who will also furnish any other information desired by prospective attendants upon the Convention.

ESTELLE REEL.

Boss Epperson Badly Hurt.

Last Saturday, about 5 o'clock p. m., Boss Epperson, a printer who has been working on the Record, had the misfortune to catch his hand in the job press and mashed it flat, breaking two bones in the back of the hand and severing the leaders. He was taken to the drug store of Ashley & Devine and Dr. Green and Dr. Ellis were called and, after administering chloroform, put the hand to rights. Boss suffered terrible agony with the hand for more than 24 hours, but it is coming out all right now. The accident will lay him up for three months.

George Buffon Dangerously Ill.

George Buffon is very seriously ill and his case is reported a hopeless one by the doctor. A section of his skull was removed last year when he went to Denver, and he was to have returned later to have it trepanned, but failed to do so, and the heat has so affected the unprotected part that it is thought to be a matter of only a short time until he will succumb to the inevitable.

At the present time large tracts of mineral land are held by men who did their locatian work in the "wash" where neither lead nor flow from the lead was visible, and who year after year do their annual work in "soft ground" or with a pencil. The mineral lands of this state should not be tied up in this manner by men who make no effort to develop it. Several good companies which failed to secure sufficient territory at the start for extensive operations, have been forced to suspend work through being surrounded by these locations, which are at best usually held by a very slender thread by a class of prospectors who are a standing obstacle to the development of any country. Let the laws be enforced or this practice will become an established custom through continued usage.

In the opinion of the writer the mining laws should be amended to reduce the number of mining claims to which an individual would be entitled in a mining district. This would cause more careful prospecting before locating and bring about more satisfactory results to the mining interests in general.

For the information of those who may be unacquainted with the mining laws please publish extracts from same, bearing on location and annual work, so that they may plainly see that digging holes in the "wash," (except as placer locations) will not hold mineral land. Under the law the writer would also like to see published the penalty for moving stakes and changing location notices. The writer is interested in the development of the vast mineral resources of Wyoming and therefore would like to see prospecting and mining carried on in a manner that would be profitable to the individual, company and state. Wyoming, though possessing great mineral wealth, is practically in its infancy as a mineral producer, therefore all obstacles tending to retard its development should be removed.

PROSPECTOR.

Their Line Not Base Ball.

neither batting, pitching or catching. Promptly at 3 o'clock Govenor DeForest Richards took his place at the home plate, W. R. Schnitger assumed his position in the pitcher's box, Del Holliday donned the wind pad, mask and big mitt, Pitt Covert preparred to run bases for the Governor and Chief Justice Potter prepared to make use of his judicial training in the capacity of umpire. For 5 minutes the dignified players kept the fans convulsed with delight, then gave away to the regular teams, and the league season had been auspiciously opened.—Wyoming Tribune.

The "Centennial Post."

During the month of June the regular publication of the "Centennial Post" will be inaugurated. This paper will contain full and complete news, once each week, of all the affairs affecting the territory along the line of the Laramie, Hahns Peak & Paciffc Railway, and general news which will be of interest to every person interested in our work in Wyoming.

The subscription price will be $2.00 per year payable in advance, and if you desire it address M. E. Taylor, Manager, Laramie, Wyoming.—Wyoming Bulletin.

Encampment Will Celebrate.

Grand Encampment will celebrate the 126th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence by a rousing celebration on July 4th. The preliminaries show that the citizens are very much interested, and that exceptional preparation will be made to make the day one long to be remembered in the glorious history of our young and thriving city.

Generosity is evinced by all solicited in the raising of funds for expenses, prizes, etc., and with united effort the celebration may be made a hummer. The people of the surrounding country will be assured a fine time in Grand Encampment on July 4th.—Encampment Herald.

Locusts on Pass Creek.

Henry A. Kincaid was over from his Pass creek ranch this week. He reports the country on the south side of Pass creek, near his ranch, as alive with locusts. They come out of the ground and are all over in the sage brush, and make the air buzz with their screeching. He says they have in no way interfered with the crops, nor are any of them to be found on the north side of Pass creek. Mr. Kincaid says that this is the second time, within the past eight years that they have made their appearance in the same place, coming out of the ground. He says the ground appears to be full of holes for two or three miles square, near his ranch, which is on a bench, back from the creek.

Laramie People Entertained.

Mrs. Chaplin and a party of friends were entertained Wednesday evening by a telephone concert over the long distance wire between Grand Encampment and Laramie, the music being furnished by the Grand Encampment band. The organization is a good one and the music transmitted over the wire could be distinctly heard and was highly enjoyable to Mrs Chaplain and her guests, the novelty of the entertainment adding to its zest.—Laramie Republican.

Knights of Pythias, Attention!

The Memorial services of the Platte Valley Lodge No. 16 will be held Sunday the 16th inst. All members of the order are earnestly requested to assemble at the Masonic Hall, on that morning, at 10:30 sharp, from which place they will march in a body to the Presbyterian church and, after appropriate services there, conducted by Rev. Brundage, will march to the cemetery and deco-

Nellie Fouts Dead.

Nellie, the fifteen year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Fouts, died at 5 o'clock Friday morning, at the ranch, and was burried here at 12 o'clock noon Saturday.

She was taken sick the Monday before and Dr. Perdue of Encampment, was called in. She was taken very bad from the first and was unconscious for three days before she died. Rev. Brundage held a short funeral service at the grave.

Nellie was a very bright, healthy girl and her death was not only a sad blow to her parents, but deeply regretted by every one who knew her.

Another Scarlet Fever Victim.

Mabel M. Anderson, the little three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nels E Anderson, died at 6 o'clock Friday afternoon, of scarlet fever, and was buried at 11 o'clock Saturday morning. The child had only gotten up shortly before from an attack of scarlet fever and was thought to be entirely out or danger until Wednesday, when she was taken with throat trouble and grew rapidly worse until she died.

The rest of the Anderson family are recovered from their late seige of scarlet fever.

Killed a Bear.

N. B. Craig killed a 700 pound brown bear in the mountains, near what is known as the "Old Smith" cabin. Mr. Craig has seen bear sign around there for some time and had set a trap catching one bear by the toes, but it had gotten away, leaving his toes as a souvenir of his visit. Yesterday morning, when he visited the trap he found another bear in it. The trap is rather small and it had only caught him by the toes. It took three shots to dispatch him and now Mr. Craig and his friends are feasting on bear meat, and Mr. Craig did not forget the Sun hired man.

K. P. Anniversary.

The Knights of Pythias will celebrate their second anniversary on Friday evening the 20th inst., at the ranch of Lawrence Sterrett, one of the members. Dancing and a supper will constitute the main features of the programme.

Collins Changed to Downington.

There is a rumor in the air to the effect that Collins post-office, on Beaver creek, had been abandoned and the office removed to Downington, one mile west of Collins and Foster Kearns appointed postmaster.

Warren Gives Up.

Senator Warren plows about in an old serge suit that had been worn thin in many campaigns. He reminds one of the planet Jupiter, with his ever increasing quota of moons. Warren is always ringing in a new moon in the form of some choice office. In spite of the warm weather, he works the same old hours, beginning before breakfast and winding up in the wee sma' hours of the following day. He takes his meals at any time, in any place, and usually he finds a congenial soul to help him through the deadly task. His favorite breakfast room now is the cafe of the congressional library, from which one gets a superb view of the river and the city. The other morning when the waiter brought his change back, the senator picked up the dollar bill and looked over his glasses at the half dollar and the two quarters. "Now, Ephriam," he said solemnly, "why did you bring me that change instead of the two bills?" The darkie rolled his eyes skyward for inspiration and evidently got it, for he replied most piously. "Well, sah, de Lawd loveth a cheehful givah." And he got one of the quarters for his tip, as he knew he would.

Gold Hill, are pushing their railroad to that place from Laramie as fast as they can. We all know that as soon as the road reaches the camp that the development of the company's mines, some twelve or fifteen in number, will begin in earnest.

"The development of Gold Hill means a great deal to Saratoga. From the location of Gold Hill proper, all the way down this side of the range to within a few miles of Saratoga, there are rich croppings, and there has been many locations made. Just as soon as some of the larger companies begin development work the small owners will be encouraged to go to work. Prospecting in that country will also be stimulated and new finds will come to light and, mark my word, that country will eventually prove to be the richest gold camp in the west."

away bears, wolves and coyotes, but it is criminal carlessness that allows the fires to get away and destroy the timber and the guilty parties will no doubt be apprehended and brought to time. Word has been sent to the Special Agent of the General Land Office and he is expected to not only extinguish the fire, but bring the guilty parties to justice.

Saratoga Needs an Audubon Society.

Saratoga needs few things more than an Audubon Society for the protection of birds. With the planting of shade trees and shrubbery numerous song birds will come to build in the boughs and they should be protected. The way to do this is to enlist the sympathies of the boys and girls, as well as older persons, and thus make each one of them a friend to the little feathered songsters, so that their hands will be stretched out, not to slay, but to protect.

Birds very soon learn where they are welcome, and when their confidence is once gained they become happy and full of song, making the air vocal with their music.

What could be more delightful than to have our shade trees full of happy, bright colored, tuneful birds, keeping house and raising their young in perfect security! By all means, let us have an Audubon society.

those of President Neilsson, and they will do all in their power to make the young man's stay pleasant as as well as pr fitable.

The Gold Coin.

Gustave Jensen, the President of the Badger State Mining and Milling Co., returned Saturday from a visit to the Gold Coin' situated on the western slope of the mountain, near the Bridger mines. He reports the shaft of the company's mine as full of surface water, but thinks that it can be handled without difficulty. They will begin the work of taking out the water at once, preparatory to again beginning development work on the shaft. Mr. Jensen speaks in very high terms of the character of the work that has been done on the shaft of the Gold Coin.

Denies Being Married.

Attorney R. H. Young passed through Monday, on his way to Battle. When asked about his wife he said: "The newspaper boys have been trying to marry me off for the past year—but have not succeeded yet. If I have a wife I am not aware of it, yet every time I go east the boys say I am going out to get married. Well," he added reflectively, "I'd gladly pay her fare if I could find one." When we offered our kindly services he shied off and said, "no, thanks." That ended the conversation.

Special Meeting of the Council.

A special meeting of the city board was held in the town hall Monday evening for the purpose of examining the books of John H. Albro, former city treasurer, prior to his turning the same over to C. F. Hoel, who was appointed treasurer for the coming year. The books were examined and Mr. Hoel took the oath of office. The meeting was then adjourned.

Doctors Disagreed.

Dr. W. O. Burke, who is health officer for Saratoga, was called to Encampment last Saturday to decide a little disagreement between two of the medical fraternity at that place.

The Wyoming headquarters will be at the West Hotel. Let each one endeavor to give our State a large representation at Minneapolis.

Boss Epperson Badly Hurt.

Last Saturday, about 5 o'clock p. m., Boss Epperson, a printer who has been working on the Record, had the misfortune to catch his hand in the job press and mashed it flat, breaking two bones in the back of the hand and severing the leaders. He was taken to the drug store of Ashley & Devine and Dr. Green and Dr. Ellis were called and, after administering chloroform, put the hand to rights. Boss suffered terrible agony with the hand for more than 24 hours, but it is coming out all right now. The accident will lay him up for three months.

George Buffon Dangerously Ill.

George Buffon is very seriously ill and his case is reported a hopeless one by the doctor. A section of his skull was removed last year when he went to Denver, and he was to have returned later to have it trepanned, but failed to do so, and the heat has so affected the unprotected part that it is thought to be a matter of only a short time until he will succumb to the inevitable.

scheduled for the property will be the sinking of a main working shaft of three compartments.—Encampment Herald.

Developing the Puzzler.

J. B. Hassett started development work this week on the Puzzler claim in which he is interested. The condition under which the mineral is found in the Puzzler mine are entirely different from any other mine or prospect thus far opened up in the district. The shaft has been sunk on the vein to a depth of 40 feet. The vein is a gray porphyry carrying carbonates and native copper. Some sulphides occasionally appear in a brown iron close to the hanging wall.

The size of the ore body has not yet been determined but the indications are that it is an extensive one. The owners have had some good offers for the property but prefer to hold it until they develop further.—Encampment Herald.

The Telephone Exchange.

One of the evidences of the steady growth of this town, in a business way, is the growth of the Bell Telephone Exchange here. Mr. Mayberry, local manager, informs us that he has recently put in phones at the residence of Judge Heath, James Cleve, Scribner & Orville stage stable and the Market of William Turnbull, and that he has orders for three or four more. The service of the office is improving under the management of Mr. Mayberry. He is a young man of pleasing and courteous address, with whom it is a pleasure to deal. He is taking care of the business of the firm in a manner that will soon place Saratoga in the front rank of telephone exchanges, every business house and many of the private houses being already supplied with phones and, before the end of the year, there will be from fifteen to twenty more private phones added to the exchange.

Taken to the Hospital.

Mrs. Robert Torbett started for Denver Monday morning, where she goes to place her daughter, Blanche, in St. Joseph's hospital. The girl, who is about 12 years old, had a sick spell some eighteen months ago, which left her with an abcess in her left side. This was opened and a drainage tube placed in it and it was thought she would recover. She did regain some measure of health, but of late she has been going down again. The opening in her side cotinues to discharge and an operation will have to be performed to save the lung, if it is not all gone, as it is certain that unless she gets relief she cannot last long.

Lora Brownlee, eldest daughter of John Brownlee, died at her home Sunday afternoon of pneumonia, and was buried Monday. Mr. Brownlee and family have the sympathy of their many friends.

C. J. Holcomb has gone up to Cow creek to build a cabin for George Freeman and Harry Shields.

Mrs. T. B. Lottier passed through here Monday on her way to her home in Battle Lake.

M. and Mrs. Hess of Fort Steele were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Morgan last week.

C. L. Forney, H. P. Culleton, George Dunbar and family went to Walden last week to see the great Frontier Day. All report a very pleasant time.

Look after your wells.

The unusually dry summer and scarcity of water has made the water in the wells in town very low. Well water is none to good when the water is high and fresh, but when it gets low it is is just a little better than no water at all so far as regards the health of the consumer. Typhoid fever and all kinds of stomach and bowel disorders follow the use of well water at this time of the year. Well water should be boiled before drink-shafts are only 18 to 20 feet, so that by all say so's of experienced miners there is no doubt of the copper But how rich it may prove to be is what nobody can tell without digging and that is apparently the only chance we and the stock holders in general are taking, viz: whether it pays large or small. Such practical experts and geologists as the Doctor Burger said upon seeing specimens of the Baltimore that we doubtless were upon the Ferris-Haggarty vein, which, as you know, is only 1¼ miles distant and proven to be the richest mine discovered in recent years. You know the Baltimore lies nearest the Ferris-Haggarty mine.

There is a big hill on the the Baltimore claim with nearly pure iron rocks on the surface and supposed to hold millions of tons of iron, which Mr. Bergquest take great stock in, though I suppose it will not be of any great value unless we had the railroad near by. Smelters, however, must have iron for most of the copper ores for fluxing and it may become valuable in course of time for that purpose.

It took us a whole day to visit the Giant, for while that claim is only about 5 miles distant from the Olympia, as the birds fly, we were obliged to drive some more than 20 miles around the mountains in order to alleviate the steepness either while ascending or descending. While Bergquest, who seems to know all about it, and others agree that the Giant will turn out excellently, Mr. Lundgren is adverse to working it just now, as the first three claims mentioned will give sufficient occupation for years to come. What has especially surprised me is the knowledge and judgement Mr. Carl O. Bergquest is possessed of in ore bodies, quality, kinds etc. This is not idle flattery, because it is from conversations listened to with expert miners and other observations that I have been enabled to draw my conclusions from.

As to Selma, the ore is said not to be very rich, but a very large vein and is eminently fitted for reducing works. We visited Kurtz Chatterton mine Saturday and the superintendent of the reduction plant told us that their mine only held from 2 to 3 per cent. in copper ore and after having gone through the reduction work held 20 per cent. but that it paid well as a business proposition at these figures, especially as there is no end to the supply of low grade ores in their mountain, the same as the case order to avail ourselves of the fortunes in store for the stockholders in proportion to their respective investments, so that the quicker you men in Chicago sell stock for $10000 to $15000, the nearest I can estimate from this distance, the quicker you will become rich.

What pleases me very much is the general verdict of the best citizens of Saratoga and men in camps, that Mr. Lundgren has three distinct qualifications, viz: that he is strictly honest, that he never tells a lie and that he rather represents the darker or harder sides of the enterprise than the more roseate ones. He may have other faults, but the qualifications mentioned ought to place us all, officers as well as stockholders, of the company, at rest as to any wrong intent on his side, considering that he has the largest bunch of stock.

Well, I presume that I have now told you the most essential things pertaining to our present trip. The balance or details we will have to tell verbally upon inquiry when we return. We leave in the morning for Ft. Steele on the stage and thence to Salt Lake City, where we will arrive the following morning. We would like to stop there and in Denver each a day, at the same time we seem to desire getting home and see about business.

Yours truly,
P. W. Nilsson, President.

Having accompanied Mr. Nilsson to the mines, I find by reading the above, that the statements made are correct except as to the compliments to me, which could have been left out.

Broke his Arm.

Thomas Ellis, a man who has been driving a frieght team for J. H. Kymer, met with a very serious accident Saturday morning, just opposite the house of J. F. Crawford, on the road south of town. He had started out with a six horse outfit which had dwindled down to two. While standing near, one of the horses kicked over the trace and caught his left arm below the elbow, breaking it short off. Dr. Green attended to the wound and he is doing as well as a man in that condition can expect.

Lora was the daughter of John Brownlee, who owns a ranch on Cherokee creek. She was a very bright little girl, 14 years of age, and her death comes as a sad blow to her father and friends. The body will be interred in the Dunkard graveyard at Encampment.

This is the highest office within the gift of that body and Mr. Moore and Saratoga were very highly honored in the selection.

THE MAMMOTH MINING CO.

Down 100 Feet on The Company's Property and Drifting for the Vein—A Fine Showing for Shiping Ore.

A. G. Epperson, the supperintendent of the Mammmoth Mining Co., was down Saturday from the company's works. He brought with him some very fine specimens of copper ore which he took out of the drift from the ground broken by the last shot put in. It shows rich copper sulphides and also carries some gold.

Mr. Epperson says they are now down 100 feet in the shaft, at which point they started to drift across to the vein, which they expect to reach in from nine to twelve feet. At the depth they are now down they expect, when they cut the vein, to have shipping ore, and the specimens of rock brought down are certainly very encouraging and point strongly to the near proximity of a large body of rich ore. The rock—small specimens taken from the pockets—cannot be told from Ferris-Haggarty ore. The vein is known to be a very large one and if it proves to be what every indication now points to, it will indeed be a "mammoth" lead in fact as well as in name.

The superintendent of the company, A. G. Epperson, has done some very valuable improvements amid very discouraging circumstances and has shown a pluck and energy that certainly deserves to be rewarded—and we believe it will.

Kurtz-Chatteron.

Most of the work being done in the Kurtz-Chatterton mine at present is in the east drift from the seven hundred foot point in the tunnel. From this drift sufficient ore is being saved to supply the concentrator with its daily capacity. The bore is 1,700 feet into the mountain. For the present it is not to be lengthened. The next important development work scheduled for the property will be the sinking of a main working shaft of three compartments.—Encampment Herald.

Developing the Puzzler.

J. B. Hassett started development work this week on the Puzzler claim in which he is interested. The condition under which the mineral is found in the Puzzler mine are entirely different from any other mine or prospect thus far opened up in the district. The shaft has been sunk on the vein to a depth of 40 feet. The vein is a gray porphyry carrying carbonates and native copper. Some sulphides occasionally appear in a brown iron close to the hanging wall.

The size of the ore body has not yet been determined but the indications are that it is an extensive one. The owners have had some good offers for the property but prefer to hold it until they develop further.—Encampment Herald.

The Telephone Exchange.

One of the evidences of the steady growth of this town, in a business way, is the growth of the Bell Telephone Exchange here. Mr. Mayberry, local manager, informs us that he has recently put in phones at the residence of Judge Heath, James Cleve, Scribner & Orville stage stable and the Market of William Turnbull, and that he has orders for three or four more. The service of the office is improving under the management of Mr. Mayberry. He is a young man of pleasing and courteous address, with whom it is a pleasure to deal. He is taking care of the business of the firm in a manner that will soon place Saratoga in the front rank of telephone exchanges, every business house and many of the private houses being already supplied with phones and, before the end of the year, there will be from fifteen to twenty more private phones added to the exchange.

An Enterprizing Firm.

Cosgriff Bros. Co. have been making some improvements around their place of business recently that the public will appreciate. The platform on the east front of their store building has been entirely rebuilt and arranged to correspond with the rest of the sidewalk adjoining. They have also constructed a brick oil house on the corner next to Sisson & Blackhall's livery stable. Manager Hoel is to be commended for the enterprize he has shown in these matter, as well as his attention to the general business of the firm.

Notice.

On and after this date coal will be $3 per ton at the Phillips coal mine and $2.50 at the McCold coal mine.

100 SIX HORSE ORE TEAMS.

This Will be the Number That Will be Required to Haul Ore to the Smelter and to Transport the Matte to the Railroad—To Start Within 60 Days.

Word come from Encampment that the teams are to be started this week to haul ore from the Albany County Rambler. The road is completed and in fair shape and as soon as the teams can be rigged up they will be put to work transporting to the smelter bins.

The hauling of the ore from the mine to the smelter will require 65 six horse teams it is said. Thirty-five more will be used in hauling the matte to the railroad and transporting the coke from the railroad to the smelter. Teams hauling ore to the railroad will load back with coke. By this means the freight on the coke from the railroad will be saved, which will materialy reduce the expenses of running the smelter.

The managers of the smelter now believe they will be able to start it within sixty days from the present time. A large institution, like this smelter, is an uncertain quantity and and is very arbitrary as to dates. But once started it must be kept going, for it is like shutting down a railroad almost to shut down a smelter, once the furnace fires are lit.

The Crescent.

Adjoining the Kurtz-Chatterton group and on some of the same veins, the property of the Crescent Copper company is being developed by a tunnel. A considerable distance farther is to be driven before any of the more important of these veins will be tapped. The Crescent company is a close corporation nearly all the stock being held by the Hebers, father and sons.—Encampment Herald.

Taken to the Hospital.

Mrs. Robert Torbett started for Denver Monday morning, where she goes to place her daughter, Blanche, in St. Joseph's hospital. The girl, who is about 12 years old, had a sick spell some eighteen months ago, which left her with an abcess in her left side. This was opened and a drainage tube placed in it and it was thought she would recover. She did regain some measure of health, but of late she has been going down again. The opening in her side cotinues to discharge and an operation will have to be performed to save the lung, if it is not all gone, as it is certain that unless she gets relief she cannot last long.

Look after your wells.

The unusually dry summer and scarcity of water has made the water, in the wells in town very low. Well water is none to good when the water is high and fresh, but when it gets low it is is just a little better than no water at all so far as regards the health of the consumer. Typhoid fever and all kinds of stomach and bowel disorders follow the use of well water at this time of the year. Well water should be boiled before drinking, if it is drank at all, but it is far better to get water from the river for drinking purposes at this time of the year. Running water purifies itself every half mile and the water in the swift running Platte is about as pure as water can get. If great care is not used we may look for an epidemic of stomach and bowel trouble during the month of September. It has already made its appearance in two or three localties in town.

Every well that is used for family purposes, should be thoroughly cleaned and the water drawn out two or three times before it is used. Too much care cannot be taken in this matter and we advise immediate action.

AN HONEST OPINION

Of This Immensely Rich Copper Camp and a Most Promising Future for the Olympia Mining Company's Group of Claims—Expressed in a Letter From the Company's President to the Secretaries, Johnson & Malm, Chicago.

Windsor Hotel, Saratoga, Wyo.,
Monday, Aug. 19th, 1901.

Messrs Johnson & Malm,
187 E. Chicago Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sirs:—

Yesterday I mailed a few lines to you with Mr. Lundgren's letter, but said nothing much about what we have done or observed while here. We are going to have a directors meeting this evening at the hotel, and as Bergquest, Anderson, Hogan and others are trying their luck with the finny tribe in the North Platte this afternoon, I will while away the time by telling you about our trip.

Well, we stayed at the camp part of three days and two nights. The new road is quite an improvement on the old one, which latter we had occasion to go over when visiting the Giant. The claims of Baltimore, Olympia, and Bud of Promise are in straight lines East and West, with Olympia in the middle. Going into the tunnel of over 100 feet we could see distinct seams of copper ore on the walls and between the rocks, though the main and paying vein has not as yet been reached. But in the shaft of about 50 feet on the top of the mountain, some 200 feet above where the tunnel is supposed to strike the vein, there is already ore at the bottom of said shaft in paying quantities if we only had reducing machinery, but not rich enough to pay to transport the distance we have to a railroad. It is, however, a wellknown fact to everybody in this section of the country that the deeper you go the richer the ore becomes and that is why Lundgren is so anxious to enlarge and continue the tunnel until it strikes the vein at the lower depth indicated above. The Baltimore and Bud of Promise also show very distinct copper indications, though their respective shafts are only 18 to 20 feet, so that by all say so's of experienced miners there is no doubt of the copper. But how rich it may prove to be is what nobody can tell without digging and that is apparently the only chance we and the stock holders in general are taking, viz: whether it pays large or small. Such practical experts and geologists as the Doctor Burger said upon seeing specimens of the Baltimore that we doubtless were upon the Ferris-Haggarty vein, which, as you know, is only 1¼ miles distant and proven to be the richest mine discovered in recent years. You know the Baltimore lies nearest the Ferris-Haggarty mine.

There is a big bill on the the Baltimore claim with nearly pure iron rocks on the surface and supposed to hold millions of tons of iron, which Mr. Bergquest take great stock in, though I suppose it will not be of any great value unless we had the railroad near by. Smelters, however, must have iron for most of the copper ores for fluxing and it may become valuable in course of time for that purpose.

It took us a whole day to visit the Giant, for while that claim is only about 5 miles distant from the Olympia, as the birds fly, we were obliged to drive some more than 20 miles around the mountains in order to alleviate the steepness either while ascending or descending. While Bergquest, who seems to know all about it, and others agree that the Giant will turn out excellently, Mr. Lundgren is adverse to working it just now, as the first three claims mentioned will give sufficient occupation for years to come. What has especially surprised me is the knowledge and judgement Mr. Carl O. Bergquest is possessed of in ore bodies, quality, kinds etc. This is not idle flattery, because it is from conversations listened to with expert miners and other observations that I have been enabled to draw my conclusions from.

As to Selma, the ore is said not to be very rich, but a very large vein and is eminently fitted for reducing works. We visited Kurtz Chatterton mine Saturday and the superintendent of the reduction plant told us that their mine only held from 2 to 3 per cent. in copper ore and after having gone through the reduction work held 20 per cent. but that it paid well as a business proposition at these figures, especially as there is no end to the supply of low grade ores in their mountain, the same as the case appears to be with our Selma.

On Friday, we visited the smelter works at Encampment, stayed there over night and visited two other mines Saturday, after which we arrived at Saratoga in the evening. In Encampment I met an old acquaintance from Minneapolis, a Mr. Rosander, who is dispensing wet ware at that place. He said people told him that some Swedes in Chicago had valuable properties up by Jack creek and expressed his pleasure to learn that I was one of them. The smelter is ready for work except for a few finishing touches, but while having used the machinery part for crushing, stamping etc. the furnace will not be started till there are at least 1000 tons of ore in the bins, because with 100 tons capacity a day they must be assured of a steady supply, as it is supposed to be a great loss to be obliged to blow out the furnace, though by the building of large barns, roadmaking and all other general hustling there is no cause for fear of failure in the supply of ores.

You, Johnson, may remember the the creek running by the camp, between the Olympia and Baltimore hills. A little above, but south, spurs of two hills come so close that less than 100 feet divides them where the creek meanders by. Above, or southerly of, this place are several hundred acres of low land surrounded by the hills. By building a dam across, at the mentioned point, we will not only have water power for all machinery in reducing work, hoisting, drilling etc., but we will have a water storage in the shape of a lake that will be a sight of beauty and comfort, to say nothing of the fish, that will supply the larder of the camp. I tell you, the mountain trout we had for dinner today are fit for the Gods to eat, and I don't wonder that "man ur huse" are at this writing out hunting for more. There are two other creeks, which can easily be diverted into our dam, in case the water supply in our creek should prove insufficient for the power required.

As you know, my hobby is agricultture, with its incidental branches of domestic animals, fruit growing, trucking etc. In the valley of Jack creek, with the best of irrigation facilities, below, but north of the camp, I saw some splendid farming land, which could easily be pre-empted and give us fresh meat, milk, butter, vegetables, fruit and other adjuncts of civilization, which miners, as well as sailors, are always in sore need of.

Another advantage of the Olympia camp is that all the timber for mining, building and fuel purposes are right at our door, which but very few other camps possess.

All in all, as far as we are able to judge and learn from inquiries, investigations and examinations, I know of no prospects that are more promising for a money-making proposition than just our properties. But we must have money for machinery, for wages and for all general and necessary improvements in order to avail ourselves of the fortunes in store for the stockholders in proportion to their respective investments, so that the quicker you men in Chicago sell stock for $10000 to $15000, the nearest I can estimate from this distance, the quicker you will become rich.

What pleases me very much is the general verdict of the best citizens of Saratoga and men in camps, that Mr. Lundgren has three distinct qualifications, viz: that he is strictly honest, that he never tells a lie and that he rather represents the darker or harder sides of the enterprise than the more roseate ones. He may have other faults, but the qualifications mentioned ought to place us all, officers as well as stockholders, of the company, at rest as to any wrong intent on his side, considering that he has the largest bunch of stock.

Well, I presume that I have now told you the most essential things pertaining to our present trip. The balance or details we will have to tell verbally upon inquiry when we return. We leave in the morning for Ft. Steele on the stage and thence to Salt Lake City, where we will arrive the following morning. We would like to stop there and in Denver each a day, at the same time we seem to desire getting home and see about business.

Yours truly,
P. W. Nilsson, President.

Having accompanied Mr. Nilsson to the mines, I find by reading the above, that the statements made are correct except as to the compliments to me, which could have been left out.

Carl O. Bergquest, Treasurer.

Broke his Arm.

Thomas Ellis, a man who has been driving a frieght team for J. H. Kymer, met with a very serious accident Saturday morning, just opposite the house of J. F. Crawford, on the road south of town. He had started out with a six horse outfit which had dwindled down to two. While standing near, one of the horses kicked over the trace and caught his left arm below the elbow, breaking it short off. Dr. Green attended to the wound and he is doing as well as a man in that condition can expect.

City Improvements.

The heavy rain of last week revealed the fact that we still have some duck ponds, here and there, in our streets, notwithstanding the large amount of valuable work the city fathers have been doing on them. We would respectively call their attention to the half graded condition of First St. in front of the livery stable of D. S. Richmond and F. N. Larson's Grocery store. A very little work would place that street on grade and would much improve the appearance of the town. The improvement in the appearance of the town, by the grading already done, is simply marvelous. Let the good work go on. Mayor Clemmons has done many things which commend him to the citizens of the town.

Called Home.

Ethel Parker Carroll, wife of Benjamin T. Carroll, died at 2.35 a. m. Wednesday, September, 4th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Parker on North Spring creek, of Puerperal fever. Mrs. Carroll gave birth to a daughter on last Friday morning, Aug., 30th and seemed to be doing as nicely as could be desired until Sunday when her friends in town were alarmed to hear that she was quite ill. Tuesday she seemed much better for a short time but grew rapidly worse until the end.

Mrs Carroll was only twenty years of age and had lived in our midst almost from infancy and grief at her death lies heavily in the hearts of all. In all the bright troup of sons and daughters that have grown up in the Valley there was none more pure in mind, more conscientiously upright in character or more true and kind to all than the one who has left us now to join the One whose Word she has followed so faithfully. Mrs. Carroll has, since early girl-hood, been a member of the Presbyterian church and was married in that church eleven months ago. Her short married life has been one of unclouded happiness and the past few weeks which she spent at her parents home were so illumined, for all the family, by her beautiful spirit that it seemed as though already she was standing on the threshold of that bright Home which she was to enter. The God who took her to dwell in that better world, for which she was so ready, will comfort the stricken parents and brothers, watch over the motherless babe and breathe hope into the heart of the husband for the union on that other shore which shall be eternal.

Rev. Nels G. Sundby, of Collins and Bennett, has been summoned and the funeral will take place today at 2 p. m., from the Presbyterian church.

That the said defendant in the month of December 1893 the exact date plaintiff does not now remember and at other times and dates between the month of December 1893 and the 25th. day of April 1894 has offered plaintiff such indignities as to render his condition intolerable.

That on or about the said 20th. day of December 1893 the defendant was found in the office of one Dr.J.M.Browder at Saratoga, Carbon County State of Wyoming, sitting on the bed in said office in company with the said Dr.J.M.Browder holding his head in her arms, and at different times and dates between the said 20th. day of December 1893 and July 1895, the defendant at Saratoga Carbon Co. Wyoming kept company with the said Dr.J.M.Browder, and wrote letters to the said Dr.J.M.Browder containing expressions of love for him the said Browder, against the express wishes of plaintiff.

That the said plaintiff on account of the intimacy and love existing between said Browder and the defendant which was an open and known fact to all the people living in the community where he resided was greatly disgraced and in order to be relieved from such disgrace and to save himself and family from the same he requested the defendant to go with him and his family to the State of Nebraska, but the defendant refused and the plaintiff was on or about April 25th.1894 forced by the conduct aforesaid of the defendant to leave his home, and go to Indiana where he remained until about the month of July 1895.

That during a portion of the time the plaintiff was absent in Indiana, the defendant and the said Dr.J.M.Browder at Saratoga Carbon County State of Wyoming, lived in the same house and their actions towards each other as plaintiff is informed and believes were similar to those of husband and wife, and during said period viz from December 1893 until July 1895, the said defendant wrote letters to the said Browder containing expressions of her love towards him the aforesaid Browder.

Second- Plaintiff further saith that at different times and dates between the month of December 1893 and July 1895, the defendant at Saratoga, Carbon County, State of Wyoming, commited adultery with the said Dr.J.M.Browder and more particularly to wit on or about the 1st. day of June 1894 the said defendant at the place last aforesaid commited adultery with the said Dr.J.M.Browder, and on or about the 7th. or 8th. day of September 1894, the made to live in adultery with the said J.J.Brouwer,holding his head in her arms,and at [illegible] times and dates between the said 20th. day of December 1888,the defendant,kept company with the said Dr.J.J.Brouwer,and wrote letters to the said Dr.J.J.Brouwer containing expressions of love for him the said Brouwer,against the express wishes of plaintiff.

That the said plaintiff on account of the illicit and love existing between said Brouwer and the defendant,which was an open and known fact to all the people living in the community where he resided was greatly disgraced and in order to be relieved from such disgrace and to save himself and family from the same,he requested the defendant to go with him and his family to the State of Nebraska,but the defendant refused and the plaintiff was on or about April 20th,1889 forced by the conduct aforesaid of the defendant to leave his home,and go to Indiana where he remained until about the month of July 1889.

That during a portion of the time the plaintiff was absent in Indiana,the defendant and the said Dr.J.J.Brouwer lived in the same house and their actions towards each other in plaintiff's [illegible] were similar to those of husband and wife,and during said period from December 1888 until July 1889,the said defendant wrote letters to the said Brouwer,and [illegible] expressions of endless love towards the said [illegible] Brouwer.

That at [illegible] times [illegible]

between the month of December 1888 and July 1889 the defendant committed adultery with the said Dr.J.J.Brouwer and more particularly on or about the 1st. day of June 1889,the said defendant committed adultery with the said Dr.J.J.Brouwer and on or about the 7th. or 8th. day of December 1889,the defendant at Saratoga Carbon County State of Wyoming, gave premature birth to a child the illegitimate offspring of the defendant and the said Dr.J.M.Browder.

The plaintiff saith that he is not guilty of the same crime or misconduct charged against the defendant and that there is no collusion between the plaintiff and the defendant to obtain a divorce.

Wherefore plaintiff prays that the marriage relation now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be set aside and wholly annulled and that the plaintiff and defendant be wholly released from the obligations of the same, and that the care custody nurture and education of the above and within named children of the plaintiff and defendant who are all minors be given to the plaintiff and the said defendant forever enjoined from interfereing with or disturbing the plaintiff in the nurture custody education and care of said children and for such other and further relief in the premises as to the Court may seem fit and proper.

LINA WAGONER HORNER.

Mrs. Lina Wagoner Horner died March 3, 1938, at her farm home, one mile east of Pyrmont, at the age of 76 years. She was born in the vicinity of Americus, coming to Carroll county at the time of her early marriage where she has lived almost continuously since that time.

With her passing the county and the community have lost a substantial friend. Mrs. Horner was interested in the uplifting of humanity and did her part in this noble task whenever an opportunity presented itself. Her untiring efforts in the temperance cause made a lasting impression on her own family and upon the communities in which she lived. She loved her home, her family and her church. She was also a friend of our public schools, showing deep concern, not only in the grade schools of Clay township which her children first attended, but in their institutions of higher learning as well. A number of her children were graduated from the Delphi high school.

Though her nine living children are widely scattered, some to the extreme northwestern state of our country, they are all with one accord voicing the same truth, "A good mother has fallen"

The five typewriters stolen from the Flora school building Tuesday have not been recovered.

THE WAGONER FAMILY

Joel Wagoner 66.1.2

Inasmuch as our forebears on the Wagoner side had passed on long before I appeared on the scene, I know less about their origin than I do about the Cripe ancestors. Jim Felix has possession of a Wagoner family bible which my mother, Barbara Wagoner, presented to me since I was the only one of her sons that could read German. This bible contains a section especially designed for keeping a record of the births, marriages and deaths of the members of the family. Someone in the Joel Wagoner family did record a number of these events.

It is interesting to note that the family name is spelled 4 different ways, Waggoner, Wagoner, Wagner, and Wegner. Mother spelled the name Wagoner. I personally have been rather a poor speller and take some comfort in the fact that I may have inherited this weakness.

The bible records the date of birth for Grandfather Joel Wagoner as 1825 and of Grandmother Susana (Ulrey) Wagoner as 1827. I believe they had 7 children but only 4 lived to maturity.

I can only remember Mother's youngest brother, Ad (he insisted his name was Ad --- not Adam), who visited in our home for a month or so at a time on two occasions I remember well. His last visit was in 1911 or 12 when I was 15 or 16.

As a young man Uncle Ad was a student at Mt. Morris College for a year or two. There he met and fell madly in love with a charming young girl. Shortly thereafter they were married and lived a very romantic life for about a year when she took suddenly ill and died. Being an extremely sensitive individual, this tragedy broke his heart, and shortly thereafter he headed for the far west and became a wanderer and a nomad for several years trying to forget.

For a period he lived with different Indian tribes and learned their language. He became very much interested in Indians and was sympathetic to their problems. He felt they had received a bum rap from the Congress and the Great White Fathers in Washington because of the broken treaties and promises. It is most interesting to me that it took the comings and goings of many Congresses and many Great White Fathers to arrive at the same conclusions that Uncle Ad saw clearly 100 years before. We now have an "Equal Rights" bill which includes some rectification of the wrongs perpetrated on the Indians.

Later Uncle Ad became an employee of the Northwestern Railway system and remained with them until his death. In time he worked his way up to Superintendent of the Water Department of the Western Division.

In his earlier years with the NWRR he lived in Lincoln, Nebraska, where he remarried a lady whose first name was Mary. I do not believe I ever heard her Maiden name nor her nationality background, but I would guess she might have been at least partly Irish, as she had red hair and was a very jolly person. There were no children from either marriage. In the latter part of his life, Uncle Ad and Aunt Mary lived in Lander, Wyoming, the western terminal of the NWRR system.

Floyd & Margaret Cripe

He died in 1918 while I was in service in World War I and is buried in Lander, Wyoming, near Jackson Hole and the Great Teton mountains he loved so dearly.

Grandmother Susan Ulrey Wagoner was born in 1827 and died in 1860 at the age of 33 after having given birth to 7 children. This is about all I know of her.

Grandfather Joel Wagoner was born in 1825. He was quite a landed gentleman even in those days owning over a section of land in Tippeecanoe County, about eight miles north of Lafayette, which would be worth several million dollars at today's prices. He also held title to some valuable land in Missouri.

The house where my mother was born was still standing when I was young, some 60 years ago. I remember seeing it only once. As stated above, Grandmother Wagoner died in 1860 and Grandfather remarried. That was a sad day for the Wagoner children as the new wife took full charge and made it so uncomfortable for them they found it next to impossible to live in the same house. Mother left home at age 16 and worked as a hired farm girl for eight years.

This was bad enough, but in addition, the second wife Lucy (Mason) Replogle shuffled the deck in such a way as to gain control of Grandfather's estate. I never knew the woman's name, where she came from or what finally became of her.

I often heard my father and mother discussing the situation. Mother supposedly finally got $200 and a shotgun as her share. Considering how she felt about the whole affair, it's a wonder she didn't discharge the shotgun in her stepmother's direction.

Grandfather Joel Wagoner died in 1865 at age 40, which was about the average mortality for that day. I'm sure from overhearing various conversations that Mother had a suspicion that her stepmother might have raised the death statistics a bit by slipping something into Grandfather's coffee.

We will never know whether or not Mother's suspicions concerning her stepmother were well-founded but the fact remains that the Cripe family might have been several million dollars richer had they fallen heir to and hung onto Mother's share of Grandfather Wagoner's holdings for the 100 years intervening. Oh well --- as Whittier said in his poem Maude Muller, "The saddest words of tongue or pen, the saddest of all, 'it might have been.'"

64.1.1.2.4 Christian Cripe and Barbary ~~Ulrey~~ WAGONER were married in 1879 and started their married life in a little house situated high on the hill above the spot where the old grist mill stood, about one mile west and one mile north of the farm. Dad was then employed at the mill. Earl was born in that house on the hill.

Several years later Dad and Mom bought a 40-acre farm, located one-quarter mile south of where Claud and Maurice lived. The other four boys were born in that location.

We all attended school at the old Egypt clay township school #91. The building is still there. I wonder how many of you know that there was a little crossroad town named Egypt extending west from the farm buildings consisting of a country store, a blacksmith shop and a post office. The main farmhouse where Claude lives was formerly the store and the post office.

EPILOGUE

It seems obvious that some family names were derived from the crafts, trades or occupation in which they were engaged, such as Shoemaker, Farmer, Carpenter, Wagoner (wagon maker).

Other families designed a crest (or so-called Coast of Arms) on which certain symbols supposedly depict the skills in which the family excelled and the courage, daring and feats of bravery of their members.

Somewhere in my files I have a crest or scroll bearing the name Cripe. I have never taken much stock in it for it was obviously designed for its commercial value, and anyone can purchase one bearing his or her name. Should the designer not have one in stock, he'll quickly create one to fit the occasion. Nevertheless, if I can locate the one I purchased some years ago, I'll have duplicates made and mail you a copy. On the proceeding page we have set up a somewhat different type crest in which we have selected a list of adjectives which we feel fit and describe rather well some of the qualities and characteristics of the members of our family.

Should you disagree, we suggest you formulate a crest to suit yourself. In Proverbs 23:7, an old prophet says, "As a man thinketh in his heart so is he." This idea must have some merit for it has been dealt with in fact and fiction and in poetry and prose.

I am sure you have all read Nathaniel Hawthorne's story of Ernest and the Great Stone Face.

Ernest was a farmer trying to wrest a meager livelihood out of the stoney, soil at the foot of one of the rock-ribbed hills of his native New Hampshire. On the side of the mountains facing his little plot the rains, ice and snow of the centuries had etched into the granite outcroppings a figure resembling the face of a man.

During his daily toils this face was constantly in Ernest's view. As he grew older his neighbors noted that his countenance took on features very similar to those of the Great Stone Face.

So, if the members of the Cripe family do not now have all the characteristics outlined in my "crest," it may be possible to develop them by keeping them constantly in mind as a standard to live up to.

Remember the words of the Prophet?

So much for fiction.

EPILOGUE

I personally have profited greatly as a result of the sterline character of an individual bearing the name of Cripe whom I never saw nor heard of.

Before World War I, I had ambitions to study medicine and shortly after being inducted into the Army, an opportunity presented itself to volunteer for service in the Medical Corps, which I grabbed, with great eagerness. I soon discovered that I was an orderly in G. U. Ward (as it was then called), carrying bed pans and making beds.

Because most of the fellows in this ward had contracted a venereal disease and were not really very ill, the officers would round them up each day and march them out to perform some sort of fatigue duty, like washing windows, scrubbing floors, and any dirty work they could think of.

I became well acquainted with one lad who was in the ward because of a ruptured bladder resulting from an accident. One extremely hot July day he was lined up for fatigue duty and being marched into the broiling sun, which probably would have finished him off.

I happened to be standing close to the marching column and I took hold of his arm and pulled him out of the line. Several seconds later the whole earth caved in on me. Captain Alsup, the Commanding Officer of the Medical detachment who was in charge of the column, approached me in a purple rage and asked, "Who the hell do you think you are...what authority do you have to countermand the order of a superior officer?" Quaking in my boots and with chattering knees, I snapped to salute and answered, "I'm Private Cripe, and the man I pulled from the line does not have a venereal disease, but is in this ward because of a ruptured bladder. I was afraid that if he were exposed to this intense heat for several hours it might kill him. Furthermore, I read the Army Manual, and if my memory serves me correctly, a patient in a hospital is not to be assigned to fatigue duty."

At that he cooled off a bit and said, "Private Cripe, you be at my office at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning."

You may be sure that I didn't sleep well that night, thinking I was subject to a Court Martial.

When I appeared at his office the following morning, the Captain's attitude had taken a 180 degree turn. He asked me a few questions about my background and education, then he shocked me even more than the day before by what he said. Here are the words he said that I will never forget.

"Cripe, how would you like to transfer to my office and work for me." He continued, "I didn't know that anyone in this man's Army ever read the Manual and now that I've found one, I'd like to have him in my command."

"In civilian life I'm the Chief Surgeon at Queen's Hospital in Honolulu and I have there a nurse by the name of Cripe who is the best nurse I ever worked with. You are the only other person by that name I ever met, and I hope you live up to the qualities of Nurse Cripe."

EPILOGUE

As stated before, this was in July; in August he promoted me to Corporal; in September to Sergeant; in October to Duty Sergeant, which would be Personnel Officer (in today's jargon).

I don't know what further promotions would have been in store for me, but the Armistice was signed the middle of November, and although I wasn't mustered out until July of 1919, there were no more promotions for drafted non-commissioned officers after the Armistice.

I believe this episode marked the first time that I was ever glad that my name was Cripe, but I've carried the name with pride ever since, and hope that I have conducted my life in such a way that it may benefit someone else who is a member of the tribe.

In closing, I would be remiss unless I gave due credit to Margaret (Tudy) for her interest, support and valuable suggestions during the compilation of this record. I hope you will have the opportunity of thanking her some time.

Good hunting and happy landing to all of you.

Cripe

Historiography

The Cripe Coat of Arms illustrated left was drawn by an heraldic artist from information officially recorded in ancient heraldic archives. Documentation for the Cripe Coat of Arms design can be found in Burke's General Armory. Heraldic artists of old developed their own unique language to describe an individual Coat of Arms. In their language, the Arms (shield) is as follows:

> "Or, on a chev. vert five horseshoes ar."

> "Gold, on a green chevron, five silver horseshoes."

Family mottos are believed to have originated as battle cries in medieval times. A Motto was not recorded with the Cripe Coat of Arms.

Individual surnames originated for the purpose of more specific identification. The four primary sources for second names were: occupation, location, father's name and personal characteristics. The surname Cripe appears to be characteristic in origin, and is believed to be associated with the English, meaning, "one who had curly hair." The supplementary sheet included with this report is designed to give you more information to further your understanding of the origin of names. Different spellings of the same original surname are a common occurence. Dictionaries of surnames indicate probable spelling variations. The most prominent variations of Cripe are Crip, Cripp, Crips, Cripps, Crippes and Cripes.

Census records available disclose the fact there are approximately 875 heads of households in the United States with the old and distinguished Cripe name. The United States Census Bureau estimates there are approximately 3.2 persons per household in America today which yields an approximate total of 2800 people in the United States carrying the Cripe name. Although the figure seems relatively low, it does not signify the many important contributions that individuals bearing the Cripe name have made to history.

No genealogical representation is intended or implied by this report and it does not represent individual lineage or your family tree.

YOUR NAME AND YOUR COAT OF ARMS -- -- Priceless Gifts From History

Until about 1100 A.D. most people in Europe had only one name (This is still true in some primitive countries today). As the population increased it became awkward to live in a village wherein perhaps 1/3 of the males were named John, another sizable percentage named William, and so forth.

And so, to distinguish one John from another a second name was needed. There were four primary sources for these second names. They were: a man's occupation, his location, his father's name or some peculiar characteristic of his. Here are some examples.

Occupation: The local house builder, food preparer, grain grinder and suit maker would be named respectively: John Carpenter, John Cook, John Miller, and John Taylor.

Location: The John who lived over the hill became known as John Overhill, the one who dwelled near a stream might be dubbed John Brook or perhaps John Atbrook.

Patronymical: (father's name): Many of these surnames can be recognized by the termination---son, such as Williamson, Jackson, etc. Some endings used by other countries to indicate "son" are: Armenian's---ian, Dane's and Norwegian's ---sen, Finn's---nen, Greek's---pulos, Spaniard's---ez, and Pole's---wiecz. Prefixes denoting "son" are the Welsh---Ap, the Scot's and Irish---Mac, and the Norman's---Fitz. The Irish O' incidentally denotes grandfather.

Characteristic: An unusually small person might be labeled Small, Short, Little or Lytle. A large man might be named Longfellow, Large, Lang, or Long. Many persons having characteristics of a certain animal would be given the animal's name. Examples: a sly person might be named Fox; a good swimmer, Fish; a quiet man, Dove; etc.

In addition to needing an extra name for identification, one occupational group found it necessary to go a step further. The fighting man: The fighting man of the Middle Ages wore a metal suit of armor for protection. Since this suit of armor included a helmet that completely covered the head, a knight in full battle dress was unrecognizable. To prevent friend from attacking friend during the heat of battle, it became necessary for each knight to somehow identify himself. Many knights accomplished this by painting colorful patterns on their battle shields. These patterns were also woven into cloth surcoats which were worn over a suit of armor. Thus was born the term, "Coat of Arms."

As this practice grew more popular, it became more and more likely that two knights unknown to each other might be using the same insignia. To prevent this, records were kept that granted the right to a particular pattern to a particular knight. His family also shared his right to display these arms. In some instances, these records have been preserved and/or compiled into book form. The records list the family name and an exact description of the "Coat of Arms" granted to that family.

Interest in heraldry is increasing daily. This is especially true among people who have a measure of family pride and who resent attempts of our society to reduce each individual to a series of numbers stored somewhere in a computer. In our matter-of-fact day and age, a "Coat of Arms" is one of the rare devices remaining that can provide an incentive to preserve our heritage. We hope you'll agree that it is much more than just a wall decoration.

If you are interested in a more in-depth study of the subject of this paper, may we suggest you contact the genealogical department of any fair-sized public library. We especially recommend the "Dictionary of American Family Names" published by Harper & Row and also "The Surnames of Scotland" available from the New York Public Library as excellent sources on the meaning of surnames.

Extracts from The Jacob Cripe Family (1817-1900)

Jacob Cripe, the ancester of the Cripes in America, lived in Germany near the sea. He was a cooper by trade. His coming to America was rather sudden according to all stories or legends obtained from several various lines of Cripes, although varying some in deatail. He lived near either a military camp or college, and the cadets or students often teased him, possibly to become one of them. One night as he was working in his shop they came to torment him, and as they were rough and cruel he would not let them in. They found a narrow openning where they enter one at a time.

The cooper had a long, heavy knife with a cord attached to it.. He usually threw this knife into whichever pole he wanted for making hoops and pulled it to him. He now threw this knife at the students as they entered and according to the legend at least one if not more have been killed or hurt. Now what could he do? A big ship was leaving in the morning for America. In the darkness he slipped into the ship and hid himself, and was not found till the ship was far out to sea, and got over.

So Jacob Cripe(Greib), 21, landed in America on Sept. 28, 1733, on ship Brigantine Richard and Elizabeth, Captain Christopher Clymer.

He had 150 acres in Lancaster Co. PA in 1743
By 1776 Or 1779 he had 700 acres of land in Bedford Co. PA which township he lived in, became part of Huntingdom Co.PA in 1788.

Pennsylvania was freiendly to all classes of people and the cooper trade was a good one and this man got along well. In course of time he married a German woman, Elizabeth Ulrich, and had a family. It is more than likely that the German cooper heard the preaching of the Dunkers, as other people called them because they (immersed) three times. They stressed the Command,"Thou shalt not kill", and taught that it was wrong to go to war. It is more than likely that his conscience may have troubled him and he may have sought pardon by entering the church.

Note: We need to now who Leonard Cripe"s father was., and maybe his grandfather to connect to this Jacob Cripe(Greib).

deacon. Into their home on August 7, 1886, was born a daughter whom they named Ida,—the fourth in a family of five daughters. Ida has grown up in the religious atmosphere of her home, and amidst its healthy physical surroundings. She attended common schools until 1904, when she entered Mt. Morris College for one year, and then completed the Academic Course in the year 1907-1908. She taught common school three years in Macon County, Illinois, and, entering Bethany Bible School, in 1910, graduated from the three years' Bible Course prescribed there.

In the fall of 1900, while Bro. A. G. Crosswhite was conducting a series of meetings in the Oakley congregation, Ida confessed Christ and through baptism by Brother Crosswhite united with the Church of the Brethren. She soon became a Sunday-school teacher, and has been active along religious lines ever since.

She expects to sail sometime during the fall of 1913, to Sweden, where she will assist Brother and Sister Graybill in their work.

A. RAYMOND COTTRELL, M. D.

Missionary to India, 1913

Eli M. Cottrell, born in Darke County, Ohio, later located on a farm near Pyrmont, Indiana. Here he met and married Catherine Wagoner Blickenstaff. Both are of "Pennsylvania Dutch" stock, members of the Church of the Brethren, and pious people who sought to do the will of the Lord. To them was born on March 21, 1884, a son whom they called Asher Raymond. He is the fourth child in a family of four sons and one daughter. Raymond attended school in Pyrmont, Indiana, until through the fourth grade. His father having moved to North Manchester in 1895, Raymond had better school facilities offered him, and he made use of them eagerly. In a creditable manner he completed the grades, then the North Manchester high school in 1903. He entered the employ of the Brethren Publishing House, working in the business and proofreading departments from November, 1904, to September, 1907. He spent the school year of 1907 and '08 in Bethany Bible School of Chicago; then two years in the American Medical Missionary College at Battle Creek, Michigan; two years more in the College of Medicine, University of Illinois, where, in June, 1912, he received the degree of M. D. While he had some flattering offers to remain in America Raymond declined them all, in order to prepare himself for the mission field. He accepted a position in the Deaconess Hospital, Spokane, Washington, as an interne, being house physician there during 1912-13.

On August 8, 1906, he was united in marriage to Laura Murphy, and together they have been pushing through college.

The spiritual impress of the home, along with the sanctuary to which place the parents took their children regularly, made a lasting impression upon Raymond. At the tender age of eleven, while Isaac Frantz was holding a series of meetings at Pyrmont, Indiana, in the spring of 1895, Raymond confessed Christ and united with the Church of the Brethren. He served as teacher and officer in the Sunday-schools where he lived; he was president of the Christian Workers' Society in Elgin, Illinois, one term. He was president of the College Student Volunteer Band at the University of Illinois for one year. For a number of years he has observed the "tithe holy unto the Lord." He rendered it to him cheerfully, and has found many rich blessings by doing so.

Thus equipped, Raymond is ready to sail to India in the fall of 1913, to render such service as his skilled hand may be able to give to the many needy ones in that sin-darkened land.

MRS. A. RAYMOND COTTRELL, M. D., NEE LAURA M. MURPHY

Missionary to India, 1913

In Greenville, Ohio, on October 1, 1881, a daughter, afterwards called Laura, was born into the home of A. J. and Mary (Coates) Murphy. The father was a paper hanger by trade, and the mother a nurse. Laura is the oldest child in the family and has two brothers. When six years old, the father died, leaving the mother in limited circumstances to provide for her children. Laura attended public school in Greenville and graduated from the high school in 1899. She attended one normal term at Manchester College, North Manchester, Indiana; then taught country school four years in Darke County, Ohio. In September, 1904, she entered the employ of the Brethren Publishing House, reading proof for two and one-half years. She was an assistant in the Sunday-school department for six months. During 1907-08 she attended Bethany Bible School and the following fall began her medical training as follows: American Medical Missionary College, Battle Creek, Michigan, two years; College of Medicine, University of Illinois, Chicago, two years, graduating June 4, 1912, with the degree of M. D. She was, for three months, on the medical staff at Battle Creek Sanitarium, Michigan; eight months house physician at the Deaconess Hospital, Spokane, Washington.

On August 8, 1906, Laura was united in marriage to A. Raymond Cottrell, and has sought to second his labors faithfully ever since.

In Greenville, Ohio, Laura confessed Christ and was baptized on February 2, 1896, by Levi H. Eby. This intensified her religious purposes greatly, and she became an effectual worker in the Sunday-school and Christian Workers' Meetings. Though busy in her school work, she was ever ready to do for others what her hands could do, and looks forward with bright hopes of being used by the Lord in helping to relieve the suffering, and point the sufferers to her Lord and Master, after she reaches India in the fall of 1913.

Dr. Laura Murphy Cottrell

Dr. A. Raymond Cottrell
Sebring, Florida

Born in Greenville, Ohio, Oct. 1, 1881
Baptized at Greenville, Feb. 2, 1896
Graduated from Greenville High School in 1899
Student at Manchester College for a short time
Taught school for several years in Ohio

FEELING the need for more opportunity to associate with Brethren young people Laura Murphy took employment in the Brethren Publishing House, Elgin, in 1904. There she met her future husband; they were married on Aug. 8, 1906.

In 1907 a definite personal call came to give their lives to the Lord's service. Our church leaders advised that medical workers were urgently needed, so preparation began for that field of service. Realizing the need for a spiritually sound foundation, one year was spent at Bethany Bible School in Chicago.

Then began five long, hard and expensive years of medical training. Arrival on the medical school campus found them with less than five dollars in money and no human assurance as to future income. Their reliance as to finances was based squarely on the firm conviction that God meant exactly what he said in Matt. 6: 33. If you will wholeheartedly and unreservedly make God's business first, then he will care for your spiritual and temporal needs. Was this to be taken literally, or not? Convinced that God did mean it literally they proved their faith by their actions. Faith in the genuineness of their call and the conviction that all God's promises are dependable, was tested many, many times in the years ahead. They did all they could to help themselves and God does not permit his children to be unduly tried; so faith did stand the tests. The Lord brought it to pass that all needs were met as they arose, and in June 1912 the degree of M.D. was given to each by the University of Illinois. Then came a year of hospital internship in Michigan and Spokane, Wash.

When their preparation was completed, the Winona Annual Conference, 1913, appointed them to the India mission field. With the exception of one year, 1932, which was spent in China, the whole of their mission work was at Bulsar, India.

Adequate professional training is important. But beyond that there is something more vital, especially for a mission worker. Will your message and witness be based on classroom theories or on tried-out facts? How do you know that what you are saying is literally true? Have you tried it out personally? Did it work? Six years of literal, daily dependence on the validity of all God's promises for present-day needs gave personal proof that God is faithful and able. They now had something worth while to take to India.

Medical work, the relief of suffering, took much of our Savior's time during his earthly ministry and Drs. Cottrell were happy to follow in his footsteps. There is no key which opens as many doors to the gospel message as the relief of suffering. Through this agency many, many thousands of lives and hearts were touched and the way opened for the good news of salvation from sin through the blood of the Lamb.

The lifework of few women is bound up so closely with that of their husbands as was Dr. Laura Cottrell's with Dr. Raymond's. First of all was the complete unity of purpose in life. There was united, earnest seeking to know God's plan for them, united seeking to live so that God might be able to reveal his Son in and through them. Then came six years of preparatory schooling together. On the field she continued to work side by side with her husband throughout the whole of their many years. Normally, th wife spends much of her time in th interests of the home. Dr. Laura, i addition to looking after her dutie in the home, always carried full-time schedule in dispensar clinic and hospital. Day and nigh year after year, she looked after th professional needs of the wome and children while Dr. Raymon cared for the men. It was a unusually close companionship an partnership, such as few are priv leged to have for a whole lifetim and the joint service was especiall appreciated by the Indian wome patients.

Dr. Laura was never one to see personal honor and glory. It wa her delight to seek the honor an glory of the Lord and to be used him as a true, faithful and fruitfu witness of the good news. She wa one of those who care little fo man's planning and worldly wisdo but who prize highly the wisdo from above. A full acceptance the whole of God's revealed Wor with the Holy Spirit's indwellin presence and guidance was th foundation on which her fai rested. Yes, sometimes Satan's dar were fiery, but faith was alwa able to quench them.

In March of this year a virule attack of virus pneumonia broug out a latent rheumatic heart infe tion and she was in a hospital fro March 15 until her death. Eventu recovery seemed probable until O 11, when pericarditis develope She left us very early in t morning on Oct. 28, 1951.

On April 8, 1883, Noah and Suzanne Killingsworth Wagoner (my parents) were married at Oceola, Missouri. Father was 19 years old and Mother was 22.

Soon after their marriage they left for Wyoming with Grandpa Wagoners (Andrew and Mary Wagoner) Uncle Andy Wagoner, Sam Wagoner and Uncle Abel Killingsworth who went with them but didn't stay very long.

Phillip Wagoner was in Missouri when they bought the cattle and Uncle John Wagoner looked after taking the cattle to Wyoming.

There were ten covered wagons and Two Hundred Forty head of cattle. It took them all Summer to make the trip. The cattles feet got so sore from walking they had to shoe them with leather. Some of them.

The women helped drive the wagons. They would hang the cream up in the top of the wagon and the motion of the wagon would churn it into butter.

When they arrived in Wyoming they put out timber to prove their land. My Father had One Hundred Sixty acres of land. Ten acres of the timber is still standing.

They put their brand on their cattle and horses and put them out on the range, out in the mountains and the valley. My Father's brand was E--Z--2. Once a year the men that owned cattle and horses would round them up and put them in a corral and brand them, then turn them back out again. Some of the horses would get so wild, they had to lasso them and break them before they could ride them or hitch them to their wagons.

There were very few church members. Grandpa Wagoners, Uncle Tom Murreys, Uncle Sammy Yosts are among the few I remember. We never had a church house. They held their regular meetings in the School House, but when they had Communion they held that in my folks home, by candle light.

Issac Bashor was our minister, also Uncle Sammy Yost while he lived there. He left three years before my folks.

On July 3, 1884 Uncle Sammy Yosts had a little girl three years old to be washed off their wagon and drown as they were fording a swift stream. Her body was found a few hours later. She was buried out on the plains where no one else was buried. Later her body was taken up and buried at Spring Creek, Wyoming

My sister Elda, passed away in 1901 at the age of seventeen. She had what they called, brain fever. The Doctor had to come by horseback for many miles. She was buried at Encampment, Wyoming.

My Father and Uncle Dave Killingsworth again took up the body of Sammy Yosts little girl and buried her beside my sister at Encampment.

Once a year my folks took butter, eggs, strawberries and vegetables to Rawlins, which was Fortyfive miles away. They'd get a supply of groceries, such as flour, sugar, salt, a barrel of crackers and coffee to grind. They would take eggs, butter etc. to Saratoga more often, which was Twenty miles away. They also did banking at Saratoga, but had money in the house until they could get to the bank. One Sunday morning while we were at church someone broke down the door and stoled Two Hundred dollars from a dresser drawer.

Wyoming was noted for it's high quality grass. They also produced the finest quality butter, so therefore got a high price for it. Cold water was not needed to keep butter or milk. They could keep meat without salt by putting a pole in the ground and with a pulley and rope they'd pull the meat to the top of it for storage, then lower it when they wanted to use it. It would keep all year, as the air is so pure and dry.

The principle meats used were wild, such as Antelope, Deer, Mountain Sheep, and Elk. Fish was plentiful and very good. Many were caught in irrigating ditches. There was a ditch put through my Fathers land bringing water down from the mountains, for irrigating. It was called the Wagoner ditch. There was also one right beside it called the Parr ditch. They can both be seen today.

Wages for herding cattle were Thirty Five to Forty dollars a month.

On September 1, 1903 we left Wyoming for Overbrook, Kansas. I was nine years old. We brought two covered wagons and five head of horses. It took until the latter part of October to get there, about two months, Father bought Three Hundred Twenty acres of land there. We lived there twelve years one else was buried. Later her body was taken up and buried at Spring Creek, Wyoming

My sister Lida, passed away in 1901 at the age of seventeen. She had what they called, Brain Fever. The Doctor had to come by horseback for many miles. She was buried at Encampment, Wyoming.

My Father and Uncle Dave Killingsworth again took up the body of Cassy Fonts little girl and buried her beside my sister at Encampment.

On September 1, 1902 we left Wyoming for Overbrook, Kansas. I was nine years old. We brought two covered wagons and five head of horses. It took until the latter part of October to get there, about two months. Father before coming to Indiana.

I had three sisters. Elda, Nettie, who died in Kansas at the age of twenty, and Sarah. One Brother Abel. I was the youngest child.

This is what I remember about Wyoming and our trip by covered wagon when we moved to Kansas, Seventy Five years ago.

BURGER

DANIEL A. BURGER was born September 12, 1850 in Botetourt County, Virginia, son of Samuel and Nancy (   ) Burger. Daniel was baptized in his youth.

LUCY FRANCES "Fannie" MONTGOMERY was born March 8, 1846 in Franklin County, Virginia, daughter of James and Susannah (Naff) Montgomery. There were eleven children in the Montgomery family, George, Isaac, Peter N., James Robert, John, Fannie Burger, Elizabeth Boughton, Irene Hodges, Martha Jane Montgomery, and Cynthia Fisher, and an infant. Fannie was baptized in 1864.

Daniel and Fannie were married in 1872 in Virginia. They had one son, John Peter Burger, born January 21, 1873 in Botetourt County, Virginia. In 1881, they moved to Ionia, Jewell County, Kansas, where several of the Montgomery family had also moved. In 1888, the Burger family moved to Coos Bay, Oregon, and from there to Artesia, Los Angeles County, in fall 1892, moving by team and wagon. They were a part of the formative years at the New River district. At Artesia, they bought a farm near the San Gabriel River. In 1906, the river flooded around their buildings. They had built their chicken house on stilts due to the flooding.

Fannie's brother, Robert and his wife, Libby (Walker) Montgomery, came from Kansas in 1913 to stay with them awhile. In November 1913, Daniel Burger, Robert Montgomery, and John Burger all went to Ripon in San Joaquin County where they bought property one mile west of town. The Montgomery family moved there right away (grandparents of Jessie Nielsen of Ripon), and John Burger moved there in February 1914.

In December 1916, Daniel and Fannie Burger leased their farm at Artesia, and moved by train to Ripon. Their three grandchildren, William Henry, Ruby Frances, and Mary Alice (children of John), moved with them. They took the cattle, horses, hogs, chickens, implements, and household goods all on the train.

Daniel died May 22, 1923, aged 72 years. Fannie Burger died October 19, 1927, aged 81 years. They are buried in the Wood Colony Cemetery.

JOHN PETER BURGER was married four times. His first wife, Rosa (Peters) Burger, died in 1898, and is buried in the Olive Grove Cemetery. They had one son, William Henry Burger. His second wife was Dorothy (Daughety) Burger. They had one son, Louis Harrison, born in June 1903 and died in September 1903, buried in Olive Grove Cemetery, and two daughters, Ruby and Mary. His third wife was Effie Eldora (Waters) Deilks, and his fourth wife was Clara Annette (Hovenden) Esselstein. John died February 3, 1951 at Modesto, aged 78 years. Annette was baptized into the Old German Baptist Church, and she died January 4, 1969, aged 76 years. John and Annette are buried in the Wood Colony Cemetery.

JOHN J. WAGONER

JOHN J. WAGONER was born October 3, 1852 at Pyrmont, Indiana, son of Samuel Wagoner 1808-1869 and Catharine (Metzger) Wagoner 1807-1891. John had two brothers, Andrew and Samuel A., and two sisters, Susanna Yost and Mary Hearn, also two infants, Marvin and Barbara, and one half sister, Hannah.

BARBARA E. WAGONER was born December 10, 1850 at Pyrmont, Indiana, daughter of Leonard L. and Catherine (Replogle) Wagoner. Barbara had one sister, Christena (who married James Connor), and one brother, Phillip (who married Catherine Yost).

John Wagoner and Barbara Wagoner were married May 4, 1871 at St. Clair, Missouri. They had 10 children, the oldest was born at Osceola, Missouri, the next seven at Spring Creek, Wyoming, and the two youngest were born near Norwalk, California. John and Barbara were members of the Old German Baptist Church, and he was a deacon. In Wyoming, they lived in a log house, seven miles from Saratoga. While they were living at Spring Creek, the town of Encampment was laid out on the neighboring farm. In the spring 1892, they left Wyoming by train, bringing their household goods and cattle with them, to Los Angeles County.

They settled at Norwalk, then later at Artesia, onto Clabbertown (a settlement also called Egypt), which was seven miles north of Long Beach. They raised beets and corn. The son Andrew worked the summers on a hill where hay was grown, and he would haul the hay from the hill. This hill later became Signal Hill, a densely covered oil field! They moved to a farm near Whittier (across the road where Rose Hills Cemetery is now), then to Rincone Valley, a beautiful fertile valley northwest of Whittier. In 1909, John and Barbara and their children at home moved to Denair, Stanislaus County. In 1911, they bought property north of Modesto. Barbara died at this home on May 7, 1917. John sold the property to Charles B. Rumble. His son, Hubert and family, lived at this home since 1918. John moved to Rio Oso in December 1917, and returned to Modesto in 1926. He died February 1, 1927. John and Barbara are buried in the Wood Colony Cemetery.

(When John and Barbara Wagoner came to California from Wyoming in 1892, they brought a coal oil lamp with them among their household possessions. After John died, this lamp was sold at the estate sale, and bought by David and Elsie Wolf. After Elsie passed away in 1979, her daughters, Viola and Ruth, gave me this old lamp in appreciation for helping them during the funeral time).

THE SARATOGA SUN

PIONEER NEWSPAPER OF THE NORTH PLATTE VALLEY — ESTABLISHED 1888

VOL. 69.   SARATOGA, CARBON COUNTY, WYOMING, THURSDAY, JANUARY 10, 1957.   NO. 26.

Last Rites For Joseph Wagoner Will Be Held Saturday In California

Last rites for Joseph Wagoner, one of the real pioneer residents of the Saratoga region of the North Platte valley will be held Saturday afternoon in Modesto, Calif.

Mr. Wagoner, who first came to the Saratoga area in 1874 as a small child, died at his home here about 1:00 o'clock Monday morning following a heart attack. He suffered a first heart attack about five years ago, and had been in more or less ill health since that time. Last summer he began to decline rather rapidly, and the last few months had been pretty well confined to his home here.

The Rasmusson-Shriner Mortuary of Rawlins had charge of arrangements, and the body was shipped to Modesto yesterday. Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the German Old Baptist church in Modesto, and burial will be in the family plot in the church cemetery.

Joseph Wagoner was born Dec. 5, 1871, in Osceola, Mo. The next year he accompanied his parents, John J. and Barbara Wagoner, and several other family members, to Colorado. The party, including several other families in addition to the Wagoner group, left Missouri early in the spring of 1872. There were five horse-drawn wagons in the caravan, and most of the summer was spent in making the trip. The group wintered near Greeley, Colo., and in the Spring the Wagoners came on to Wyoming, stopping briefly on Sand creek, and then came to the Platte valley and entered the ranching business on Spring creek, the family home until 1905. That year Mr. Wagoner accompanied his family to California, and for a period of 10 years or so engaged in ranching in that state. For a time he owned a walnut grove, and later operated a dairy farm in the Modesto area.

He returned to the Platte valley in 1917, filed on homestead land in the Jack creek region west of Saratoga, where he again ranched until his retirement in 1940.

Mr. Wagoner was married to Miss Bessie Wampler in Ohio on Jan. 12, 1905, and the couple became the parents of three children—two sons and a daughter. His wife died in July of 1918.

On June 6, 1925 he was married to Mrs. Lillian Banks, and the couple made their home on the ranch on Jack creek until 1940, and then moved to Saratoga, where they had made their home since. The ranch was then operated by Mr. Wagoner's eldest son, Robert, until 1943 when it was sold to the Seaverson Livestock Co.

Survivors include his widow; two sons, Robert J. Wagoner, local contractor, and Edward R. Wagoner, in the forest service at Lufkin, Tex.; one daughter, Mrs. Mary Frazier of Dayton Ohio; one sister, Mrs. Eva Bussler of Modesto; and two brothers, A. H. Wagoner and John Wagoner, both of Modesto. Also several neices and nephews and seven grand children.

Mrs. Lillian Wagoner Died Monday Evening In Denver Hospital

Funeral services for Mrs. Lillian Wagoner of Saratoga will be held in Encampment Saturday afternoon, at 2:00 o'clock at the Presbyterian church. The Rev. Eugene Jones, Assemblies of God minister of Rawlins, will be in charge of the services, and burial will be in Mountain View cemetery, east of Encampment.

Mrs. Wagener died about 5:30 Monday evening in a Denver hospital following only a couple of days illness. She had not been feeling well for some time, and the fore part of last week left her home here for Denver, making the trip for a medical checkup. In Denver she was visiting at the home of a nephew, Harold Welty, and expected later to go on to Kansas to visit a sister. The couple made their home on the ranch until about 1941, when Mr. Wagoner turned the place over to his son Robert, and he and Mrs. Wagoner moved to Saratoga to reside. Mr. Wagoner passed away at their home here on January 7th, of this year.

Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Nancy Ellis, or Fall River, Kans., two daughters, Mrs. Frances Ward of Fontana, Calif., and Mrs. Addie Crabtree of Coral Gables, Fla., two stepsons, Robert Wagoner of Saratoga, and Eddie Wagoner, of San Antonio, Tex., and a stepdaughter, Mrs. Mary Frazier, of Dayton, Ohio. LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF
and
CATHERINE JUON
(Husband and Wife)

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that we, Christian Juon, also known as Chris Juon and Catherine Juon, husband and wife, both of the City of Des Moines, County of Polk and State of Iowa, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and being not unmindful of the uncertainties of life, do hereby make, declare and publish this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills and letters testamentary heretofore made by us.

As to our worldly estate, be it real, personal or mixed, located in this State or elsewhere of which we may die seized of or be entitled to at the time of our decease, we hereby give, devise and bequeath in the following manner, that is to say:

ITEM I.

It is our wish and we hereby direct that our hereinafter named executor as soon as practical and convenient pay the expenses of our last illness and burial and all of our just debts out of our respective estates.

ITEM II.

We, each to the other, give, devise and bequeath all of our remaining property, either real, personal or mixed, located in this state or elsewhere of which we, or either of us may die seized of or be entitled to at the time of our decease, the same to be held by the survivor during his or her lifetime, the use and income thereof to be enjoyed by such survivor during his or her lifetime as he or she shall deem just and best, during the remainder of the life of such survivor and if the income from said property be not sufficient to meet all of the [illegible] desires of the survivor for funds with which to live and enjoy life, then the survivor may use the principle as the survivor sees fit, it being our intention that transfers and especially deeds to the real estate herein made from time to time be made without any question arising as to the right and authority to absolutely transfer a good and sufficient title thereto and we hereby give and grant to each other full power and authority to sell and convey and execute transfers and deeds thereof to any property, real, personal or mixed without the obtaining of any court order or the consent of any person whomsoever. It being our intention that the survivor herein shall have the same power to transfer the property in our estates respectively, whether real or personal, that the survivor would possess if the survivor were the absolute owner thereof. And any transfer, assignment, mortgage and/or deed of conveyance made by the survivor shall extinguish forever any right of any beneficiary under this will to have or claim any right or interest in and to the property so transferred by the survivor thereof. The money or property received by the survivor by reason of such sale or transfer shall become a part of the corpus of our estate and be used or distributed in accordance with the provisions of this our last will and testament.

ITEM III.

That at the death of the survivor the property then remaining, real, personal or mixed, located in this State or elsewhere to which said survivor may die seized of or be entitled to at the survivor's death, shall go and become the absolute property of our beloved children, to-wit: Alfred Juon; Clara Juon Lande; Ione Juon Kramer; Elmer Juon; Merlan Juon and Edna Juon, share and share alike.

ITEM IV.

We, in making this will, are not unmindful that under the laws of the State of Iowa our beloved deceased son, Willis Juon, was declared to be the father of a child born by him and Erma Peterson out of wedlock. To said child, we leave nothing and he is not to share in any portion or in any manner in our respective estates.

ITEM V.

It is our wish and we hereby direct that our beloved daughter-in-law, Ivadelle Juon, share in our respective estates the same as our beloved children if she remains at the time of our decease the widow of our beloved son, Willis Juon.

But in the event she remarries prior to our decease, then and in that event her share will revert back into our respective estates for distribution to our beloved children.

ITEM VI.

It is our wish and we hereby nominate and appoint Elmer Juon, our beloved son, to be the executor of this our last will and testament and that he is not required to post bond as such.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we, the said Christian Juon, also known as Chris Juon and Catherine Juon, husband and wife, have to this our LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT, contained on three sheets of paper without interlineation, erasure or change, to each sheet thereof subscribed our names and set our hands on this 5th day of August, A.D., 1943.

COOK–Mary Elizabeth (Fingerle), daughter of Abraham and Elizabeth (Wagoner) Fingerle, was born Dec. 16, 1901, near Pyrmont, Ind. She passed away suddenly at the Aultman Hospital in Canton, Ohio, on July 30, 1966, at the age of 64 years, 7 months, and 14 days.

She was baptized into the Old German Baptist Church in the fall of 1917 and remained faithful unto her death.

On Feb. 28, 1920 she was united in marriage to Emery Elza Cook, who preceded her in death on Dec. 26, 1960. To this union were born 3 sons and 2 daughters: Bro. Edward, Sister Opal Metzger, Sister Ruth Bowers, Bro. Arthur, and Bro. Marvin.

On Sept. 14, 1935, she, with her companion, were elected to the Ministry. They were advanced to the Second Degree Aug. 3, 1940, and ordained to the Eldership on Feb. 7, 1953.

Surviving besides the above-named children are 3 brothers: Bro. Daniel, Henry, and Bro. Paul Fingerle; 19 grandchildren; several nephews and nieces; and many other relatives and friends.

She was spending her vacation visiting her children in Ohio when she suffered a stroke at the home of her son, Marvin. She was taken to the hospital by ambulance, where she passed away only 27 hours later without regaining consciousness.

Funeral services were conducted in the Eel River church on Aug. 3, before a large assembly of relatives and friends by Elders Lester Kinzie and Orvel Gish and Bro. Carl Metzger. The text was taken from 2 Cor. 5:1 and Heb. 4:9. The body was laid to rest in the North Manchester cemetery. She will be greatly missed by her family, the Church, and the community, but we feel that our loss is her eternal gain.

The Family

WAGONER–John P., the son of John J. and Barbara Wagoner, was born on April 15, 1893. He passed away on Aug. 2, 1966, at his home, at the age of 73 years, 3 months, and 18 days. He was one of ten children, and all have preceded him in death with the exception of one brother and one sister.

He spent his entire life in California, most of this time in and around Modesto. For a number of years he lived at Rio Oso. His life consisted of farming, and he spent many a hard day laboring for his family. Whenever he could, he would go to the mountains prospecting for gold with his brother, Andy, He was a member of the Old Order Brethren Church at Salida, Calif. In 1945 he had a stroke which left him disabled for the 21 remaining years of his life. He always bore his affliction with patience.

On April 16, 1916, he was united in marriage to Esther Wolf. To this union were born 4 children, all who survive.

Left to mourn his passing are: a devoted companion; 3 sons: Jesse, James, and Clifford Wagoner; 1 daughter, Mary Webb; 1 brother, A. H. Wagoner; 1 sister, Eva Busler; 16 grandchildren; 1 great-grandchild; and many friends and neighbors.

The funeral was conducted in the West Modesto church by Elders Joseph Cover, Orlando Blickenstaff, and the undersigned. Burial was made in the Wood Colony Cemetery to await the resurrection morning. May our loss be his eternal gain.

Walter A. Heinrich

Dear Delores,

I have not put any of this in order. I am just copying material my mother had written. This comes from her diaries and just little notes she jotted down from time to time. The (Ulrich) Ulrey and Wagoners have lots of early history. My grandpa John P. Ulrey had a German Bible and preached from it. Mother could say herABCs in German forward and backward. She and her brothers and sisters taught great grandparents to read English. She went to school some in Missouri and was 16 when her mother died. She had to keep house for the family after that. She was the oldest of 9 children.
